ICC Benefactor Dies

Bishop Emeritus J. Balmer Showers of the Evangelical United Brethren Church died September 25 at Dayton, Ohio, at the age of 82.

From 1945 to 1954, when he retired, Bishop Showers was spiritual leader of the north central area, which has its headquarters in Indianapolis. He and Mrs. Showers lived at 800 Middle Drive, Woodruff Place, for many years.

The home formerly had been the bishop's manse and was purchased by the Showerses for their private home when the bishop retired. A new bishop's manse was built at Otterbein and Castle Avenues just south of the ICC campus.

On moving their residence to Dayton, the Showerses gave the residence in Woodruff Place to Indiana Central. They also gave a very substantial gift toward the building of Academic Hall. Recently Bishop Showers provided grants to Indiana Central and Lebanon Valley College for annual lecture series on Christian religion and Biblical scholarship.

Bishop Showers was born in Canada, the son of a minister. He began his preaching career while still in high school and continued for more than fifty years. In addition he served as associate editor of the Religious Telescope from 1926 to 1933, and then took over the Otterbein Press. He headed the eastern area of the church for six years and then became head of the area including Indiana. He received the title of bishop emeritus in the general conference of 1954.

He is survived by his widow, Justina Lorenz Showers, and a sister, Nettie M. Showers, of Blairville, Pennsylvania.

Large Anonymous Contribution If Matched

In early summer President Esch announced a conditional anonymous gift of $250,000 to the college, provided the college raises a like sum by December 25. He further stated that this gift shall be applied to a needed Fine Arts Center on the campus, but that the matching money raised by the college can be used in any way.

This is a part of the current campaign of the college to raise $3,000,000. The Fine Arts Center is a part of this program.

The first structure to be built under the development program is a Science Hall, for which ground was broken on Homecoming Day. It is expected that the science laboratories will be moved into it in time for the opening of the college in September, 1963.

Already planned as the next stage is the complete remodeling inside of the old Administration Building to convert it into a Fine Arts Center for the Art and Music Departments.

The $250,000 is the second largest contribution toward the $3,000,000 objective of the college.

lege. The largest was the $340,000 toward the girls’ dormitory by Mr. and Mrs. Herman C. Krannert. The third largest is the $150,000 pledge of Lilly Endowment, Inc.

After completion of the Science Hall and the Fine Arts Center, the college plans to build a Student Center to house certain recreational and extracurricular activities, the food services, campus post office, book store and snack shop.

Ralph is married to the former Maxine Rees of LaGro, Indiana. The couple has three children, “the oldest of which will be in ICC in four years,” Ralph says.

New Summer Registration for College Freshmen

A new manner of introducing freshmen to college was introduced this past summer.

Students who expected to enter Indiana Central for the first time spent two days and one night on the campus, accompanied usually by one or both parents.

A freshmen Orientation Week was still held at the opening of school, but some of the information and instruction the newcomers have received in the past from faculty and staff at that time had already been given them during the summer visit to the campus.

Before going home from the two-day visit the entrants completed their registration for the first semester except for paying their bills. The new students and their parents were taken on a bus tour of Indianapolis.

The first registration program was held during the week of June 25, and 135 came, a new group arriving each of the five school days. A like number reported during the week of July 9, the remainder of the students reporting during the first week of August.

For Married Women Only

At the risk of being repetitious,—for I have written such an article before,—I am again appealing to the ICC alumnae who have married and taken on another name than the one used in college. There are repeated calls from the registrar's office to ask if I know who such and such a person is. For example, "Who is Elnora Spence?" I answer, "She is Elnora Tidwell." Her husband is Carl Tidwell. "Thank you. I couldn't find Elnora Spence in the permanent files."

How could a new secretary be expected to find the name? I can furnish it only because I have been with the college for many years and perhaps know more alumni than any other person. But I warn you, I will not be here always.

If you are married, please give your maiden name when writing to the college.

Executive Secretary

Ground-Breaking Added Homecoming Program Event

The breaking of ground for a new science building was a special attraction on this year's annual Homecoming program at Indiana Central College Saturday, October 6.

