Y. M. C. A. AND Y. M. C. A. WILL MEET AT COLLEGE ORGANIZATIONS OF STATE WILL MEET HERE

The Y. M. and Y. W. cabinets of the colleges of Indiana will meet in conference at our college March 28-29. "Dad" Elliott, Francis Miller, Bruce Curry and some of the best Y leaders in Indiana will be here.

The local Y. M. and Y. W. C. A. are making arrangements for the entertainment of their guests in the dormitories.

The Y. M. C. A. will hold its sessions in the basement of Men's Hall; the Y. W. will hold its meetings in Dailey Hall; the joint sessions will be held in Dailey Hall.

Welcome, "Y" cabinets!

PRESS CLUB GIVES ST. PATRICK'S PARTY

The Press Club was very delightfully entertained by a St. Patrick's party at the home of Professor and Mrs. Morgan Thursday evening, March 14. Numerous games were played during the evening in one of which Clarence Leichty received a prize for the designing of a very elaborate costume for an Irish dame. Refreshments were served to the following: Misses Ruth McCoy, Mildred Washburn, Violet Miller, Iona Helmermus, Margaret Hilly, Boshourne Leichty, Butler, Stoneburner, Spell, Davis, Uhly and Professor and Mrs. Morgan. This is only one of the many parties the Press Club will provide for its members.

ORACLE GOES TO PRESS

The Oracle was started to the printer today. It will soon be ready for distribution. Those who have been on the inside of affairs say that the book is to be one of the best ever issued. Many new features have been added in this copy. Much credit must be given G. F. Fisher, Ross Bishop, Myrtle Banks, P. G. Snively and Professor Morgan for their untiring service to the junior and senior classes in producing this book. It is understood that 400 have been sold and that probably more will be printed. G. F. Fisher and L. D. Vass have secured more than four hundred dollars in advertisements to help put the book in the front ranks with other college annuals.

FRESHMEN TROUBLE SOPHIS

The freshmen won the third inter-collegiate basketball game of the year when they defeated the sophis, 34 to 25, March 13. The sophis had won both of the other contests by a score of 31 to 15 and 16 to 6. The game was fast and hard fought throughout, the score eee-saving from one side to the other. At the half the score was tied 13 all, and the second half was a repetition of the first half until a few minutes of the finish when the yearlings broke away with a flash of speed, coupled with luck, for ten points. The final whistle blew with the sophis trailing 34 to 25.

After this was the star for the freshmen with twenty points, while Bright was best for the losers.

CENTRAL TRIMS VALPARAISO

The Central affirmative administered a unanimous defeat to the Valparaiso negative team in Kephart Memorial Auditorium on March 7. This is the second time that Valparaiso has fallen at the hands of the Central debaters. The men from upstate did well but were not able to meet the quick wit of the affirmative.

The Central negative lost to Franklin in a 2 to 1 decision at Franklin. It was a close battle and the judges said it was hard to decide.

Central debaters were excellent in delivery.

CHAPEL EXERCISES

The students of Central have been exceptionally fortunate in the fact that they have been able to hear four widely known men within the past two weeks. Mr. Burkhart and Dr. Brubaker spoke to the students on the same day on the subject of service.

Dr. Schell one week later spoke of the education of the present day young man and woman, emphasizing the fact that we must be educated to serve.

Dr. Engleman of the National Educational Association spoke of need of moral and religious teaching in the present day schools as a means of bringing world peace.

MUSICIA GIRLS GET THEIR DATES MIXED

Late in the afternoon of Friday, March 21, the negative debaters of I. C. G. were terror stricken to see a pile of traveling bags in the lower hall of the Administration Building and a group of girls in the office. The Earlham affirmative team had been expected to arrive at any moment, and the I. C. G. boys were certain that they were to be pitted against a "female" team. Great was their relief when it was learned that the girls were delegates from Muncie Normal to the state Y. W. C. A. convention to be held here March 28-29. They had confused the dates and arrived a week early.

