CENTRAL TROUNCES SILENT HOOSIERS

The Visitors Uncover Tricky Aerial Game

Indiana Central won its first home game of the season when it defeated the Silent Hoosiers 26-6.

Central kicked off and quickly held the Hoosiers to downs and then started a march down the field for a touch down and, before the game was five minutes old, Bright had erased through for Central's first touch down of the season.

Central continued to batter down the Hoosiers' line at will and the half ended 26-6 in favor of Central.

Second Half

With the start of the second half Coach George substituted freely and the game, gritty, Hoosiers took hope. As Central continued a scoreless for the quarter. They carried the ball quickly down the field for several first downs, finally scoring a few seconds before the end of the third quarter.

In the last quarter Coach George sent his regulars back into the game and scored the last touch down of the game.

Bright was easily the outstanding star for Central, scoring two of the four touch downs.

THE CARDINAL AND GRAY

Drops Heart Breaker to Quakers

Fumbles Costly

Indiana Central dropped its third game of the season October 17 when she went down to defeat before the strong Quaker pigskin warriors by a 29 to 7 count. The score does not show how close the game really was and the final outcome was in doubt until the last whistle had blown.

The game started the game by kicking off for Central. Earlham carried the ball to their 20-yard line, where they were held to down. Then started a exchange of punts, which lasted until Albaugh recovered Butler's punt on the goal line for the first touch down of the game, which was kicked by Kepher. Bright place kicked for the final point.

Earlham kicked off and Good carried the ball to the 20-yard line. Central was forced to punt and the quarter ended with the ball on Central's 45-yard line.

In the second quarter Kessler crashed through for Earlham's first touch down, but failed on the attempt for the extra point.

Central led at the half: 7 to 0.

Second Half

During the third quarter the Central lines weakened and Earlham crashed through for gain. After gain. They scored two touchdowns this quarter. Farrel broke through for the first one; Schmoker soon followed another one. During the last quarter Coach George threw his reserve ma. into the game, and Earlham, without further scoring for the quarter.

The game ended 29-7. In favor of Earlham. Kessler was easily the outstanding Earlham player, and the two A's, Albright, Adams and Arboqast, were the stars for Central.

FACULTY PLAYS VOLLEY BALL

The men of the College Faculty have formed two volley ball teams and meet regularly every Monday evening for practice. The purpose of the team is to provide good vigorous exercise and real hard fun. After three evenings of playing with a tentative lineup a permanent arrangement has been effected under the leadership of Captains George and Harumy with six men on each side. To encourage more interest in the adventure it has been agreed that the losers must provide a banquet for the victors next Thanksgiving. Attendance has been good for the side which is depleted by absent members is likely to suffer defeat. Dr. Parsons and Reverend Montgomery are participants and each is a real "fighting parson."

Buy your Oracle early and avoid the rush.

NEW COLLEGE PASTOR

Rev. W. R. Montgomery

The new college pastor is Rev. W. R. Montgomery, who has been elected as the new college pastor. This big little man is a alum of Indiana Central and comes to us from Noblesville, Indiana. Nine years ago he entered I. C. C. as a freshman and in 1919 he graduated. He then entered Buehner's Theological Seminary at Dayton, Ohio. After receiving his B. D. degree there he took the Noble School Church and during his eighteen months stay there he was of untold service to the community and church. Now he comes to us with a direct desire to really get close to the heart of the student body and community. With the support of students, faculty and community he will be able to do a wonderful work here this year.

SENIOR ACTIVITIES

By FANNIE DUNBAR

Florence Delphi spent the week end at her home in Wilkinson, Indiana.

Mrs. Penrose, formerly Elizabeth Everett, was the guest of Violette Miller Sunday afternoon.

Miss Dorothy Vedander was very happily surprised Saturday noon when her parents, Rev. and Mrs. C. E. Vedander, and her sisters, Ruby and Nellie, came from Vermillion, Ill. for a short visit.

Thelma Drown celebrated the arrival of her guest by lunch at once for Terre Haute, where she spent a very enjoyable week end at home.