Other major features were the parade of gaily and originally decorated floats, the Hoosier College Conference football game between Indiana Central and Manchester, and the crowning at half-time of the Homecoming Queen.

The ground-breaking ceremony was on the campus north of the Academic Hall parking lot at 10:30 a.m. Registration and a coffee hour for alumni began at 10 o'clock in the Ransburg Auditorium foyer, and the cross country and tennis competition with Manchester began at the same hour.

At 12 noon the parade left the campus for downtown Indianapolis, returning before the football game at 2 p.m. The day's festivities ended with a dance in the main dining room in the evening.

The college band played at the ground-breaking ceremony and also at the football game, as well as participated in the parade.

Dr. L. L. Huffman of Dayton, Ohio, publisher of the Otterbein Press and president of the college's board of trustees, welcomed those attending the ground-breaking. Greetings were voiced by Edwin G. Plum, chairman of the ICC Development Program Committee; H. William Fisher, president of the Alumni Association; Richard Martin, Student Council president; Dr. R. H. Mueller, bishop of the West Central Area of the Evangelical United Brethren Church; and Dr. I. Lynd Esch, president of Indiana Central.

Dr. Robert M. Brooker, chemistry professor and chairman of the Division of Science and Mathematics, operated the power machinery which broke the ground for the four-floor science hall. The invocation was by Dr. K. K. Berryman, east district superintendent of the Indiana Conference South of the EUB Church, and the benediction by Dr. Robert E. Cramer, academic dean of the college.

Five girls were nominated for Homecoming Queen and the winner, Gail Myer, 3820 North Wallace, was crowned between halves of the football game. Other candidates were Barbara Brannan, 1249 North Downey; Karin Dornfield, 302 Parkway; Nancy Turner, Royerton; and Nancy Waters, Acton. These four girls were the new queen's attendants.

The campus' remodeled and refurnished dormitories and the nearby new apartment building for married students were open for the inspection of Homecoming visitors.

Eschelman a Librarian

Robert Eschelman, '29, has done many and varied things before settling on the job of librarian, which he has found most satisfying of all. He received a bachelor of music degree from Indiana Central before going to Lebanon Valley College, where he received a BA degree.

Thinking he might follow his father into the ministry, he attended Bonebrake Seminary in Dayton. But after a year, his love for English literature and writing took him to Columbia University. After a year there he became business manager for a theatrical group and for ten years was engaged in show business in and around New York.

When his father died in 1940, Bob returned to his home in Arcanum, Ohio, where he cared for his mother and became high school English and Latin instructor. Left without a librarian, the library board appointed him against his protests to that position.

Library work soon began to interest him so much that he returned to school to study library science, graduating with a master's degree. He spent five years with the Dayton library before going to Franklin, Ohio, in 1956, where he is still.

On Sundays he is organist at the Normandy EUB Church, south of Dayton.
Put Indiana Central in Orbit

All systems are "go" in the Alumni Capital Campaign. By this time all alumni have received a letter and brochure telling about the challenges facing Indiana Central College in the days ahead. One challenge is the time element—a greatly increased number of young people seeking entrance to college in 1964 and the concomitant necessity for more and better facilities and equipment.

An immediate challenge is the offer of $250,000 by an anonymous donor if we can match it by Christmas of this year. The alumni are not expected to do this all by themselves but the Alumni Association has committed us to a big slice of it. We can meet this challenge if you—and you—and you and you will share.

Here are some of the leaders and captains who have agreed to take the responsibility for their communities. Don't wait for them to see you. Call them up and ask for a pledge envelope. It will save them shoe leather and time. Here they are:

Mahoi Visits Campus

Moses Mahoi, '50, visited the campus and his friends in University Heights in August. After graduating from Indiana Central, he went to Columbia University, New York, where he received an M.D. degree from the COLLEGE OF PHYSICIANS and SURGEONS. From there he went to the Children's Hospital of Michigan at Detroit to study Pediatrics. Before coming to the campus he wrote:

"With the completion of my pediatrics residency at the end of June, I plan to enroll in September for a five-month course leading to a diploma at the London School of Hygiene and Tropical Medicine. Thereafter, I will be at our EUB Mission Hospital, Rotifunk, Sierra Leone, West Africa, where I will endeavor to share with my people that which has been shared with me."