CENTRAL LOSES TWO DEBATES

Central lost to North Manchester and Earlham in debates scheduled with those schools on March 21. The decision rendered in favor of Earlham was two-to-one. Central lost all points in the decision. The debaters handled their subject matter well and are to be complimented upon the fine display of knowledge of the subject.

CHRISTIAN ENDAVOR GIVES ST. PAT. PARTY

MISS WEAVER IS HONOR GUEST OF THE EVENING

One of the finest social events of the year was held Friday, March 14, when about one hundred students attended the "extemporaneous" St. Patrick's party in the Administration Building. This event was the "conclusion" of an interesting membership drive of Christian Endeavor, during which over ninety new members were added to the society roll.

The guest of the evening was Miss Weaver, our beloved English instructor, who is the oldest active member of our society. It happened that her birthday came on the fourteenth, the day of the social, so she shared the honors with Sr. Pat. very gracefully. When one found himself surrounded with a maze of green balloons, he felt as if he were floating across the English channel after a load of original shamrocks.

Mr. Roberts, the chairman, of the evening, was probably the most un-popular student present, as it fell to his happy lot to select the speakers for extemporaneous talks on such subjects as My Opinion of the Movies, The Most Dangerous Adventure I Ever Had, and the affirmative and negative victims of the question, Resolved, That Bobbed Hair Girls Have Less Brains Than Those of the Regular Variety.

Saxophone solos, singing and other music added spice to the program.

Green and white ice cream served with wafer and shamrocks satisfied that internal longing which we all have at the close of a happy evening. Several young people present discovered that shamrocks are easier to look than to digest.

Everyone admitted that it was certainly a grand evening. Miss Anna Helen Mason and the members of the special committee can not be complimented too highly for their planning and work in presenting Christian Endeavor with a very splendid and entertaining event.

CENTRAL TESCO THE SCORE RESULTS IN HEAVY CASUALTY LIST FOR BOTH SIDES

The seniors defeated the fatherly juniors in a neck-breaking basketball game by a score of 40 to 16.

From all indications the effects following the game were worse than the game, for both seniors and juniors can be seen on the campus hobbling around on crutches, nursing sprained wrists and other minor injuries.

The juniors, from all appearances, feared the seniors since they had about fifteen men out as good precursors. They must have realized their worst meditations, for they substituted a new team about every ten minutes, while the team that just left the floor worn thin, smelling salts and adhesive tape liberally.

The seniors studied to the task, and had the game lasted a day or so longer would have probably won. All of the seniors were stars except that they lacked the necessary sparkle.

As for the juniors, well by the time the game was over they were so disguised by bumpers, plasters and bandages that the writer was unable to select a star.

JUNIORS BUMPED OFF BY SENIOR NIGHTERS

Right on track to the affair was the "extemporaneous" St. Patrick's party in Kephart Memorial Auditorium on March 7.

The seniors, by all indications, wanted a home team and so took the senior nighters. There were no contests on hand, and the game lasted a day or so longer would have probably won. All of the seniors were stars except that they lacked the necessary sparkle.
The Freshman class in chemistry is receiving some excellent training in scientific speculation.

Several eyes found on the floor following the Junior-Senior game are as yet unclaimed.

The third-year math class departed ten minutes and two seconds after time the day before and entered the library one and one-half seconds before Prof. Eaton entered the front door.

Two years ago Central pride herself on the absence of bobbed hair among the ladies. Today the paucity of the unshorn variety is noticeable.

Spring is here, our radiators have their usual draperies.

The fire escapes will soon be installed.

Ninety per cent of the women at Indiana University are overweight, according to a statement of the home economics department of that institution. French potato paste, pudding and the habit of "taxi-ing" to and from school were given as the reasons for the excess adiposities of the undergraduate women.

"The coed who indulges habitually in chocolate pie," said a member of the department, "is going to repent sooner or later, no matter what her size, shape or age. The young lady who enables slowly to class and "taxi-ing" three blocks to the station should not be pitted when the scales groan under her weight. Instead she should be commended for her laisness. She eats more food than she needs and is not active enough."

