LANDMARK

A new campus sign has been erected facing Hanna Avenue inside the north portion of the oval drive. Engravings of the college seal flank the letters of the school name, and the sign is illuminated at night. Members of the classes of 1964 and 1965 and others contributed to it, including labor by present students. Homecoming Queen Sue Schilling, Indianapolis sophomore, is seen behind the sign, with Dalley and Wilmore Halls in the distance.

Mrs. Lantz Joins Purdue Staff
At Fort Wayne

Mrs. Wayne E. Lantz (Joanne Baldwin, ’53), guidance director at New Haven High School, Allen County, for eight years, is now Assistant professor of psychology and co-ordinator of continuing education for women at the Purdue University Fort Wayne Regional Center.

Mrs. Lantz now has responsibility for developing a program of counseling and courses for the special interests of women. She will also explore possibilities in higher education to assist housewives, mothers and women who are the sole support of their families. Joanne is a doctoral candidate at Michigan State University and holds the Master’s Degree from Indiana University. She has taken additional graduate work at Ball State and Purdue Universities. She was the recipient of the Delta Kappa Gamma professional sorority. She is a member of the American Personnel and Guidance Association, American School Counselors Association and the American Association of University Women.

The history of the Department: Originally Dr. W. P. Morgan taught some art courses here at the college and the department was, at that time, housed in the “old” biology laboratory area. Later the department was moved up to the third floor attic area just behind the Kephart Auditorium balcony. When Academic Hall was completed the art facilities were arranged in the basement formerly occupied by faculty offices and the bookstore. Since the renovation made possible by the Harper Ransburgs the art department facilities have expanded considerably. Today you will find the department located on three separate floors:

Crafts, ceramics, weaving, enameling, silversmithing, printing are located at the north end of the basement.

Design and painting facilities are located on the second floor, as well as the department offices and a visual aids room.

On the first floor the art gallery is a part of the Leah Ransburg Fine Arts Center, adjoining the Recital Hall which seats 144 people. The gallery is one of the very unique features of the building and is one of the finest in the area.

The gallery is designed to function as an extension of the art department teaching and, in addition, to develop a feeling for (or awareness of) beauty for the entire student body. An objective of the department is to provide quality exhibits that encompass all areas of art from fine old master painting to contemporary exhibits of crafts and painting. The 1965-66 calendar:

Sept. Paintings from the collection of Mr. and Mrs. A.W.S. Herrington. Works in this show dated back to the 16th century and included such famous masters as Breughel, Rembrandt, El Greco, Dali and Franz Hals.

Nov. Prints from a private collection. Works by Durer, Rembrandt, Picasso, Mattisse were included.

Dec. Eastern Religious Art . . . Icons and other works from the orthodox churches of Indianapolis.

Jan. Paintings and sculpture by Rinaldo Paluzzi, a contemporary painter now living in Spain.

Feb. Textile exhibition by two nationally known artists.

Apr. Paintings by a contemporary Indianapolis artist Martha Slaymaker.

May. Crafts and painting by Carl G. Jensen a '57 graduate. He will be featured through Alumni Day and graduation dates. Carl has become one of the fine ceramics craftsmen of the state.

The art curriculum has expanded from the 24 hour major to a comprehensive area encompassing 52 credit hours, which amounts to almost one-half the art major's entire college program. Students graduating from the department are automatically qualified for teaching at any level, or supervisory work, if they prefer.

Because of the limited size of the enrollment the department is able to continue with its program of field trips to museums in the midwest and New York City. This spring the department will be going to New York City again to visit the outstanding museums and galleries. In 1961 Professor Boyce took a group of art students to Europe for the summer. This worked out so well that the trip was repeated in 1964 but was expanded to include any student who wanted to go. This year the trip is being offered again and is open to alumni and families as well.

The department faculty consists of Gerald Boyce, who has been here for 15 years, and Earl Snellenberger, who was added two years ago.

Dr. Harold Bolsey To Deliver Religion Lectures

Dr. Harold A. Bosley, minister of the Christ Methodist Church in New York City, will deliver the Showers Lectures in the Christian Religion at Indiana Central College this spring.

President Esch announced that Dr. Bosley will speak at 9:35 a.m. on April 26 and at 4:00 p.m. and 7:30 p.m. on April 27. Dr. Bosley is the father of Norman K. Bosley, assistant professor of English, who has been on the Indiana Central faculty for three years.

The lectures were endowed by the late Reverend Dr. J. Balmer Showers, a bishop of the Evangelical United Brethren Church, who lived in Indianapolis and was episcopal head of the denomination's West Central Area prior to his retirement.

Notes From National Capital

Martha Edmonds, '02, writes from Washington, D.C.

... "I moved to Washington last September when I began teaching in Montgomery County, Maryland. I'm teaching 5th and 6th grades in a team teaching situation. My older sister, Yvonne, is in the same team and has her classroom just across the hall from me.

"I enjoy team teaching. I believe it is so much better for children than the old self-contained classroom, although it is much more work for the teacher. There are four of us in the team and we meet twice a week for team planning and sharing ideas.

"It's exciting to live in the nation's capital. Recently I was downtown and happened to drive past the White House just as German Chancellor Ehrhardt and his entourage pulled up in front of Blair House. I waved, but either he didn't see me or didn't recognize me. I am sure he would have invited me in for tea had he known I was there.

"Massachusetts Avenue is called "Embassy Row" because most of the foreign embassies are on it. A little further north, just off Massachusetts Avenue is Spring Valley, where Hubert Humphrey and other notables have homes. My apartment building is between these two interesting streets.

"This spring I'm planning to attend the University of Maryland to finish the requirement for my master's degree, which I hope to receive this summer.

"This area is beautiful and so fascinating. The people here are very nice and so interesting. Just in our 5th and 6th grade classes we have three Viet Namese children, a Turkish boy and a Cuban girl, none of whom spoke English before last January. There are also several children who were born in Europe and Asia to government workers and have lived most of their lives abroad. Many of our children are bilingual and some are multi-lingual.

"My riding instructor is from Brazil and speaks English spasmodically. Sometimes I feel I should learn French and Spanish for self-defense." Martha lives at 4201 Massachusetts Avenue, N.W., Apt. 4091W, Washington, D.C.
College Choir Makes Early Tour

This year the Indiana Central College Choir made its annual tour between semesters instead of during the spring vacation. It gave concerts in Evangelical United Brethren churches, high schools and a home for the aged in seven Indiana communities on its annual midyear tour.

The group left Indianapolis on Saturday, January 29, and returned a week later after a day of sightseeing in Chicago.

The choir is directed by Farrell M. Scott, associate professor of music, who is well known as a tenor soloist.

Accompanists are Verne Adler, Decatur, Indiana; Melanie Manges, Crawfordsville; and Linda Mumby, Bremen.

The officers of the choir are John Beeler, Decatur, president; Terry Donahue, New Albany, vice president; Karen Hauschild, Indianapolis, secretary-treasurer; and Mary Gross, Casey, Illinois business manager.

The choir's repertoire included numbers both sacred and secular, ranging from the 16th Century to contemporary music.

The group gave four programs in Terre Haute, two in Clinton County, one in Anderson, two in Wabash County and one at the Haven Hubbard Memorial Home operated by the EUB Church for the elderly.

'49 Alumna Receives Award

In October, 1965, at the annual Extension Workers Dinner held at Purdue Mrs. Kathleen Carmichael Hendricks, '49, was given a 15-year service award for her work in the extension office in Columbus, Indiana.

Indianapolis Symphony Plays At I.C.C.