Moses sailed from New York September 9 on the BREMEN.

Former Faculty Member Goes to Christian College

George W. Shirley, who taught piano at Indiana Central for eleven years, has been appointed director of the music conservatory at Christian College, Columbia, Missouri.

Mr. Shirley is a candidate for a doctor of philosophy degree at the University of Texas. He is a graduate of Central College, Fayette, Missouri, and the University of Michigan. He will also teach piano at Christian.
Class of 1937

Seated: (Doris Hill’s daughters), Lorene Hart Youngblood, Ferne Carrithers Starr, Anna Faye Albea Silvers, V. C. Silvers, Harold and Mrs. Davis, Merrill Brown, Frances Hite-Jones Schaefer, Mary Roberts Flory, Linda Hoot, Genevieve Cantrill Hoot, Dorothy Ratliff Smith.

Alumni Meet at Estes Park

The following Indiana Central alumni who were attending the General Youth Fellowship Convocation at Estes Park, Colorado, this past summer took time out from a busy schedule to meet one evening in the cabin of Bruce and Virginia Hilton: Dale and Margaret Robinson, ’52, Indianapolis; Reverend Bruce and Virginia Young Hilton, ’53, ’54, Dayton, Ohio; Reverend Ed Pellett, ’49, Dayton, Ohio; Reverend William Young, ’29, Denver; Reverend Gene Crawford, ’47, Evansville; Reverend Leland Brett, ’52, Indianapolis; Reverend John Cheesman, ’55, Anderson; Reverend James Allen, ’54, Good Hope, Illinois; Reverend J. C. White, ’53, South Bend; and Mrs. Merrill Geible, x46, Warsaw.

Also present were students and prospective students of Indiana Central.

Alumni Association Officers Elected

By means of the usual ballot mailed out the first of May, H. William Fisher was reelected as president of the ICC Alumni Association for the year 1962-63.

Blanche Penrod, dean of girls at Southport High School for several years president of the Association, was reelected trustee of the college.

The ballot resulted in the election of Helen Uncapher Arndt as vice president and the reelection of Patricia Hunt Bright as secretary, Robert Todd as treasurer and Flossie M. Beghtel as historical secretary.

New members of the board of directors of the Association are Gordon France of Anderson and Mary Rose Fleming Dill, and renamed to the board were G. Edwin Pellett of Dayton, Ohio, Geraldine Gilliatt Rodebaugh and Paul K. Smith.

All of the officers except Gordon France and G. Edwin Pellett live in the Indianapolis area.

New Housing Units Added

A new college-owned apartment building for married students is being occupied by the families that have lived in the old wartime barracks and Cummins Hall. The two-story brick building, at Matthews and Edwards Avenues, where old Cummins Hall did stand, has 28 units.

The rebuilding of the inside of two men’s dormitories was completed in time for freshman men to move into Dailey Hall and senior men into Buxton Hall at the opening of the school year. Sophomore and junior men are in Wilmore Hall. New Krannert Hall and old Men’s Hall, remodeled and refurnished into Trimble Hall, are occupied by the coeds.
Alumni Day, 1962

Alumni Day, June 2, 1962, was the best ever. The alumni literally “came from North, came from South, came from East and West,” and came from long distances. They came in larger number than previously and in larger numbers than expected.

The day began with a coffee hour in the foyer of Ransburg Auditorium. Coffee was served by the girls of IAY, a campus service organization. Alumni Chapel was in charge of representatives of the five-year reunioning classes, the alumni address being given by the Reverend John Knecht of the class of 1942. The 25-year class was especially recognized and the alumni present were given certificates of attendance. The highlight of the chapel program was music by the 1937 mixed quartet, consisting of Fern Starr Carrithers, Winona Boston Royer, Wilbur Wilson and Gene Mogle, and accompanied by Anna Faye Albea Silvers.

