Central's Local Y. M. C. A. Gospel Team Carries Out Great Work Among Churche

Figuratively speaking, the work of a group of Indiana Central Y. M. C. A. men, we find that they have visited 15 churches, held 30 services, spoken to 3000 people, and conducted 50000 services during this year. TwentY of the total number of churchev involved were United Brethren; there were interdenominational, and the remaining two were of several sects. But the organs which this group of young men, who are a part of their great work, have been sent, are not to be measured numerically. There is a spiritual value behind all of their work, and the heritage of the church which the boys represent.

The Theacollosian Literary Society has scheduled Thursday night, March 15th, for an "old-fashioned box supper" to be held in the college gymnasium at seven-thirty. The members of the society will be prepared to entertain the guests, and will serve a delicious box of eats and they are presently doing other- club members. Junior or Senior, to come and enjoy a great evening. The entertainment of the evening shall be the men of the society. They are invited to come and enjoy a great evening. The entertainment of the evening shall be the men of the society. They are invited to come and enjoy a great evening.

Social Calendar Includes Class Parties Tonight

Although the social calendar for the month of March is not entirely clear, the following events of interest, the four classes have taken advantage of the one open date and have planned their parties for the same evening. The classes have planned their parties to be of different dates that conventional places may be secured to suit the plans of each group.

The Seniors have planned an Irish dinner party to be held in the dining hall at seven o'clock. The table decorations will be Irish in nature and the program of the evening will consist mainly of Irish songs. Some freshmen have been planned for the Juniors. This will be held in the social room of the new hall. Paulson, Junior or Senior, to come and enjoy a great evening. The entertainment of the evening shall be the men of the society. They are invited to come and enjoy a great evening.

The Freshmen will have their annual class party on the "Land of Shakespeare," and will carry out the Irish scheme. A "old party" has been planned for the Juniors. This will be held in the social room of the new hall.

The gymnasium of the school building has been secured by the Sophomores. They will stage a St. Patrick's party with a program for fun for all.

The Freshmen have taken charge of the college gymnasium and have planned a great party. All will be dressed in their "oldest and most ragged clothes," and all have their "amusin' angles," the evening's entertainment will consist of games, music, and plenty of eats.

Local Talkers Win Five Victories for Central

Men and Co-Eds Teens Have Won Five Out of Six Debates So Far This Term

CO-EDS COMPLETE THEIR SEASON

The girls of I. C. C. completed their debating season with a final winning record of five out of six debates. The debate team won the decision over the negative team from Earlham. With this decision came the third victory of the year, and capped the season without going down to defeat.

Three debates were scheduled by Coach Horn- er for April 1st. The negative team met Earl- ham's affirmative team on Monday, February 21st. Central's Two of the three judges rendered the decision in favor of the negative team, composed of Miss Mason, Prenter and Taylor. The debate was on the subject of dis- cussing the debate in spite of the fact that they had the harder side of the question, and the judges recommended them too highly.

Butler's negative team met at the hands of our affirmative team on Wednesday, March 2nd. Professor Otto of Shortridge High School, was employed as a critic judge. So the decision was justified, and the affirmative were given all the credits in the debate. In spite of the fact that she was actually ill and consequently working under a handicap, Miss B. E. Taylor, the visitor from Earlham, was given all the credits in the debate for her ability to changes from the argu- ment to the debate and back again.

The team which met the Earlham team Wednesday night of this week was composed of the members of the debate team, and the debate was telescoped for the fall of the year. The visitors from Earlham were the Misses H. B. Swanson and W. P. "Judge," who commented that the debate was both close and interesting.

Y Installation Service Best in History of I. C. C.

The annual Installation Service for the Y. M. C. A. to be held Wednesday, March 2, in the Chapel Auditorium. In a joint meet- ing of the old and new members of the "Y" cabinet and the day was a success of the most impressive of this year's gatherings.