On the cold night of January 28 the Indianapolis Symphony Orchestra, considered one of the ten best in the country, came to I.C.C.'s gymnasium to give a free family concert. In spite of the cold there was a good attendance, many parents bringing their children, to hear a delightful concert. Conductor Izler Solomon and his musicians responded graciously to the extended applause by giving three encores. We anticipate another promised performance next year.

I.C. To Host Regional Science Fair

Indiana Central College will be the site of the 1966 Central Indiana Regional Science Fair. Two dates have been reserved for display of science exhibits by students from Marion, Johnson, Shelby, Hancock, Hamilton, Boone, and Hendricks counties.

On Saturday, March 19, elementary school students will have projects in science set up in the college gymnasium for display and judging. Last year 250 exhibitors entered the science fair and a larger entry list is anticipated for 1966 by the sponsors. The Fair will be open to the public from 9:00 a.m. to 12:00 noon.

One week later, on Saturday, March 26, junior high school and senior high school students from the seven-county area will display their science projects. The exhibits will be open to the public from 9:00 a.m. to 12:00 noon and from 1:00 p.m. to 3:30 p.m.

Last year more than 550 exhibits filled the gymnasium as students competed for a trip to the National Science Fair and other awards.

Dr. Robert Brooker, chairman of the division of science and mathematics, stressed the fact that the fair is free and open to the public. He encouraged alumni to visit the fair to see the work being done by science students.
Personals

Gary Fancher, '63, has moved to Asheville, North Carolina, where he is Quality Control Manager for the Sealtest Foods Division of National Dairy Products. His address is 8 East Stanes Cove Road, Asheville.

Reverend David Eiler, '56, pastor of the Walkerton E.U.B. Church, has been accepted as a candidate for the Certificate of Counseling and Psychotherapy by the Alfred Adler Institute of Applied Psychology in Chicago, Illinois.

Mrs. Rosalie (Rapp) Eiler, '54, is teaching kindergarten in the South Bend, Indiana, Public School Corporation. Ricky 6, Scotty 3, and David 2 are their three sons.

Charles A. Smith, '37, Youngstown, Ohio, associated with YMCA work since leaving college, is now director of the South Side branch of Associated Neighborhood Centers of that city. His wife, the former Floris Highsmith, N36, is still teaching third grade. The older son, Tom, is with IBM in Youngstown. The younger son, Michael, has been with the U.S. Army in Germany since 1963.

The Reverend Manno Shatto, '32, of Zurich, Post Office Box 93, Ontario, Canada, is currently the minister of Emmanuel E.U.B. Church in Zurich. He graduated from the Evangelical Theological Seminary at Naperville in 1935.

Since then he has taught in Texas and California in both high and elementary schools, served as principal of Lutheran Day School of Hawthorne, California, for five years and has also pastored several churches. He has also written and produced a number of religious plays.

Robert R. Rice, a science major of the Class of 1962, a graduate student of the University of Missouri at Rolla, has been assisting Dr. D. C. Hopkins, assistant professor of physics at the university, in his study of a new approach to theories of superconductors. Superconductors involve the state of certain metals in which they can conduct electrical current without any detectable heating.

Phillip R. Nonweiler, x62, is the new manager of the Irvington branch of Union Federal Savings and Loan Association.

David C. Maish, '61, graduated with a B.D. degree from Garrett Theological Seminary, Evanston, Illinois, in June, 1965. He was ordained an elder in the Methodist Church in May. He was appointed in September to do new church extension work in the Clay Township area north east of South Bend. He and his wife, Sallie, have two children, Bill 3½ and Beth 2. They live at 53105 Oakton Drive, South Bend.

Robert Seidner, '63, has accepted a position as head chemist with Continental Steel in Kokomo, Indiana. His wife, Lona (Wright x63) is continuing her college work and plans to finish graduation requirements in June. The Seidners' new address is 5207 Council Ring, Kokomo, Indiana.

Milo Coldren, x51, is teaching and serving as Boys Counsellor grades 8, 9, and 10 in Elizabeth Fisher Junior Secondary School, Victoria, British Columbia.

Mrs. Clara Underwood Board, '65, is now employed in the Neuropsychology Laboratory in Riley Hospital as a lab. technician.

Robert M. Farman, '61, is in Medical School, Howard University, Washington, D.C. He lives at 8746 Colorado Avenue, N.W., Apt. 804.

Terry Jamison, '65, is now teaching 6th grade and coaching at North Grove Elementary School. His address is Rural Route 2, Greenwood, Indiana.

While teaching at Brookville, Indiana, William Shobe, '60, received a National Science Foundation Academic Year Institute grant for a year's study at the University of Tennessee, from which he received a Master of Mathematics degree in June, 1965. He is now working as a mathematician in the Mathematics and Statistical Branch of the Quality Evaluation Laboratory of the U.S. Naval Ammunition Depot at Crane, Indiana.

During William's stay in Memphis, his wife, the former Faye Fawcett, '62, with their two little daughters, lived with her parents in Shoals and taught second grade in Orleans. She is now teaching second grade in Shoals. Their address is Rural Route 2, Loogootee, Indiana.

David Hyten, '61, received his M.S. in biology from the University of Michigan in September of 1965. His study was financed by an academic year grant from the National Science Foundation. The Hytens (Barbara Carrico, '59) live at 3006 N. Lawndale, Speedway.

James E. Foote, '62, has completed his master's degree in counseling and guidance at St. Francis College in Fort Wayne. He has accepted a position as counselor K-8 under Title I of the Federal program with the Pioneer Regional School Corporation. His address is 2016 East Market, Logansport, Indiana.

After spending three years in the public schools of Indiana and completing his master's degree at Indiana University, James Mansfield, '51, went to Michigan in 1957 and has been a member of the staff of the Student Affairs Division, Eastern Michigan University, Ypsilanti. He has done much course work toward his doctorate at Michigan State and the University of Michigan.

Kenneth D. Spaulding, x44, is now assistant professor of physics at Union College, Lincoln, Nebraska.

Don Felton, '60, will return to Western Michigan this summer to complete requirements for a master's degree in the teaching of mathematics. This will be the third summer he has attended under a government stipend for mathematic teachers.

Patty, '60, is working on her master's at Indiana University and also Franklin Young Serves
In Japan

Last March Lt. Franklin V. Young, Jr. '62, was assigned to a three year term in Japan as assistant chief of the publications division, Directorate of Administration Service, Headquarters 5th Air Force, Fuchu, Japan.

Before this assignment he had been stationed at Otis AFB Massachusetts. He married Virginia Mey er of Herscher, Illinois, November 21, 1964. On November 3, 1965, they announced “A Happy Landing” by the birth of a daughter, Christi An. Lt. Young was elected secretary-treasurer of PMOC (Protestant Men of the Chapel) on November 18. He is also a member of the OCU, a group of Christian officers and wives who meet every two weeks for a time of singing, Bible study and fellowship.

He suggests that the ALUMNI NEWS carry a list of ICC former students, with addresses, who are in Vietnam. We will be glad to print that list and furnish it to those alumni if you who read this will send the name and address of any you know.

He writes, “I’m thinking now of Jerry Achor, for example. He is on the tip of Alaska, 20 miles from Siberia. He is with the Weather Squadron, as his address indicates, and he is stuck up there until he gets out of the service in September.

A2c Gerald A. Achor
Box 1414, O L 9, 11th Weather Squadron
APO Seattle, 98715

"... We will be here in Japan until March of 1968. We miss home, of course, but the time is really going fast. There is so much to see and do here. We have also found many ways to serve God here, also, both in chapel sponsored activities and in Japanese churches.

"... Besides the regular chapel programs, Virginia and I are active in the Protestant Women of the Chapel and Protestant Men of the Chapel respectively. She’s teaching Sunday School, being superintendent of the 3- and 4-year olds in our housing area, and I have been helping with the adult class. I hope to take a young peoples class soon.