Mrs. Otto Gillatt and little son, Neal, of Washington, Ind., spent a few days last week as guests of Quaker Glenn and Dick Gillatt.

Anyone interested in fried hamburger should see Geneva Taylor. She knows just how to make it taste the best.

TOPICS IN BRIEF

While no organized movement was made to assemble a band of roosters to accompany Indiana Central's football team to Richmond Saturday for its game with Earlham, a considerable number of students, faculty members and followers of the team were there. Disappointment over the final score of 29 to 7 in favor of the Quakers was felt keenly by the Central backers, especially in view of the fact that in the first half Central fumbled the ball twice inside Earlham's five-yard line, in the very shadow of a score.

Rev. W. R. Montgomery, head of the physics department, attended the meeting of the Indiana Association of Physicists, which met at DePauw university last week.

A recital will be given by instructors in the department of music in Rehearsal Memorial auditorium, Saturday, October 25. The recital will take place after the usual meeting of the choir.

Football fans are glad to hear that Oct. 18, which will be Frank's home is a special occasion, has been filled by a game with North Manchester college to be played there.

The Faculty Club, composed of members of the faculty and their wives, held its last monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. Lois Brown Dorsett, head of the music department. N. A. Schult, treasurer, led the meeting with a talk on the history of accounting. Refreshments were served.

The final date of the "off" post game is November 5th. As the girls of Residence Hall, is still uncertain, due to the fact that no satisfied date has been set by the student welfare committee. All the plans for the big event have been made and the following general committee is in charge, Thelma Gillatt, chairman; Virginia Fout, Dena Young, Josephine Albin, Marcella Comenet, and Violette Miller. The tentative date is Oct. 21.

FOOTBALL MEN WILL DOLL UP IN NEW TIES

Through the good offices of Lorin Stine, or "Silence" as he is commonly known, and the generosity of Mr. Harry Krause, of Krause Brothers jewelers and clock store at East Washington St., ten of the football warriors who went in against Earlham Saturday expect to appear before the public gaze very shortly in all the splendor of new, neckties. The ties are to be presented by Mr. Krause as an acknowledged gift of distinguished service rendered in scoring a touchdown against the "Quakers." Each of the ten actually scored the point will be complemented sporting a new cap.

MORE PEP

From various quarters and from our own observation it comes to us that students of I. C. C. do not seem to have the "Pep" and school loyalty that possibly they had in days of yore.

This inertia seems to manifest itself in numerous ways. The most obvious of which is the rather indifferent rooting of the majority of Centralites at football games. Only a comparatively few backers went over to Englem with the team Saturday. Why they made nearly as much noise as the whole crowd did at the I. S. B. U. game.

Another place where students fall short of standards set in previous years is in support of the college paper. We are at present deficient in having their pictures taken for the "Oracle." Let's all "snap out" of our "Just so we get by attitude" and show some of that old loyalty that has kept I. C. C. getting stronger and better steadily as time goes on. "The unforgiving sin," says H. G. Wells, "is stagnation."

"DAILEY DIARY"

By CLARA PROCTOR

September 9—Sixty-four girls were lodged within my hall tonight.

September 16—The first house meeting was called. The following officers were elected: President, Oliver Howe; Vice-President, Clara Gillihan; Secretary-Treasurer, Anna Helen Mason; Reporters, Clara Proctor and Thelma Richert.

Dean Waterbury sweetly reprimanded us and suggested that we try to conduct ourselves as citizens this year. (For I have said the same for so many years.)

All members of the house trembled as the assistant Dean in the personage of Miss Gertrude Johnson was introduced.

Another new face in the house was that of Miss Anna Helen Hoffman, who went around talking to the girls.

September 17—Two of my old friends, Millett Breends and Georgia Main left today.

October 1—Tonight Sophomore girls invaded my rooms and as they wanted some new shoes, they filled them with shoes of all different styles from many different rooms.

October 2—Every morning I am disturbed by girls slipping out, to walk miles and miles. I do wish they would let me sleep.