After a profit of almost the professional was played, at which time the last year's cabinet entered. Mr. H. C. E. Brue, the retiring Y. M. C. A. presi- dent, delivered a message to the outgoing members, while Miss Jennings, retiring Y. M. C. A. presi- dent, delivered a message to the new members. Special music was rendered by Miss White and the Gospel Team quartet. Probably the most impressive part of the service was the candle lighting ceremony for the incoming members, followed by the reception of endorsements. James Hawthorne, the new Y. W. presi- dent, gave the answering response for new officers.

Mr. W. W. Mendenhall, state student Y. M. C. A. secretary, delivered the address of the evening, which was one of inspiration to the "Y" workers and their friends.

This installation service was without a doubt the best service of its kind that has occurred in the college this year. Too much credit cannot be given to Miss B. E. Taylor, President, and Mr. James Weber, ex-developmental chair- man, who planned the impressive program for the occasion.

Professor Blackburn contributes article to History Magazine

Article Published in March Issue of "Current History" Concerning Irish Free State.

Glen A. Blackburn, professor of history, Indiana Central College, recently contributed an article to the "Current History" magazine. The article concerned the Economic Development of the Irish Free State, and was published in the February issue. It is another article dealing with the political phase of the same topic by St. Alsat, in the "Atlantic".

Professor Blackburn has been head of the History Department at the College for five years. He was graduated from Indi- an Central in 1923, and became a member of the faculty. He did graduate work at Indiana Uni- versity in 1923, and spent the summer of 1924 working for his doctor's de- gree, and during his life of six years he has attended Indiana University, where he prac- tically completed his studies for a Ph. D. degree in 1927.

Professor Blackburn is now writing his doctor's thesis, and will do re- search on the subject of the Irish Free State. For this thesis he is preparing a book on the life of John Tipton, who is the author of the article mentioned above.
The Million Dollar Campaign

OUR PRESIDENT SAYS:

Wabash and Logerorth Churches Also Combine Efforts

Rev. W. H. Todd of Terre Haute First Church reports pledges amount to $1,064 over his church's goal. He said that it was no surprise to him, the church, and her young people. Rev. E. T. Todd of Logerorth Church also reported that his church received $1,064 to date.

This is a great leadership and a consecrated task, together with the others on the part of the youth, making the cause, men victory. The work is not completed even at these charges, since some delayed making their pledges till later.

Many other victories are being reported, and success, when under the solicitation of Rev. T. R. and the effective full of the Plesmey, Rydaender and Kroup is contributing mightily to success.

Let all the church pray for full victory.

Bishop Fog.

A NEW CRUSADE

In some respects the present year will be the most memorable in the history of our work in Indiana, Illinois, and Wisconsin. We may not be able to fully appreciate how directly the success of the present college campaign is related to the future progress of our work in this great and influential territory.

The present situation seems to call for the procuring of a new crusade with at least three outstanding features.

First, a definite and clear-cut goal; a crusade that will come to the church and to the world through the Methodists.

Second, a crusade of a new type. Methodism is on the level, and the world is on the move. Methodism must come and bring the world.

Third, a loyalty to the church, with the methods of the crusade. Church, growth and influence as well as the one hundred thousand members in the cooperating territory of the college into a solid phalanx, and send them with irresistible momentum to the accomplishment of the task.

DR. LAKE, PRESIDENT BOARD OF TRUSTEES, SAYS:

There is no more important interest to Methodists than that of the United Brethren Church in Indiana, the territory ideals of the Central College.

Will our loyal church people daily give and live in this crusade as never before to any interest of the church.

Surely the young people of our church are as worthy as any denomination, and certainly all want them to have the same advantages to secure a college education as may be afforded to any.

Supt. BECHTOL OF WISCONSIN, SIN CONFERENCE SAYS:

A duty and privilege confers the United Brethren churches of Wisconsin, to support and carry out this crusade.

Let all members and friends of our Central College offer a daily, and expanded fund for Indiana Central College.

The need of a standard, strong, Christian, denominational college is in the territory very evident.

This is our church duty to support the fullest and most valuable institution that victory may be assured.
MOMENTS WITH MUSIC

Thursday, Mar. 2, was again music day for the students of Indiana Central College when they heard Illinois McFarland, young American composer, sing two negro spirituals, "Go Down, Moses, and "Deep River," both of which were accompanied by Delvah Shaw.