“We are in an ideal location here as far as overseas assignments go. We are only a 3-hour drive from Hokane National Park, where Mt. Fuji is. Four hours north of here is the beautiful and famous Nekko National Park, and we are only one hour from the center of Tokyo. Because of the convenience, we usually go to Tokyo by the frequent trains, which you can truly set your watch by. In spite of all you hear about driving in Japan, there are many fine modern roads that are a pleasure to drive on. It really is a fascinating and beautiful country with the most modern and the ancient side by side.

... Whenever any one comes to Tokyo on a trip, we would be very pleased to have them look us up. Professor and thankful for the privilege of calling ICC alma mater, I am Franklin Young Jr., '62

with Virginia and Christi An
Hq. 5th Air Force, Box 513
APO San Francisco, Calif., 96525

City and State Furnish
Most ICC Students

Indianapolis is the home of 475 of the 954 day students attending Indiana Central College last fall. All of Indiana (including the capital, of course) sent 877.

Illinois sent 36, Ohio 21, Kentucky 4, and Florida 2. One student claims each of these states as home: Iowa, Maryland, Massachusetts, New Mexico, New York, Oregon, Pennsylvania, Virginia, and Wisconsin.

Five students come from foreign countries, three of them from Africa. One each is from Kenya, Nigeria, and Sierra Leone. The two other foreign students come from Hong Kong and West Germany.
Future Centralites

Correction — In the December issue, '65, the paragraph under FUTURE CENTRALITES which reads:

"Sara Beth b. September 5, 1965, to Mr. and Mrs. J. Hegg, '59 Witt of Rural Route 2, New Castle." should read:

Sarah Beth b. September 5, 1965, to Mr. and Mrs. (Neysa Vass, x57) William Witt, '58, of Rural Route 2, New Castle.

***

***

***

***

***

***

Jeffrey Dean b. December 6, 1965, to Dave x63, and Arlene (Hummel) '61, Hash. A sister, Jennifer Dawn, welcomed him home at 702 Killian Drive, Beech Grove, Indiana.

***

***

Kathren Anne b. October 31, 1965, to Floyd and Sharon Clodfelder, x63, Pederson. She joins her sister Kirsten 3 at 8042 Parmley Court, Crown Point, Indiana.

***

***

Johnathan b. December 28, 1965, to James, '51, and Barbara Mansfield, 941 Hockey Lane, Ann Arbor, Michigan 48103.

***

***

Wedding Bells

Marcia Parnell, '64, became the bride of Dr. Masato Takahashi January 16 in a ceremony performed in the Downey Avenue Christian Church, Indianapolis.

Dr. Takahashi graduated from Wabash College, 1966, and from I. U. Medical School, 1960. The couple will go to Los Angeles, where he will do a research fellowship in pediatric cardiology at U.C.L.A.

***

Gloria King, '62, was married to Dr. Charles Rix in August of 1965. She will receive her M.A. in painting and drawing from the University of Iowa in February. She and her husband are moving to Winston-Salem, North Carolina, where he is employed as a research chemist. Their address is 18-F College Village, Winston-Salem, North Carolina.

***

Ivan Propst, '61, was married August 28, 1965, to Juanita Talmon at Massin, South Leyte, Philippine Islands. They met during his service with the Peace Corps in 1962-63. Ivan is now teaching in Palau, West Carolina Islands off Guam.

***

Eugene Scott Buchanan, '64, a teacher at School 61, Indianapolis, was married in the afternoon of December 26, 1965, at the Presbyterian Church to Miss Jane Gantz, a teacher at School 101, who has a master's degree from Indiana University and has studied a year in Sweden.

***

Carol Sue Johnston, '63, became the bride of John P. Gifford on Saturday, January 1, 1966, in a ceremony performed in the Ft. McKinley E.U.B. Church, Dayton, Ohio. Since leaving Indiana Central Carol Sue had been working in the Dayton E.U.B. Offices.

***

John E. Kirkpatrick, '65, was united in marriage to Miss Diane Hosler at Trinity Methodist Church in Fort Wayne on August 1. John is teaching in South Side Elementary School, Mishawaka, and Diane is completing nurses' training at Memorial Hospital, South Bend. The address of the couple is 421 West Madison in South Bend.

***

James L. Cummings, '65, took as his bride Sue Charlene Elrod on August 12, 1965. He is working at Western Electric and lives at 2859 South Meridian in Indianapolis.

Board Of Directors Meet

The I.C.C. Alumni Board of Directors held their second meeting of the year on Saturday, January 8, in the Conference Room of the Industrial Relations. In addition to the members of the board, three guests were present. Dr. Robert McBridge was invited to present the master's degree program which will be initiated during the next school year if plans are approved by the North Central Association. Ralph Coddington represented the alumni members of the Board of Trustees of the college, and Clayton Kinkade was chairman of the Annual Roll Call Committee.
Indiana Central’s Associate Degree Nursing Program Wins Accreditation

Indiana Central College’s associate degree nursing program, which can be completed in 21 months, was accredited December 2, 1965, by the National League for Nursing.

Miss Virginia Sims, director of the nursing program, reported by phone from New York, where she was attending the annual convention of the League, that Indiana Central became the first school offering the associate degree program in Indiana to win accreditation.

Altogether there are 145 such programs in the United States but the Indianapolis college is only the fourth to be accredited.

Indiana Central instituted its two-year program, which it conducts in cooperation with Community Hospital of Indianapolis, in the fall of 1959. Since the first class graduated in 1961, 77 students have completed the nurses’ training.

The students in this program take certain liberal arts courses required of all freshmen and sophomores in addition to courses in the areas of science and nursing education. Observations and clinical instruction are provided by members of the Indiana Central nursing faculty at Community Hospital.

To complete the work required for the associate degree in the nursing program students attend the summer session between their first two years. Those who have completed this and received the associate degree in science are eligible to take the Indiana examination for nurses’ registration.

They also can continue in Indiana Central for another two years and earn a bachelor’s degree. Ten of the 77 nursing graduates have gone on to complete this degree.

Eleven others now are enrolled in college as part-time students working toward completion of their bachelor’s degree.

Eighty-five per cent of the nursing graduates have been employed by Community Hospital and one, Miss Sheryl Fix, ’64 recently was appointed assistant night supervisor there.

Two graduates of Central’s Nursing Department have returned to the campus to teach nursing.

Miss Pauline Milhouse, a member of the first nurses’ graduating class, is on leave this year from the faculty to complete her master of science degree in maternity nursing. She will be the first graduate of an associate degree program to complete this goal in Indiana. She earned her bachelor’s as well as her associate degree at Indiana Central.

Mrs. Karen Cravens, who was a member of the nurses’ graduating class in 1963, completed her bachelor of science degree in nursing last year and joined the Indiana Central faculty this fall.

One of last June’s graduates, Miss Jill Martin, completed special training with United Airlines and has been assigned to jet flights between San Francisco and Honolulu. UAL reported she was the first associate degree graduate to enter their special training and that she equaled or excelled the performance of graduates of three- and four-year programs.

The Indiana State Board of Nursing Examination and Registration reports that graduates of Indiana Central have improved their examination scores from an over-all mean of 438 in 1961 to 524 in 1965. A passing score is 350.

The National League for Nursing sent Dr. Mary Liston and Mr. Gerald Griffin to Indiana Central in November to study its program preliminary to its accreditation. The final decision, based on their recommendation, rested with the League’s Board of Review.

Miss Sims, who has directed Indiana Central’s nursing program from its inception, has been selected to be an accreditation visitor for the League to other schools.