After lunch, tours of the campus were conducted by Alpha Phi Omega men. Alpha Phi Omega is the campus men’s service organization.

At 2 o’clock the officers and board of directors of the Alumni Association met to plan the activities of the Association for the year 1962-63.

The Philathetean Literary Society alumni met as usual for tea at the home of Mrs. I. J. Good. The Theacollosia alumni met in the club room of Krannert Hall.

The business session of the Alumni Association was held in the late afternoon in Ransburg Auditorium. As has been the case for a number of years, the alumni chorus relieved the tedium of the necessary business. The consensus was that this chorus was “the best ever.” Those singing were: Bernice Fisher Dux, Louise Fisher Snyder, Fern Carrithers Starr, Margaret Long Emery, Eunice Martin Dewsnap, Naomi Crocker Seal, Helen Crocker Achor, Mary Jordan Smith, Helen Uncapher Arndt, Genevieve Donaldson Sutton, Helen Roberts, Julia Good Wolfe, Virginia Trehearne Stanley, Helen Whaley Wooden, Jane Hickman Click, Anna Faye Albea Silvers, Winona Boston Royer, Lois Nicodemus Jennings, Dorothy Strickler Wells, Marjorie Underwood, Jean Lewis Hirst, Mary Sidebottom Turner, Maybelle Runk, Wayne Shipley, Arnold Jensen, Marion Wells, Bill Bemenderfer, Robert Todd, William York, Charles Jennings, Paul Hirst, S. Wayne Smith, Carroll Vertrees, Delmer Huppert. Gene Mogle was director and Kathryn Nicodemus Mogle, accompanist.

A Welcome Letter

The following letter accompanied a check from an alumna. We can’t refrain from printing it. Would we might receive more like it!

“Sorry I am unable to make a greater contribution at this time. One who lives on a teacher’s retirement income, even in Florida, watches the outgoing funds.

“However, I can at least ‘be counted’ as one of the countless numbers who treasure our college, its training, its memories.”

Prominent Choir Director Joins College Faculty

Farrell Scott, well known Indianapolis tenor soloist, music teacher and choir director, has been appointed an associate professor of music. He directs the college choir, the Centralairs and other campus choral groups.

Scott resigned recently as music director and conductor of the Indianapolis Symphonic Choir to accept the new position. He succeeds Professor Allan F. Shrimer, who resigned after 15 years on the faculty.

Scott is the first person who was certified as a minister of music in the Indiana Area of the Methodist Church. He holds this position now at the Meridian Street Methodist Church, where he directs four choirs, and also is director of music at the Indianapolis Hebrew Congregation. He is soloist at both places.

He was a member of the music faculties of Butler University's Jordan College of Music in 1939-42 and 1946-51 and of Indiana University in 1951-52. His teaching at Jordan was interrupted by World War II, in which he served with the Signal Corps in the Pacific and then as a cryptographer in the Pentagon.

As a voice major Scott earned the bachelor of music degree at Jordan College and the master of music degree at Indiana University, where he is engaged in graduate work leading to a doctor's degree.

Scott is a member of the Meridian Street Methodist Church and Pi Kappa Lambda, honorary music fraternity. He and his wife, Dorothy, live at 5430 North Delaware Street.

He attended Edgewood elementary school and Southport High School.

Wanted: Volunteers

On Alumni Day, 1961, the Normal class of 1931, recruited by Nedra Moudy Krider, held a very delightful reunion on the campus. On this past Alumni Day the Normal class of 1937, recruited by Beulah Noe Moorhead, held an equally pleasant reunion. Will some one from the Normal classes of 1928, 1933, and 1938 volunteer to do the same kind of recruiting for your class? If so, this office will furnish names and addresses. We will also duplicate the letters and send them out for you if you so desire and will write the letter. Write to me, Virginia Cravens, soon.

An alumnus called in recently to ask if there were an alumni club in his town. I was sorry to have to say there was not. Then I asked if he would like to organize a club. Within three days he was in this office to get names, materials and plans. I am sure there will soon be a strong club in that area. Who would like to do the same for your community?