In order to overcome the "over" stigma, it was suggested to the women try cross-country running over the numerous hills around Bloomington, or jumping from one double-decked bed to another each night before retiring.

But the remedies suggested for the I. U. girls could never train our coeds down to par. A daily class on the third floor of the science building might be effective, but the only sure way to reduce them would be to induce them not to study so hard. They must be indulged with a desire to play more, and work less. Let them feel the suspense of prayer that they'll be called on for the only thing they know, and let them step gurgling so frequently and sober our collection of heavy and middlesweights can class in the flyweight division.

Yours for fairlike deeds,
PROF. GETTEM SLM,
Registrar of Weights and Measures.

IKEY'S COLUMN

Bobby: Mama, do cats go to heaven?
Mother: I suppose not.
Bobby: How are they going to have violins up there?

Lady in milkman: You may bring me a quart of milk each day.
Milkman: How come?
Lady: I fear cow's milk is too strong for the baby.

Mother to Billy who was playing with a collie dog: Isn't that a nice dog that doggie has on?
Billie: Yes, but where does it button up?

Edith S.: You say that your father hasn't had any success with his experiments?
Bernice D.: Yes, I am sorry to say. Edith: What is he experimenting with?
Bernice: Why, he is trying to cross violets with onions so as to produce our onion taste with a violet smell.

A young man and a sweet young thing was riding in a Ford coupe one night, when he gently kissed her. Just then there blew out and she said: "Isn't it a good thing that we didn't stay home? - Papa is such a light sleeper."

Chalfant: You know, I am not what I used to be, Swarzens: You are not? Chalfant: No, I used to be a child.

Lady: Are you afraid of work? Burn: No, madam, I can lie down by the side of it and go to sleep.

She: My fiancee's birthday is next week and I would like to give him a surprise.
He: Well, why don't you tell him your right age?

Miss Weaver: For tomorrow you may take the life of Dr. Johnson. Spies: How can we?

Snively: Geneva, will you share my lot?
Geneva: What kind of a house do you have on it?

Flames burst forth from the window of the tenth floor. A woman's scream pierced the cracking of the flames. The crowd was aghast.
A beautiful feminine head from the smoke-clogged window. A plaintive wail.
The throngs continued its gaping upward.
And—she descended on the stares of the crowd.

RESIDENCE HALL NEWS

Violette Miller and Olene Gilliatt were pleasantly surprised on Tuesday evening, March 18, with a birthday party given in their honor by the girls of second-year Residence Hall. Cookies, cookies and ice cream were served. They were each presented with a handsome photograph enclosed in a beautifully carved, brass frame as a gift from the girls. Those present were Violette Miller, Olene Gilliatt, Luella Clampil, Mildred Barnhart, Ophile Gilliatt, Dick Gilliatt, Mary Bushong, Elizabeth Manning, Etes Delaney, Julia Freshley, Amanda Fadely, Myrline Banks and Katherine Woertz.

Joe Cummings presented Jessie Watson with a matrimonial thermometer which is being experimented with by all the girls.

Miss Jona Heronius was at her home in Richmond this week end.

Miss Alma Camp of Noblesville is spending the week end with friends in Residence Hall.

Vesta Rickert has been named champion in the game of Memory. Mary Bushong and Dick Gilliatt were ruled from the contest.

A Book tournament is being planned. Contestants must be from Residence Hall. For further information see the next issue of The Reflector.

Amanda Fadely and Elizabeth Manning were guests of the former's cousin for breakfast and dinner at her home in Broad Ripple, Sunday before last.

In order to obtain data for the Social Eugenics class, Professor Holman asks that all the students in school come to his room to be weighed and measured. Let's be on hand!

Ruth McCoy was the week end guest of Violette Miller at her home in Lafayette.

Gertrude Hutton is the week-end guest of Ruth Brane at her home in Lincolnville, Ind.

Edith Chatfield is with us again having recovered from her illness which had taken her to her home in Hartford City.

Dick Gilliatt spent the week end in the city with her friend, Miss Katherine Top.