She already has visited two other campuses to inspect their associate degree programs.

Miss Sims is vice chairman of the Board of Review.

---

THE PRESENCE

Blue lavender of lilacs, the emerald greening grass,
The falling apple blossoms that flutter as I pass!
The sparkling, diamond rivulet that tumbles, breaks and flows;
The heady scents of Springtime are in the wind that blows.
The ecstasy of bird-song bursts round me everywhere —
I feel a Presence close beside, and know that God is there!

Spring mellows into Summer — a slumbrous drone of sounds;
White clovers host the searching bees, and butterflies abound.
I watch the lazy cloud-drift, beneath the distant blue —
And Fancy outlines figures that float beyond my view.
If Time could be arrested, could stay such beauty rare
Then longing souls might linger, to find that God is there!

But time must mark the seasons, now summer too must yield
As Autumn walks in grandeur to change each bush and field.
Then Splendor wands the woodland, and magic colors spread,
Bronze, gold, and bright vermillion, and rust — to deep, deep red!
Beneath a tree, all shimmering gold, I stop to say a prayer —
Encompassed in this Glory, I know that God is there!

In turn, reluctant autumn is buried deep in white
As sifting, whirling snowstorms ride with the wind at night.
Then utter calm at daybreak — a soundless void. I tread
On sinking softness, lift my eyes to festoons overhead.
I am spellbound with stillness — the hush! the hush! I dare
To whisper through the silence, “Dear God, I know You’re there!”
McAfee Attends U Of I

Chaplain (Major) Paul K. McAfee, until recently the senior Protestant Chaplain at Fort Benjamin Harrison, has been selected by the Office of the Chief of Chaplains, Department of Army, to attend the University of Illinois, in the Master's program in the field of Journalism.

Chaplain McAfee attended Indiana Central College in 1946. This was his first college work. Taking a small Methodist Church in Trafalgar, Indiana, he transferred to Franklin College, Franklin, Indiana, and completed his B.A. degree there. Upon graduation from Franklin, he entered seminary at Garrett Theological Seminary, Evanston, Illinois, graduating in 1953 with a Bachelor of Divinity. He immediately entered the Army, making the Chaplency his field of the ministry.

As a chaplain, McAfee has served in Korea, and Germany, and in various posts here in the United States. While in Korea he received the Bronze Star medal for his work among the orphans and displaced persons in and around Pusan. While in Germany he was Ass't Post Chaplain at Frankfurt-am-Main, in the Frankfurt Central Chapel. This chapel served 10,000 protestant personnel and their families, State Department personnel and their families, teachers, WAC, and other Americans working in the city. He was in charge of a Sunday School which averaged 750 children per Sunday, and was the preacher for the evening services and director of all the youth work. Upon leaving Fort Benjamin Harrison, McAfee received the Commendation Award for his work in developing an effective Protestant program on the Post.

During the years, Chaplain McAfee has been interested in religious journalism. He has written and has published over 100 short stories, over 500 religious and related subjects. The Army, recognizing this certain talent, called him to Fort Meade, Maryland, in October, 1964, and there, he, with two other chaplains, developed the Manual for "Youth For the Chapel", something that has not yet been done. This manual is being used by chaplains and youth leaders in all Navy, Army and Air Force chapels all over the world, in their efforts to organize an effective program for "The Protestant Youth of the Chapel".

Following the writing of the manual, Chaplain McAfee was notified that he had been selected to attend Illinois University in Journalism. Each year 4 chaplains are selected for such schooling, out of 1400 Army chaplains.

Chaplain McAfee married Dorothy L. Duncan, an Indianapolis girl, in 1939. They have four children. Charles, the eldest, attended Indiana Central College for 6 months, 1959-60. He left college to go to Europe with his parents, and then entered the Navy. Son Earl, 23 is making a career of the Army, and is presently entered into the Officer's Candidate School program. Marylu, 14, is at home, with her parents and her younger brother, Tommy, 7. The family is residing in Rantoul, Illinois, while Chaplain McAfee attends the University for his Master's Degree.

Last And (Perhaps) Best

The 1965-66 Artist Series will conclude with a performance by the Texas Boys' Choir on March 4.

This choir is unique among such groups in that it is a non-denominational civic organization at Fort Worth which was founded in 1946 by George Bragg, who continues as its musical director. The ensemble is composed of 26 boys whose ages range from 8 to 15. They perform the plainsong of the medieval church in traditional ruffle-collared vestments, merry Elizabethan madrigals in Eton collars, modern hymnals in conventional church choir robes, authentic Western ballads in cowboy outfits, and popular and classical music of today in uniforms of grey flannel slacks with navy blazers.

Todd Receives Doctorate In Vet. Pathology

Dr. Glen C. Todd, '54, received his Ph.D. degree from Cornell University, Ithaca, New York, in June, 1965. His major field of study was veterinary pathology with liver diseases of cattle his research area. Dr. Todd was a member of the faculty of the veterinary college at Cornell during his four years in Ithaca. Dr. Todd, who also has a D.V.M. degree from the University of Pennsylvania, was elected to Phi Zeta, a national honorary fraternity for veterinarians, during the past year. He has presented two papers at national conferences and published several papers related to the research into the relationships of unsaturated fatty acids and Vitamin E to the development of liver necrosis in beef cattle.

Since July of 1965, Dr. Todd has been working for the U. S. Department of Agriculture as a veterinary pathologist at the Agricultural Research Center in Beltsville, Maryland. He is responsible for diagnosis of all kinds of diseases that occur in domestic meat animals. They are in daily receipt of many specimens from all over the United States.

Dr. Tod and his family are now living at 13 Hammond Drive in Laurel, Maryland.

Present I.R.C. Activities

January has been a busy month for the Industrial Relations Center, with new programs and the new year both well under way. Twenty-five persons are participating in the Management Development Program which meets on the campus two evenings a week. Fourteen persons, representing nine organizations, attended the three-day monthly Supervisory Institute on January 25-27.

In addition, five special programs for specific organizations are scheduled to begin near the middle of February. Two of these programs will meet on the campus and three will be conducted on an in-plant basis.
Dr. Ira Progoff, distinguished depth psychologist delivered the second half of the Sutphin Lectures in the Humanities at Indiana Central on February 14 and 15.

He addressed convocations at 9:35 a.m. each day. His first day's subject was "The Socratic Way in Psychology" and the second day's "The Atmosphere of Creativity." He also spoke on "Depth Psychology in the Study of Man" at 4 p.m. February 14.

Dr. Progoff also held informal coffee chats with students and faculty members and visited several classes.

Dr. Progoff practices psychotherapy in New York City, and is the author of several well known books in the field of depth psychology and religion. He has written numerous articles also.

In his private practice and public lectures and seminars, Dr. Progoff deals with the principles of depth psychology as they apply to creative development of the personality and as they can be used to make possible a larger religious awareness.

Alumni Club News
EVANSVILLE AREA CLUB

The Evansville Area Club met at the Evansville College Memorial Union on Friday January 21, 1966. Professor Gerald Boyce, chairman of the art department was the guest speaker for the meeting.

Mr. Boyce presented information about the Foreign Travel Tour-Seminars program of the college. He illustrated his talk with slides taken on previous tours and explained plans for the 1966 European tour. Alumni present also heard about the remodeled facilities for the art department and the use being made of the new art gallery in the Fine Arts Center.

Accompanying Mr. Boyce was Stan Lopp, a senior art major from Napoleon, who participated in the Foreign Tour in 1964. He added his comments about the tour to those of Mr. Boyce and presented a "students-eye" view of the Foreign Travel course. Both Boyce and Lopp answered questions from alumni in attendance.