October 7—Another house meeting was called tonight. Dean Waterbury tactfully outlined the dates for the remaining girls.

October 8—Hilda Gatewood's mother came to visit today. I am always glad for the girls' mothers to come, sometimes they do get lonesome.

October 9—One of the girls, Gladys Bostic, came for I. C. C. game last night. Olene Gillisit, Opal Gillisit, Lola Cherry, Miss McCoy, Marie Gouey, Elizabeth Armstrong, Nellie Ashley, with Miss Albritton and Clara Proctor were her guests.

October 10—All the girls have been having their pictures taken this week. I thought they would frame them to hang upon my walls.

October 11—Irene Bailey, Charlotte Gillihan and Anna Dale, visited with their mothers this week end.

THE CLASS OF '23

By ANNA DALE AND FANNY VARNER

Does everyone know that there are about one hundred and twenty Freshmen, and that every single one of them is as full of pep, enthusiasm, and Freshman Class that ever entered any school? We have chosen the following officers: President, Olive Varner; Vice-President, Miss Patterson; Secretary, Miss Young; Treasurer, Mr. Cox. Under the leadership of such a class we are going to have the best Freshman class that has ever come to Indiana Central. At the Freshman Thanksgiving, the girls and those men not participating gave the men at the rope such staunch support that the result could not have been different. That was an example of the way we shall always defend the maroon and cream. Of course, we were first of all, and we're going to do our best to make her the best there is. After our school, we'll be the for first year and all the time.

—By ANNA DALE

Many of the girls and boys have already joined literary societies and are swiftly being brought into social affairs. The social functions are coming around the line of dates and ham tries.

Come on Freshmen, keep all your pep. Remember there is a Freshman Sophomore football game coming soon. Don't forget what you did to them at the Tug-O-War and you are capable of the same height. This is what we need. Let's make our motto, "United we stand, divided we fall."

RESIDENCE HALL

By VERA HOFFMAN

Violette Miller spent last week end with friends and friends at Lafayette, Indiana. Miss Florence Shows, sister of Dr. Show's, was visiting with them.

Maude McKenzie's sister spent last week end here, also Helen Willott's there was a visitor over the last week end.

Dick Gillisit spent last week end here with his sister, Katherine Parr, of Indianapolis.

Friday evening, October the third, the Freshman girls took a stroll, and as we walked the Sophomore girls entered the joined the crowd. Because of a rain storm they returned to the reception hall after我院 morning.

Two of our young men, Maynard Mylin and Eddie Pence, who are increasing in years, enjoyed a birthday party October the fourth at Dailey Hall, given by Marcella Cornet and Gertrude Johnson. Several others were present, and a very enjoyable evening it was.

Several of our girls spent the week end with their parents, Miss Annabelle Patmon and Miss Anna McKenzie and Miss Edna Milly.

"Please be quite," was the motto of Residence Hall last week, but all our girls are able to be in school again.

A number of our girls enjoyed a "Pink" Freshman party Thursday evening. At least they were all enthusiastic about the good pie.

Violette Miller was quite surprised when her brother and family of Martinsville, Indiana, drove up to the dormitory Sunday noon. We girls hope they come again as we always like to have Violette a big white cake, which several of us girls enjoyed with our Sunday evening lunch.

Keep the twentieth of October in mind. A big carnival in Residence Hall. One of the greatest events of the year. Don't miss it.

THE INDIANAPOLIS CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR RALLY

By DWIGHT ROUTH

The rally of the Indianapolis Christian Endeavor Union, held at the College auditorium Sunday afternoon, was attended by six hundred and forty members. Members from each of the Christian Endeavor societies of the six churches of Indianapolis were present.

Belmont Church had forty-eight delegates; Brookside, thirty-one; Calvary, twenty-four; First Church, fifteen; and Community, thirteen. Our society received the banner for the largest attendance, having sixty-nine delegates present.

