GREYHOUNDS DROP HANOVER IN A FAST TILT, 26 TO 23

Locals Trail At Half, 16-13, But Come Back Strong In Last Frame To Win

The Central Greyhounds proved a little too much for the Hilltoppers in a close hard-fought battle on the local field last Saturday afternoon, 26 to 23. Smith and Reihl, who took turns at the backguard position, were the pillars of Central's defense, breaking up many a well launched attack by Hanover. Bailey held scoring honors for the locals with eight points. Whitecomb showed for Hanover with four field goals.

Central leaped into the lead in the first frame when McCleanhan hit the dropshovel from the floor on an outside play. The Hilltoppers immediately knotted the count with a medium shot and then went into a stalling game from which a few minutes later they broke to turn in another shot. McCleanhan made good from the free line. Hanover ran the score to eight, three and Central called time. After the rest the downers came through for an under the basket shot. Central called, and with two free lines by Bailey, and field goals by Vanco, McCleanhan and Sharp took the lead at eleven to one. "Hanover called "time" to take her bearings. When play was resumed, the visitors connected from under the basket. Vanco hit from the side lines. Hanover finished the first round with two more goals from the floor, putting her in the lead sixteen to ten.

Hanover began the second frame with a toss from the bread line. Vanco hit the dropshovel with a toss from the middle of the floor. Pete Bailey took advantage of two free and put

GREAT leaders are the ones who can control their own lives and not be controlled by others. To have such controls over their lives, there should be a good church organization and ideals existing to back up good living. If there are no controls over the lives of our children, then they are bound to drift out of the church and its environment. Through their own action, they can control their own destiny. "Surely God is not a man, that he should lie, nor the son of man, that he should change; he is not a man, that he should lie," says the prophet Isaiah, chapter 46. Our children are Americans who must learn the importance of their being a part of a great Christian community school, and a Christian college where they can go to get education for their lives. They can be secured to have a higher and nobler attitude.

Lincoln's success as a leader depended largely on his magnificent personality and his ability to adapt himself to the situation. He was possessed of a genuine, generous and forceful personality. He was extremely human and sympathetic. He was capable of understanding the problems of human life and acting accordingly at all times. He was able to do so because he recognized the fact that to do so demanded self-sacrifices.

The success which attended Lincoln may be attributed to a great host of reasons: his magnetism, charity, and self-control. To let these characteristics be developed to the fullest extent it is necessary for an individual to have the right requirements for leadership. The requirements for leadership are: (1) a strong faith in the Lord, (2) the ability to lead men, (3) a strong faith in the Lord, and (4) the ability to lead men.

In that experience, the Lincoln of our day can get a true inspiration in elevation and elevating atmosphere which is necessary to create such a necessary daily activity. With such a daily activity, we can do more for our humanity as the years go by. The supreme goal of the hour is more men who can control their own selves in order that they may be masters of any situation. Lincoln was that kind of man, and is a splendid pattern for the one who would like to be a leader of his character.

The supreme theme, which we can get from these papers, is that we need our own lives that are similar qualities of the Lincoln of the century. In the hearts of the citizens of this great nation, for all time, that we might also be leaders of better walk of life and not find us.

SNATCHES

Recently some one hundred students in the English Department of our college were invited to write themes on the lessons of religious life. Several outstanding phrases definitely represented their beliefs as they exist among our campus have been taken from these papers, as follows:

1. "The reason why a Christian college would not be worth living in—

...is not to be as invalid, to be undesired, or to live in poverty."

2. "The key to a successful college is helping others."

3. "Christian colleges are a means for people to have the funds which to give their full part at once. For this reason, people might get the funds for making the best college for their children and for training ministers for the Lord."

4. "Christian colleges and schools are the most convenient for making the payment."

5. "And because of the church obligations are resting on us, one can give and share in the enterprise.

Death Notes

There are a great many people who have been thrust abroad in finance who should arrange to go back to portions of their estates to the college. Some of these -people would only leave their resources to be quarreled over or disputed by relatives who would use them for the purposes of their own interests. Then there are some who will pass a portion of what they have to go to the college even though they have children. But the end is to provide for the future generation. If you have any reasonable amount in that way, you can only bequeath a share of the college, but the children themselves have a higher appreciation of their parents' interest and help in the enterprise. And among the children, there are none who have added to the fund because of generous giving on the part of the parents, for there are no parents who ever lost because of giving a like this.

This makes a good pledge and his influence is helping others to do the same.

CENTRAL FIVE-FACES

“Having recovered from their “scorn”, during which they lost four games, the Central Five-Faces are now ready to take on the Rose Poly Engineers when they meet the lady. The game is being played today afternoon. The Central Five-Faces are the leading team in the conference, having won all of their games. The Rose Poly Engineers have not been able to keep up with the Central Five-Faces in recent matches, and the outcome of this game is expected to be decided by the last period.”

Tomorrow evening Central’s scrub- ing net collectors, including the location where they meet Concordia. University, very little is known of the strength of the “Blue-Birds”, but what little is known points to the fact that Central will need to be on its guard. Next Tuesday night, Franklin comes here for a return game. The Bantams will depend on the strength of the aggregate in the state in an attempt to repeat their Varsity defeat of Central early in the season.

HUNTINGTON TAKES OVERTIME GAME, 48-26.

In one of the fastest games played on the Huntington floor, Huntington was carried to an overtime game over Central’s Greenheads. Huntington led 29 to 21 at the end of the first period, and they finally defeated Central 43 to 26. This is the first time that Huntington has ever defeated Central.

With the score of 22 to 22 in our favor and twenty seconds to play, one of Huntington’s forwards grabbed the ball off the tip of the net. The goal cracked immediately after the ball was fired into it.

In the overtime period Huntington came back strong and scored 19 points in the fourth quarter. Central had no time to react and fell under the pressure.

Central scored a goal, and the final score was 43 to 26.

Central’s substitutions were handled with skill and determination.

Huntington’s substitutions were also handled with a good deal of energy.

Central’s shabby Greyheards received another setback at the hands of Donville a week ago Thursday evening, when the Purple Five dropped the Original and Gray in a fast battle at Danville, 41 to 23. Bright looked pretty good for Central. The Donville work was good and the victory was well deserved. Connected five times from the floor. Shako Lebo in scoring for the teachers.