Reverend Robert Sachs was the chairman for the meeting. The group decided that the next meeting would be held on Friday, May 13, 1966, at the Evansville College Memorial Union. Evansville Area Alumni have been requested to reserve the date on their calendars pending receipt of an announcement about the program for the evening.

TERRE HAUTE AREA

A steering committee of interested alumni has set Thursday, March 31, 1966, as the date for the organizational meeting of Indiana Central Alumni in the Terre Haute area. The group met at the home of Reverend and Mrs. Phillip Stone on November 29, to make initial plans for the first meeting.

The group will convene at Terre Haute First E.U.B. Church for a supper meeting starting at 6:30 p.m. Reverend Stone and Marion Coplen are in charge of securing a speaker from the local area. The Alumni Office will mail announcements to all alumni in the surrounding area with the deadline for reservations set on March 26.

All graduates, former students, and friends of Indiana Central should reserve Thursday, March 31, on their personal calendars. First announcements will be received about one month prior to the meeting.

NEW ALBANY AREA

On January 8 a group from the New Albany Area Club came to the campus for dinner and to attend the basketball game with Franklin. Maxine Haycox, a senior from New Albany, acted as hostess for the group. The visitors included David and Betty (Crawford) Elliott; Ronald and Mary (Milhouse) Hausswald and son; Mrs. Dorothy (Miller) Reimold, her husband and three children. Dorothy is president of the club.

DENVER, COLORADO

There has been interest expressed from Denver, Colorado for a get-together of Indiana Central alumni in the area. A roster of alumni has been prepared for Nancy Parker '63, who will be working with Reverend William Young '29 on arrangements. Any interested alumni is encouraged to contact Miss Parker at 96 South Clarkson Street in Denver, or Reverend Young at 3149 Salem in Aurora.

High School Day
A Great Success

Other than being a bit chilly, High School Day brought perfect weather and the biggest crowd ever to the I.C.C. campus.

Lunch was served to 1433 persons, the vast majority of these being high school students. In addition to the auditorium programs and counseling sessions, tours of the campus and new buildings entertained the guests until time for the football game with Manchester, which was won by the Greyhounds, 40-20.

Noticeable among the group of visitors were the many alumni who returned to campus with prospective students. Many expressed amazement at the effect remodeling has had on the old Administration building. All were pleased with the progress being made within the campus facilities at their alma mater.

Correction

The article "College Parents Hold Elections" in the December, 1965, issue of the ALUMNI NEWS stated that Mrs. Doris (Brown) Hill, newly elected president, is the mother of David Hill, junior. Instead she is the mother of Carol Huffman, a junior, and Roger Hill, a freshman.
In Memoriam

(FORMER CENTRAL PROFESSOR DIES (We are sorry this was omitted in the issue of May, 1965)

Dr. Eugene T. Underwood, former chairman of the Foreign Language Department of Indiana Central, died January 30, 1965 in St. Joseph's Hospital at Superior, Wisconsin.

He taught Spanish and French at Indiana Central from the fall of 1947 until September, 1963, when he joined the faculty of the Wisconsin State University at Superior.

Dr. Underwood had taught at the Harrisburg, Illinois, Township High School, at the University of Illinois, and Butler University. He was graduated from Shortridge High School in 1923. He received his bachelor of arts in French and English at Butler University in 1929, his master of arts in French and History at Duke University in 1931, and his doctor of philosophy in French and Spanish at the University of Wisconsin in 1955.

He was founder and managing editor of Pen-Prints, an Indianapolis based publication devoted to international understanding, a member of several language associations in American, and of the Royal Society of Arts (London, England.)

Among the survivors are his mother; his widow, Mrs. Susanna Underwood, a teacher of languages at Technical High School; a daughter, Mrs. Susanna Underwood Johnson, '01; Mrs. Clara Underwood Board, '05; one son, Charles, and two grandchildren.

Mrs. Alice D. Musselman, nurse and house mother of Dailey Hall, 1949-50, died December 13, 1965, at Mt. Gretna, Pennsylvania, her home of recent years. She was 82 years of age. After leaving Indiana Central she was treasurer of the Otterbein Home for a number of years. Forty years of her early life were spent as a missionary with her husband in Africa.

Funeral services were held December 17 in the Mt. Gretna Community E.U.B. Church with Dr. A.H.M. Stonecipher officiating. Dr. Stonecipher is a retired professor of Lebanon Valley College and former professor of classical languages at Indiana Central, 1919-1933.

Mrs. Ona Zona Bell Fruth died April 28, 1965, after a protracted illness. She was the wife of Reverend Curtis C. Fruth of the class of 1920.

Colon E. Parks, '28, of Gessie, Indiana, a former Hartford City school teacher and later Superintendent of Blackford County Schools, died January 12 at St. Elizabeth Hospital at Danville, Illinois, where he had been a patient since December 17. He had been in failing health for a year.

Since retiring from the teaching profession, Reverend Parks has held pastorates in the South Conference of the E.U.B. Church, the last at Gessie.

Among the survivors is his wife, the former Sylvia Hardesty, '35. Final funeral services were held Saturday, December 15, at 3 p.m. in the Hartford City E.U.B. Church, Russell Hiatt, '27, officiating.

Clyde L. Williams, AB30, died February 3, 1966, of a heart attack while shoveling snow at his home, 4424 Nichol Avenue, Anderson, Indiana. He had been principal of the Anderson Southside Junior High School the last ten years.

He received his master's degree from Butler University. He was principal of the high school at Paoli, where he graduated, for five years before going to Anderson. He had been dean of boys, principal and assistant principal at several schools in the Anderson school system before being appointed to the Southside High School.

He was a member of the First Methodist Church, where he taught a Sunday School class, and of the Masonic Lodge.

Survivors include the widow, Eudora, and two sons, John A. and Richard L.

Reverend Jesse R. Simmerman, D.D. '43, died November 19, 1965, in Community Hospital, Indianapolis. Memorial services were held in Brookside E.U.B. Church November 23 with Reverend William Hill presiding. Reverend Russell Ford, '30, sang and Dr. K. K. Merryman, '28, read the scripture. Dr. W. R. Montgomery, '19, gave a brief eulogy. Interment was at Lapel. Among the deceased's relatives are his widow, Payola of 938 North Bradley, Indianapolis, his daughter, Mrs. Leona Riblett of 1909 South Ninth Street, Noblesville.

Campus Center To Be Dedicated

The Louis Schwitzer Center will be dedicated April 30. The day's activities will begin with an invitational luncheon at 12 noon in the dining room, which will be located in the Schwitzer building.

Dedication ceremonies will be held in the Ransburg Auditorium at 2 p.m., followed by an open house and tour of the building for all visitors.

The new Center will house the alumni offices, the deans of students offices, the food service and overnight accommodations for guests.

There will be a small chapel and a large lounge. All alumni are invited to see the new Center.

Be like the bird,
Which halting in its flight
On limb too slight
Feels it give way beneath it,
Yet sings
Knowing it hath wings.

—Victor Hugo
Public Events At ICC
(Excluding Sports)
November 1 To June 1

Nov. 4 Panel Discussion of "The Role of Government in the Economy of a Free Society," was sponsored by the Central Council (student government) and moderated by Professor Robert C. Coker, chairman of the Economics Department.

Participants: Representative William Bray, Martinsville Republican representing Indiana's Seventh District in Congress; Fred McCarthy, Director of the legislative bureau of the Indianapolis Chamber of Commerce; Richard Ristine, Crawfordsville banker and former Republican lieutenant governor; and Dallas Sells of Indianapolis, president of the Indiana AFL-CIO. 7:30 p.m. in Ransburg Auditorium.