The speaker for the afternoon was Mr. H. A. Goddard, a general secretary; Young Men's Christian Association of Indianapolis. He gave a very interesting and instructive address to the subject, "Life, God, and Duty."

It told of his experiences as a young boy in a country town, how he made a downfall, his repentance, his Christian influence, his conversions, and his observations of the people of England, Scotland and France.

MEN'S MENAGRIE

By CHARLIE HORSE

Well, we are through another week and nobody has, sent Jasper Stapler, for any older yet. Cider has become quite popular since the first batch was introduced. And who do you suppose it was introduced by? No one else than the Rev. J. C. Stillwell, who was good enough to be our errand boy.

Dr. White has a very excellent practice in the dormitory, since football has been going on, he has been playing through most of the game at Hitchmon last Saturday with a severe cold.

Stacey has learned to know what the "staff" of life is again. Miss Waterbury must have missed you in the few weeks that you failed to come over to Dailey Hall. That's all right, Stacey, we'll say you are regular, anyway.

Quite a few of the fellows enjoyed hearing Paul Whiteman's orchestra at the Murray Theatre last Sunday afternoon. They say he has a hot saxophone, so if you don't like what is in here, blame it on a tender.moment.

Paul Jones, Everett Hoffman, Ed McClure, Ken Nall and Paul French rode to Hitchmon in a Ford Sedan. Our stories of our barter market are getting along pretty well. When they arrived at the football field they were amazed to see a bunch of Sears & Roebuck cowboys.

Eddie—"Say Harry a little bird tells me that this milk is sour.

Harry—"Well, it's a bird, a bear, an eagle."

"A swallow."

We've all heard the story of the man who poured syrup on his shoe laces and tied his spaghetti on a new one on me.

Pepsy—Why are you hurring so with your theme, it isn't class, time yet?

Senior—I know, but I'm trying to finish before my pen runs dry.

THE REMNANT COUNTER

By MILES LEACH

Last issue they called our column "The Remnant Counter". We are here under a new name but with the same old lipo. We beg of you to note the other good and goods of varying quality. A young man went to a theater once where they were burning Chinese Incense. It didn't suit him and so he called the usher and said "I smell punk." "Well," replied the usher, "I won't set anybody near you." If our column turns out to be punk you will please refrain from associating with us.

Percy, our baseball player, a freshman, is in a restaurant at Cambridge City and asked if they scarfed meals. The waiters stared at him and said "Sure, we'll deliver for you, and if you can pay for it." Probably added, "but we don't sell silos.

Professor Eaton says that he wants the student body to understand him as unconditionally denying the story about his absent-mindedly leaving his daughter Marjory abroad. And Professor Osborn said that he is not the professor who poured molasses on his head and scratched his pancake.

Charlie Leader seems to possess a true family car. Monday Jones, Franke and Hoffman went "eating-in" with it. What ways of driving wouldn't Charlie make a fortune retiring his car certain nights in the week?
THEACALOSIA INSTALLS NEW OFFICERS

By OLIVIA T. EASH

Thecallosia has been successfully launched on her second year of work. We are glad to welcome all the old members back and to extend a hearty welcome to our new members. New officers were installed on Oct. 6. The program for the evening was as follows:

Chaplain's address—Mary Buschong.

Critique—The Duty of Hap-piness (1836), President's Valedictory—The Soul of Things, Dorothy Velerender.

President's Inaugural—Home, Opat Gilliat.

Second part of continued story—Vera Hoffman.

Musical Reading—Beatle Redelbaugh.

Muse—Mrs. Dorsett.

Pet Picture—Alena Case.

Our new officers for this term are:

President, Opat Gilliat.

Vice-President, Charlotte Gilliat.

Recording Secretary, Annie Dunn.

Treasurer, Mary Buschong.

Corresponding Secretary, Beatle Redelbaugh.

Hostesses, Gertrude Johnson, Vera Hoffman.

Our new active members are:

On October 6 we listened to a very satisfying satire on "Dorm Life" by Mary Buschong, also the conclusion of the "The Time is Now" series given by Jessie Mae Watson. The Misses Velerender and Blalh favored us with a delightful verse that we were taken back to the days of our own grammars when the choralster led us in singing "old-time songs."

