

STUDENT ORGANIZATIONS

Philomusea Fall 1905

Philalethea Spring 1906

Student organizations played a very important part of student life since the very beginning. During the first semester, men organized the Philomusea literary society. Women followed suit in the spring and founded the Philalethea literary society. In 1924, due to the increase in student enrollment, it was necessary to create two more literary societies: thus Zatatagathea for men and Theacallosia for women were founded. In addition to those literary societies, students were also active in the YWCA (June 1906), the YMCA (September 1906), the Athletic Association (1908), the Oracle (1909), the Student Volunteer Band (1913), the Debating Teams (1916), to name only a few.