Dec. 4 "The Messiah" by the combined Indiana Central College and Southport High School choirs, directed by Professor Farrell M. Scott of the college. 3 p.m. in Ransburg Auditorium.

Dec. 12 Concert by the Indianapolis Civic Orchestra and the Indiana Central College Symphonic Wind Ensemble, both directed by Professor Lowell Boroughs, chairman of the I.C.C. Music Department, in Ransburg Auditorium at 3 p.m.

Auditions in voice, organ, piano, woodwinds, brass, strings and percussion will be held at Indiana Central College on two Saturdays a month apart — February 12 and March 12— for applications for music scholarships and grants.

Professor Lowell Boroughs, chairman of the Music Department, announced that grants ranging in varying amounts up to full tuition of $1,000 a year will be made on the basis of performance in the auditions.

Appointments for the auditions or further information about the offerings of the Music Department may be obtained by communicating with Professor Boroughs.

Jan. 22 State YMCA Youth and Government Pre-Legislative meeting for a luncheon and discussion.

Jan. 28 Indianapolis Symphony Concert.

Jan. 29 and Feb. 5 Indiana State Music Association contest.

Feb. 6 Lebanon District Methodist Youth Fellowship Mid-winter Institute.

Feb. 9 Southport Band Concert.

Feb. 19 Indianapolis Toastmasters' Dinner.

Indiana Central College will offer another travel-study tour of Europe next summer, to begin in late June, 1966.

Leaders of the tour again will be Dr. Marga Meier, acting head of the Foreign Language Department, and Professor Gerald Boyce, chairman of the Division of Fine Arts.

Major cities to be visited include London, Amsterdam, Berlin (both East and West), Stockholm, Helsinki, Leningrad, Moscow, Bucharest, Istanbul, Athens (with a side trip to the Aegean island of Crete), Rome, Florence, Venice, Vienna, Munich, Lucerne and Paris.

Most of the travel will be by air to allow maximum time within the places to be visited. A deluxe motorcoach will be used for the drive from Rome to Venice. Six weeks abroad will be spent on the tour.

A complete itinerary of the tour is available. The size of the group will be limited to permit more mobility and flexibility in day-to-day travel.

The cost of the tour will be approximately $1,400. This price includes all transportation from New York to Europe and back to New York, entertainment, breakfast and one main meal each day, tips and hotel accommodations. A $100 deposit to insure a place on the tour is now being accepted.

Further information may be obtained from either Dr. Meier or Professor Boyce.

1966 Travel-Study Tour

Feb. 23 International Reading Association.

Feb. 21 Indianapolis Council PTA Founders Day dinner.

Mar. 4 Texas Boys' Choir.

Mar. 19 and 20 Central Indiana Regional Science Fair.

Mar. 31 and Apr. 1 and 2 National Sigma Zeta convention.

Apr. 16 Indiana State Music Association Convention.

Apr. 21 Atomic Conference.

Apr. 30 Dedication Schwitzer Campus Center.

May 2 Phi Delta Kappa Dinner.
Excerpts From A Letter
From Russell Albert, '52

“A lot of things have happened to me since I was at a class reunion ‘way back in ’62. I now have three children: Gary 5, Karen 3, and Sharon, who will be two on December 24.

“I have now completed all requirements for my doctorate in Educational Psychology and Guidance and graduated from Colorado State College this December.

“I changed jobs in August and am presently Director of Educational Services at the A. L. Bowen Children’s Center, Harrisburg, Illinois. This is a state residential center for mental retardates between the ages of 6 and 25 with I.Q’s between 35 and 80. "Our site comprises 121 acres and has five buildings, three in process of construction. We will have 240 beds, at present 87 employees, and hope to be taking in residents by the 15th of January...

“We will have very close relationship with Southern Illinois University and the other state universities, as one of our main obligations is that of being a training facility for practice teachers in the area of mental retardation. Another function will be in the area of research. Naturally we have an obligation to the residents in our care with our main purpose being to provide services to enable them to return to their community and lead happy, successful lives.

“We will try to fit educational services to each resident rather than to fit the resident into an educational program.

“At present I am teaching a graduate course at Camp Breckenridge for the staff personnel. Everything is calm there now, and I hope it stays that way.”

Application Filed For Non-Commercial, Educational TV Channel At Indianapolis

An application to construct an Indianapolis non-commercial educational TV station on UHF Channel 20 for the participating use of all area educational and cultural groups was filed January 3, in Washington by the Metropolitan Indianapolis Television Association, Inc. (MITA)

The newly formed non-profit corporation is headed by Dr. I. Lynd Esch, president of Indiana Central College.

MITA was formed, said Dr. Esch, to serve as a catalyst in launching an educational television station which can be used by the various groups which have repeatedly voiced interest but have not been able to muster the financial resources required to build and operate the station. “Now for the first time,” said Dr. Esch, “through the generosity of a local television station-owner and with the expectation of federal matching funds, MITA seems to have mustered the necessary finances to proceed. We have every reason to believe that numerous educational, cultural, and community organizations are only waiting for such facilities to be made available so that they may launch a variety of excellent programs.”

The local television station owner referred to by Dr. Esch is Sarkes Tarzian, who currently has before the Federal Communications Commission an application for a change of transmitter site for WTTV, Channel 4.

Upon FCC approval of the new site, Tarzian will give tower and building space to MITA without charge for the installation of its transmission facilities and will make additional contributions of equipment and cash. The aggregate value of these contributions is approximately $350,000. This would not be Tarzian’s only association with educational projects. He is associated with the faculty of Indiana University and a member of the Board of Trustees of the University of Pennsylvania.

Dr. Esch said the remainder of the required money will be sought from funds now available through the U.S. Health, Education and Welfare Department. He also said that, in the long-range development of this community educational undertaking, MITA will welcome the financial support of other commercial television stations, business firms, foundations, and individuals.

His own college, Indiana Central, will provide studio space without charge, Dr. Esch added. The space is located in Academic Hall on the Indiana Central campus. The college also has agreed to produce a two-segment-hour live Bible course for credit during the station’s first year of operation.

MITA plans on its own to operate the station Monday through Sunday from 7 p.m. to 9 p.m., but as soon as other member organizations are ready to present programs the hours of operation will be expanded.

Officers of MITA besides Dr. Esch are: Vice President, Wallace S. Sims, director of public relations of the Pitman-Moore Division of Dow Chemical Company and past president of the Indianapolis School Board; secretary, the Reverend K. K. Merryman, a conference superintendent of the Evangelical United Brethren Church; and treasurer, E. G. Plum, vice president and controller of Indiana Bell Telephone Company.

Other Indianapolis area persons who are of MITA are Ottis T. Fitzwater, president of Indianapolis Power and Light Company; Paul B. Honan, president of Honan and Associates, Lebanon; Herman C. Kranntert, chairman of the board of Inland Container Corporation; J. Everett Light, superintendent of the Metropolitan School District of Washington Township; Justin E. Marshall, vice principal of Washington High School; Edward B. Newill, retired vice president of General Motors Corporation; Gregg Ransburg, president of Ransburg Industries, Inc.; Charles Price, a member of the Metropolitan Board of School Commissioners of Perry Township; Izler Solomon, conductor of the Indianapolis Symphony Orchestra; and William H. Trimble, president of Trimble Realty Company.
Korean Pianist Artist Series

Tong Il Han, youthful Korean pianist gave a recital in Ransburg Auditorium at Indiana Central College, February 11. The 24-year-old Korean, like many musical prodigies, came from a talented family. When he was only 4 years old his father gave him his first piano lesson. His progress was amazingly rapid, and he soon began studying with a German piano teacher. Then his family lost all their household possession, including the piano, after World War II when soldiers occupied North Korea. When soldiers occupied North Korea han was only 4 years old his father and his family fled southward. The Korean War which followed likewise made it next to impossible for Han to have access to a piano.