We were very pleased to learn that Marcella Cornell has such great musical ability as a piano player and also to hear that Dick Gilliat is so enthusiastic about forming a study of "human nature."

Although it is not the custom of the Thacallosia to have open session on Inaugural night we were very glad to welcome all the new girls to our brother society Zetagaetha and one of our honorary members, Mrs. Dorsett. Mr. Harris, President of Zetagaetha and Mrs. Dorsett both gave extemporaneous speeches.

PHILOMUSEAN NEWS

By E. L. ECKERTLY

On October 6th two new members were installed in our society, Clifford R. Stont, of Englewood, IND, and Clyde V. Erwin, of Springfield, ILL. Lynn Turrain, a member of our society, has returned from his travels among the natives in Africa. And W. H. Utah read a poem "We Will Vote the Way We Want To." The subject:

"Do We Want More War?" was discussed extemporaneously by Mr. Weston, one of our new members. C. E. Breck discussed the war, and Mr. Barlow aspersions with the value of gasoline filling stations. C. W. Leader was elected president.

On October 19, a forty-minute session was held, in which H. T. Spilotret said a parlor, Leslie Roberts gave a character sketch of Eddie Frost, and an excellent production was read by Secretary Hunt which had been prepared by Robert Parkinson on the subject, "Scouting." A committee is investigating the matter of new quarters for Philomusean and will report soon. An open meeting was held concerning the formation of a "Scouting Youth" group and giving their "Royal Highness," the Sophomores a chance to kindly walk away with some of our doughnuts. Nevertheless, we had plenty of good eats.

The entertainment committee had the program very well planned. Each person was given a name as he entered, which belonged to a family of more or less. Later these families gave a stunt which was really very amusing. The "Hog Family" won the prize for the best stunt.

"The Porkers" was then a box of stationery for obtaining the largest percentages of beans in a contest to see whose mother could keep on saying "Yes" for twenty-five minutes.

After refreshments were served the poor tired Freshmen adjourned by Mr. Blalh's, laughter, lunch, and phalanks of the Sophomores which really made the party much more exciting.

The fun did not end for some of the Freshmen when the party was over. On returning to their rooms the girls proved to them that the Sophomore's had played a keen trick on them. The girls began a search for lost shoes at once. The fun increased until Mrs. Switzler and Dean Waterbury were drawn into the hunt. The search was in vain for the major portion of the girls and finally that shoe became quiet. Everyone went to bed feeling that they had taken an active part in an evening of jolly, wholesome fun.

Y. W. C. A. MEMBERSHIP CAMPAIGN IS ON

By MABEL BENNINGTON

Plans are completed for a membership drive in the Y. W. C. A. It is believed that every girl in Indiana Central realizes the true worth of Y. W. and as a result the membership this year will be 100 per cent. Plans are also being made for the financial drive.

Hiking continues to be popular and several girls are eagerly looking forward to the time when they will wear the blue "Y" on their sweaters.

The social service committee has been doing some interesting work at the Flower Mission, Robert Long and City Hospitals on Sunday afternoons. Many girls are very enthusiastic about the work and all those who would enjoy doing such work are requested to see Miss Esther Liebenstein, chairman of the social service committee.

Dean Waterbury in her excellent discussion of "The Ideal College Student," in the joint meeting with the Y. M. C. A. last week brought out many thoughts that are worthy of repetition here such as: "Don't be a bluffer." "We fall to rise." "Be so absorbed in things worth while that you won't notice the trivial things in life." "Learn to be cheerful under all circumstances." We are looking forward to the time when our honored Dean shall lead us again in Y. W.

October 7 Mrs. Turner very impressively discussed the topic, "Give and Take in Life."

Our faculty advisor, Mrs. Michael, had charge of the membership meeting October 14.

Say fellows: "If you're not in the Y you're missing something."

If you want to show your manliness come to Y.
