CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATIONS ELECT PRESIDENTS FOR COMING YEAR; INSTALLATION SERVICE MARCH 2nd

Two of the most vital organizations on our campus are the Young Men’s and Young Women’s Christian Associations. The direction of the affairs of these bodies has been and will be the concern of the officers who have been elected by the student body. Each of these associations has its own unique character and scope of operation, but both contribute to the spiritual and social life of the campus. The Young Men’s Association is primarily designed to meet the needs of the males, while the Young Women’s Association caters to the female students. Both organizations play a crucial role in providing a platform for students to engage in community service, develop leadership skills, and strengthen their faith.

Achievements—Are the Christian Associations important to campus life? This can be best answered by a review of the program. What would this year have been if we had had: “The Big Social Sitter,” where Freshmen and Sophomores worked in the homes of the freshmen? “The Big Social Sitter” took place in the homes of the freshmen. The freshmen were given a tour of the community, and the students were able to interact with the faculty and staff in a more informal setting.

In the respective homes of the freshmen, a tour of the community took place. This was a great opportunity for the freshmen to get to know their new environment and to build relationships with the faculty and staff. Recognizing that the students have already been attending classes and participating in various activities, it was important to provide them with a more relaxed and informal setting to further integrate them into the campus community.

Unbeating some speedy team work, the Greyhounds lost a fast and well-placed game in Franklin on Central's court. In the second half the lead changed hands several times on both sides. Both teams then regained their momentum and the score was tied 22-all and 24-all. EXCHANGE COLUMN

At Evansville College, in addition to the Freshmen Sophomore men's tug-of-war tug-down was held between the girls of the rival classes. What fun! That would be more exciting than to see a squad of boxers pulled into Long Creek. There might be some hair pulling to boot.

The "Ten and Cardinal" of Oterlein College carries a striking bilateral pledge for the periodic test plan to take the place of the final examination. Everyone will admit that cramming and the nervous tension caused by semester examinations do not make for education. Central watches with interest this action taken by her sister college.

"Oterlein's women's Intramural games aroused much interest." We don't doubt it in the least.

A DOLLAR DOWN AND A DOLLAR A WEEK

O, a friend of mine bought a graphophone for a Dollar Down and a Dollar a Week.

"He said, "This is the cheapest graphophone I've ever seen.""

So he bought a graphophone and a pen and a pencil.

A leather chair and a desk and then:

"Are the colors of your famous men for a Dollar Down and a Dollar a Week?"

He bought a suit, a hat and shoes for a Dollar Down and a Dollar a Week.

He joined a club and paid his dues for a Dollar Down and a Dollar a Week.

He bought a ring that was fair to see for the silly white hand of his bride, 10 cents.

Got married and paid the minister's fee for a Dollar Down and a Dollar a Week.

When the baby came, the doctor got a Dollar Down and a Dollar a Week.

My friend, he fed and clothed each tot with a Dollar Down and a Dollar a Week.

At last and his wife, "Just must be free—Things weighings, it's ruining us."

So he got divorce and the alimony went a Dollar Down and a Dollar a Week.