One day a friend arranged for him to use a piano at the U.S. Fifth Air Force headquarters. Passing airmen stopped to listen and were enthralled. He was invited to play for an Air Force show, and his rendition of works by Beethoven, Chopin, Mendelssohn and other western composers lead to a tour of USAF bases in Korea and Japan. At each performance Han’s musical education in the United States, New York’s Julliard School of Music accepted him to study under the famed piano teacher, Rosina Lhevinne. A year after his arrival he won a contest which gained him an opportunity to be soloist in a Young People’s Concert by the New York Philharmonic Orchestra. Other honors have come to him, and he has been acclaimed for his performances in cities throughout the United States, Canada, Europe and the Far East. Han has appeared with the Austin, Chicago, Cincinnati, Cleveland, Denver, Detroit, Indianapolis, Los Angeles, Mobile, Montreal and Quebec symphony orchestras, and also has given solo recitals. After one of his performances at Indianapolis, Henry Butler, then critic of the now-defunct Times, wrote:

“Here the question arises: How good does Han seem in recital after his remarkably successful appearances with Izler Solomon and our Symphony? . . . Han is a potentially tremendous pianist whose powers even now are formidable.”

Man And Wife Named Peace Corps Volunteers: Assigned To Kenya

Mike Stine and his wife Sue have been named Peace Corps Volunteers, having completed 13 weeks of training at Columbia University Teachers College.

The new Volunteers left for Kenya on January 3.

They will teach English, mathematics and science in a secondary school, expanding Peace Corps education efforts there.

Kenya, a former British colony and protectorate, gained independence in 1963. The first group of Peace Corps Volunteers arrived there approximately a year ago. This group brings to 220 the number of Volunteers at work there as teachers and rural community developers.

During training the Volunteers studied Swahili, the language of East Africa, African culture and history, United States history and world affairs. They also took special courses in the theory and methods of education and did practice teaching near the training site.

The departing Volunteers join the 10,000 other Peace Corps Volunteers now working in 46 nations of Asia, Africa and Latin America. Despite these numbers, many more Volunteers are needed. (Persons interested in starting a two-year Peace Corps assignment this winter should complete and submit a Peace Corps application as soon as possible and take the Peace Corps placement test, which is given throughout the country the second Saturday of each month). All pertinent information can be obtained at post offices or by writing the Peace Corps, Washington, D.C. 20525.

The Stines’ address is Lugulu Girls High School, Private Bag, Broderick Falls, Kenya, East Africa.

Awarded For Service

Harry A. McGuff, ’52, head of Indiana Central’s Evening Division and president of the Indianapolis Board of School Commissioners, was given an award for outstanding community service by Greater Southside, Inc. at its annual awards dinner December 6, 1965.

The Bruce Hiltons

Bruce Hilton, ’53, his wife, the former Virginia Young, ’54, and their four sons spent their winter vacation in Colorado.

He writes: “We’re relaxing in the quiet, non-scheduled, un-telephoned comfort of a log cabin in Ward, Colorado — an old gold-mining town 10,000 feet in the Rockies.

“It’s a great place to snooze, ride toboggan, get some perspective on our work, and catch up on long-overdue correspondence.

“As you may know, we moved last August to Greenville, Mississippi, to join the staff of the commission on the Delta Ministry of the National council of churches.”

The Hiltons had some trouble in finding a home in Greenville, the first place rented becoming unavailable after the KKK distributed leaflets up and down the street calling them “vermin” and “the filthy immoral dregs of the earth” because they worked for the National Council of Churches.

However, a courageous lady rented them an 11-room house just a block from the down-town area. In Greenville they have police protection, unlike the condition of civil rights workers in other towns.

Virginia is busy with her house, her four boys and a baby-health project she and a retired lady doctor from California are conducting. (Virginia herself is an RN, having graduated from the Methodist Hospital School of Nursing in Indianapolis the same night she graduated from Indiana Central). Bruce’s main job is interpreting the work of the Delta Ministry to denominations, church publications, the local and national press, radio and TV, and agencies of the National and World Council of Churches.

He says, “The pace of the work, the tension and the continual local antagonism tend to produce gray hairs at a faster rate than editing Friends did. But the harassments are minor compared to those suffered by the courageous Negro people of Mississippi.”
18 Centralites Make Students' Who's Who

Eighteen Indiana Central College seniors will be listed in the 1966 edition of Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges.

They were chosen for this distinction by a faculty committee which considered the students' scholastic standing, their participation and leadership in academic and extracurricular activities, their general citizenship and service to the college and their promise of future usefulness to society.

The Centralites honored are Barbara R. Bean, Bladensburg, Maryland; James L. Brunner, Martinsville; Richard W. Cravens, Indianapolis; Richard K. Elmore, Martinsville; Dixie Lee Evans, Decatur, Illinois; Alice Sue Findley, Muncie; George G. Friel, Greenwood; Beverly J. Gorbett, Evansville; Maxine Faye Haycox, New Albany; Joseph D. Huse, Flora; Jack Leonard, Martinsville; Stephen M. Maple, Speedway; Andrew E. Moore, Indianapolis; Mrs. Sue Durbin Morrison, Indianapolis; Stephen D. Shoultz, Indianapolis; Michelle Stoneburner, Indianapolis; Mrs. Marydee Meyer West, Indianapolis and Margaret Wright, Fountain-town.

Of the eighteen names above, six are second generation students: Barbara Bean, Richard Cravens, Alice Sue Findley, Beverly Gorbett, Michelle Stoneburner, and Marydee Meyer West.

Number Of Fellows Increases

Since the ALUMNI GIVING REPORT went out in July of 1965 listing the names of alumni givers to the annual Roll Call and listing the Fellows, the number of alumni Fellows has increased by 18, making a total of 104. In addition, there are 36 non-alumni Fellows, making a total of 140. Several of these are husband-and-wife-contributors, but 114 plaques have been sent out. We expect more, and are sure there will be more Fellows before another report goes out after July 1 in which names will be listed.

Indiana Central Has A Mascot

No, the college is not going to the dogs. We just have a new Greyhound for a mascot.

On January 1, 1966, Dixie, a four year old Greyhound, arrived from Clearwater, Florida, to become the mascot for Indiana Central College.

Our Central Council had hoped to obtain such a dog; and their wishes came true when Edgar Bright, '26, our coach from 1945 to 1947, obtained the dog from a veterinarian in Florida and presented it to the college. Mrs. and Mrs. Bright brought the dog to the campus as they brought their son David back to school after vacation. David is a Freshman this year.

Paul K., '39, and Irish Smith are giving a home to the dog; and David, assisted by Central Council, is providing the care for her.

Dixie is brown with black spots — a beautiful dog which enjoys a lot of love and petting. She is well trained and seems to be a perfect mascot. She will attend our home athletic contests, and I'm sure you'll be seeing a lot of her around the campus.

Former House Mother Wins Award In Lutheran Contest

Mrs. Esther Elliott, house mother of Men's Hall 1958-62, won the LAUS TIBI DEO award for her poem, "The Presence," entered in the 1965 Art for Religion exhibit at the Bethlehem Evangelical Lutheran Church of Indianapolis. The Judge of the poetry exhibit, Dr. Ruby Davis, Ph.D., Professor Emeritus, English, Earlham College, comments: "The Presence" (The Best of the Show) is a choice bit of verse, excellent in both quality of content and artistic style. In graceful rhythmic lines it presents a shining vision of a great spiritual truth.

Mrs. Elliott also received honorable mention for her poem, "Campus Carol." Earlham College has asked permission to use "The Presence" in her English classes.