Georgia Snyder is visiting with her sister in Bloomington, Ind.

Alco Weaver, Geraldine Kirkham, Ade Young and Helen Donnell attended services at the Jewish Synagogue in the city last Saturday morning.

GIRL'S GLEE CLUB CONCERTS

I. C. C. has been privileged to have two college glee clubs this year and the season is here for their concerts. The Girls' Club gave a splendid program on the evening of March 22. Mrs. Bridge, of the city, was the soloist and both the club and the audience were greatly pleased with her songs.

PART TWO

Three Springs Cantata
Bliss
A story of Three Springs that rise high on the mountain side under a willow tree. One is blue, one is white and one is gold. The dip of the willow branches hides each a fond farewell.

First, in the little limpid, pool, they listen to the Butterfly's advice to the Willow Lily to "content," then down the brook they flow "merrily, cheerily" until they come to the Three Little Falls. Where is it rough and dark but "cool, oh cool!"

They go down the sluggish, slow-moving river, hearing the song of the river, "leaping and falling" they shoot over the "Great Waterfall," and at last from the tip of a wave out on the ocean vast they are drawn up by the sun to the soft clouds above, to be wafted back to their lovely home, high on the mountain side.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Eckerley entertained a group of the young men from the college last Wednesday evening at their home on Kephart avenue. Pop and candy were served. The evening was spent discussing social problems.

SHARED FROM THE ACADEMY TREE

Donald Marshall of Perry township announces candidacy for the office of Judge of the Moot Court of University. He's subject to the will of the prohibition party in primary election, May 6, 1924.-Adv.

Miss Delaney: You wouldn't marry a girl for the sake of her money, would you?

Emmet: No, but on the other hand I wouldn't allow her to become an old maid just because she had money.

Lasley vs. Zeigler and Harvey Zeigler and Harvey were the defendants in a suit for damages, brought by Miss Lasley in Judge Fishers Moot Court. A. Emmert and A. A. Williams were the counsel for the defendants. After some deliberation a capable jury was chosen. The court was in session three days and was the cause of great excitement in the community. Miss Lasley is an important figure in society. After some instructions from Judge Fisher the jury assembled behind closed doors. We failed to hear any more from them. It is rumored that the jury hung.

Pouline Sharp has been absent from school a few days on account of the death of her grandfather, J. S. Martin, Kephart avenue.

Rev. Stein from Illinois visited his son, Lorin last week. Mr. Stein made himself very popular with the young people of the college due to the fact that he has a very beautiful smile.

The Mosley sisters and Lucille Hufmann enlisted in the Tesh and broom battallion and shoveled the snow and ice from the side walks that lead to the boys' dormitory. Hello Royal

The Academy girls defeated the girls' reserve of Indianapolis in a basketball game Wednesday evening. The score was 25 to 6 in favor of the local team.

Friday night in honor of Alice Morgan. Refreshments were: jello, candy and cookies. Those present were: the hostesses, Florence Warren, Ruby Sargison, Mildred Rigs, Agapita Obaldo, Florence Stonehill, Elva Hoffman, Nellie Tatten, Elma Wininger, Grace Meyer, Mary Dunham, Thelma Petty and Genevieve Nicholas.

Mrs. Henry Herzog visited with her daughter Mildred at Dailey Hall the past week end.

The dean unexpectedly inspected the rooms the other day. Her signature and two words "not satisfactory" was found in some of the rooms. You should have heard Bob and Gene rave. We can’t imagine what the matter was.

Wanted to know: Why do all the debates and parties come on Friday night? When can we go to the city?
—Carol Cooper.

After waiting so long a time for some heroic fellow to clean the snow from the walks, Lucile Hoffman and Francis Mosley played the part of heroines and shoveled the snow from our walk and that of the boys as far as the tennis court. They would have gone farther but the ruling is to "go only so far as the tennis court and look into the forbidden land."

The Academy basketball girls defeated the G. R.’s from the city, Wednesday night, 26-6.

Polly Shaeay spent a week at home, resting.