(See poem page 7)

Inspiring Christmas Program

One of the most delightful and inspiring programs ever presented in Indiana Central convocations was that given by three faculty members just before the Christmas holidays. It was a merging of scripture and song written by the Reverend Walter Smith, Jr., pastor of the college church.

The program opened with the singing of the lovely "O Holy Night" by Robert C. Coker, tenor, Assistant Professor of Economics, accompanied by Mrs. Dorothy Munger, Assistant Professor of Piano. The program continued with the reading of passages from the Bible followed by appropriate Christmas songs by Mr. Coker and Mrs. Munger. The program ended with the singing of "Silent Night."

Remember June 4!

Calling all reunioning classes! June 4 is Alumni Day. All classes whose numbers end in '1 or '6 are urged to come to the campus on that day to get reacquainted with your classmates and to rejoice in the improvement of the campus. Right now mark the date on your calendar and begin to make your plans.

The members of the classes of 1911, 1916, 1921, 1926, 1931, 1936, 1941, 1946, 1951, 1956, and 1961 are expected. That makes a total of 386 living and having bachelor degrees, 136 Normal grads and 26 having associate degrees.

Hypothesis

You believe there is no love—That kindness is counterfeit? No particle can you destroy, Even for yourself who claims it. You say there is no love, no God? You can prove what you are saying? The sun still floods the earth with light, And strong men still are praying.

—Ada B. Crozier
Neareast Indiana Area Club

Thirty-one Indiana Central alumni and their families met on Sunday, January 16, at Crescent Avenue E.U.B. Church in Fort Wayne to renew alumni efforts in the Fort Wayne area.

Reverend Frank White served the group as master of ceremonies. Refreshments and local arrangements were handled by Loren Thomas, Bob Newnum and Reverend Emmett Anderson and their wives. The meeting was informal with Dean Ransburg presenting slides and general information about the college and alumni activities.

The group elected a new set of officers for the coming year: Rev. White, president; Mrs. Evelyn Greek Phillips, vice-president; and Mrs. Janis Holloway Thomas, secretary. Future plans for the group will be decided at a meeting of the officers in March. The club area includes Allen, Adams, DeKalb, Steuben, Huntington, Wells, Whitley and Noble counties.

Other alumni in attendance were Imogene Snyder Kaylor, Reverend Marshall and Maxine Black Chambers, Joanne Baldwin Lantz, Reverend Lynn and Melba Roberson Henry, Jean Miller Barrett, Mary Alice Thomas Delaney, Philemon V. Smith, Betty Hawkins White, Lloyd Barden, Juanita Baker Printup, Paul Ankeny, and Fanny Varner Boger. Several other alumni indicated interest in future meetings although they were unable to attend the January meeting.

Alumni With Science Research

Dale F. Cook, '42, is Area Sales Manager for Science Research Associates, Inc. one of four in the country in that position. He is directly responsible for the men and sales for 14 states in the Mid-West. His residence is 1404 South Grove Avenue, Park Ridge, Illinois.

John F. Wells, '49, is Regional Director for Science Research Associates, Inc. with his office in Westerville, Ohio, after having taught at Otterbein College for four years.

Maciejewski Named Inspector

Edmund A. Maciejewski, '58, has been named resident inspector of the newly established U. S. Food and Drug Administration office in Toledo, the first in northwestern Ohio. He was formerly assigned to the Detroit district office. The principal activity of the agency is administration of the Food, Drug and Cosmetics Act and Hazardous Substance Labeling Act.

Mr. Maciejewski will inspect sanitary conditions in manufacturing facilities for products in interstate shipments, investigate complaints of violations, and obtain samples of products for testing in the Detroit laboratory.

After leaving Indiana Central Mr. Maciejewski was employed by the Indiana State Health Department for four years and joined the agency's Detroit office three years ago. He lives at 2881 Hickory, Erie, Michigan, 48133, with his wife, Lucille, and children: Pamela 9, Joseph 2, and Jean Marie 3 months.

Kirkpatricks Become "International"

Dr., '39, and Mrs. John (Alice Mitchell, '40) Kirkpatrick were recently guests on the Ann Colone Show, Fort Wayne Channel 15. With them were their "international" family. The Kirkpatricks have adopted Korean, Bolivian, Negro and Pakistani children. The latest acquisition, one year old Kelli Jean, was adopted in November.

Dr. Kirkpatrick is Senior Minister of the Trinity Methodist Church in Fort Wayne. Two older children, Kathleen (Mrs. Lorin Clemenz) and John Edward, graduated from Indiana Central in 1963 and 1965.

The old order changeth yielding place to new,
And God fulfills himself in many ways
Lest one good custom should corrupt the world.
Tennyson—The Passing of Arthur.

How far yon candle throws its little beams;
So shines a good deed in a naughty world.
Shakespeare—The Merchant of Venice.

Full many a gem of purest ray serene
The dark unfathomed caves of ocean bear;
Full many a flower is born to blush unseen
And waste its sweetness on the desert air.
Gray's "Elegy"

—A. E. Housman
Indiana Central Cagers Lead Hoosier College Conference

Greyhound coach Angus Nicoson has made a habit of winning Hoosier College Conference basketball championships to the delight of ICC fans — and the dismay of opposing basketball coaches.

The current Central seniors have yet to see the Hounds finish any place but first in basketball, and this season Nick and his lads hold that familiar consecutive title.

The Hounds were coasting along with an unblemished 6-0 slate with four games remaining. Manchester, which has been the bridesmaid to Nick’s squads the past three years, is once more nipping at the heels of the front-running Greyhounds with a 5-1 record.

Indiana Central has dominated the HCC since its formation in 1947-48. Nick, who returned to his alma mater the same year that the conference was founded, has finished first seven times, second seven times, third three times, and fifth once. The veteran mentor has fabricated a superlative 238-108 won-lost record against all HCC opponents for a .688 winning percentage, a success approached by no other conference coach.

This season ICC got off to a sluggish start, dropping its first three games to powerful non-conference opponents Bellarmine (65-62), Kentucky State (98-95, two overtimes), and Indiana State (82-69) before catching fire and bouncing the next ten opponents.

Included in this string were five conference victories and triumphs over Marian, Earlham twice, William Jewell, and Wabash. Marian finally caught Nick’s lads napping in the second meeting of the cross-town rivals and severed the Hounds winning streak, 73-71. After this loss ICC went on to edge Millikin, 78-75, and conquered Taylor’s Trojans, 78-74, for the second time.

The Hounds, 12-4 for the season with four left are led in scoring by big junior Phil Honnold, who is averaging 22.5 points a game on amazing .607 shooting from the field. The 6-5 Pendleton ace also is the top Greyhound rebounder with an average of 14.5 a contest. Honnold is followed by 1964-65 all HCC selection Roger Wathen in both scoring and rebounding. The 6-5 junior from Indianapolis Manual has averaged 15.2 points and 12.3 rebounds a game.

The club leader, however, has been senior guard Vasco Walton, a 5-11 hustler from Indianapolis Manual. The fiery playmaker has scored 13.4 points a game but, more important, has assisted his mates on 118 baskets, an average of nearly 8 a contest. Walton’s 16 game total has already surpassed Clark Crafton’s 1964-65 season total (in 23 games) of 94 assists.

The two other starters, junior guard Jack Noone and freshman Bob Smock, are each averaging a little over 9 points a game. Noone doubles as the squad’s outstanding defensive performer, limiting his opponent to a stingy seven points a contest and Smock, a 6-footer from Hebron, Indiana, has shown outstanding poise for a rookie.

All four remaining HCC contests are key games.

Jim Brunnemer ’66.