McFarland played a valet for the orchestra, and Miss Althea Fosh sang "Dawn," by Blanche Deustch, which was also accompanied by Hilda Goot.

The Indiana Central Band gave a program of spirituals and songs of the Negro race Tuesday night, Mar. 1. They were assisted by Miss Clara Chrysler, who accompanied the bands on the piano and Miss Delvah Shaw as her accompanist.

Russell Ford broadcasted from WFEZ again last Wednesday night, Mar. 1, for the benefit of the Indiana Central Band. He was accompanied by J. B. Shaw and Esther Leatherman, with violin and accompaniment.

They sang "When They Ring Those Golden Bells," "How Lovely Are Thy Doings," by Lillieth, and "Resignation.

A quartet composed of Kenneth Krenzer, Karl Lemme, Karl Parsons and Vere Vanouck, broadcasted last Monday night, for the benefit of the Presbyterian Church.

Mrs. J. D. Treadway, of Valparaiso, is a member of the Board of Directors of the Indiana Central Band.

Edith Foster was one of a group of students representing the United States in the American National Music Festival at the University of Michigan. She was a member of the Chamber Orchestra of Wisconsin, and was accompanied by Miss Florence Mason, and one for Manchester.

Our negative team, composed of Ivan Hession, Marcella Pyke and Florence Smith, and the affirmative members, Harold Ashbrook, George Voiles and John Smith, have been debating for two weeks, and hope to make the rounds at Central.

Last week our negative team brought back a unanimous decision from Terra Haute. The judges of that meet were professors from the University of Chicago and Indiana University.

Miss WEISMANN — HAS LEADING ROLE IN PLAY AT LITTLE THEATRE

Mrs. Weismann, head of the journalism department of Indiana Central College, played the leading role of Daisy Davenport in the popular play, "The Adding Machine," at the Indiana Little Theatre last week.

The advertisement promised that the audience would be entertained, and the audience was there to enjoy the play, but we all backing this group for the victory which they are going to win next fall, the affirmative team.

SEVEN GREYHOUNDS AWARDED VARSITY "G" FOR REPRESENTING OUR COLLEGE

Central and Bright received honorable mention; all are underclassmen.

Seven men, all freshmen and sophomores, will be accorded the honor of wearing a Varsity "G" for representing Central on the hardwood during the season that just closed. These men are: Bright, Bailey, and Vance (guards); McNamara, Dabbitt, and Smith (forwards). These seven are the men who have best contributed to Central's greatest basketball year. This year's senior team was the best that Central has ever had and Bright received honorable mention for his good work this year as far as

So far as Central fans are concerned, there is only one basketball team in Indiana. While the Greyhounds have had three strong teams in the last three years, in points to none teams this year, yet there is no team that can truthfully say the games, if it wasn't for some one's misfortune, or plays a closer brand of ball than does. Central and Crestd. After all is said and done, the teams must have played in four games won and lost that should mark a team's success. Just the close, hard-fought and the sportsmanlike attitude displayed by the team both on and off the floor. Just by these standards one can truly say that Central's record is nothing to must be made of the men on the squad who fought just as hard as any of the players. No one that Central might put out a good team this year. The scrubs and second string men deserve just as much credit for a successful basketball season as anybody. About the strength it's a mighty poor varsity. All of these men, with but two or three exceptions, are freshmen and sophomores and have at least two years in high school which to work in varsity form.

GREYHOUNDS EVEN SCORES WITH HUNTINGTON, 47-47.

Central evened scores with Huntington, two weeks ago, when she dropped the deciding game to the tune of 47 to 47. The game was close and fast, with Huntington holding a slight edge for the majority of the minutes in the game. Bright led in scoring with seventeen points. Bright was "hot" every minute of the game and showed some unusual sportsmanship and basket shooting. Bailey was not far behind with six points from the floor. McNamara, the star forward for the second team, played a bang-up game at floor guard.

GREYHOUNDS DEFEAT THE PHY EDS ON THEIR FLOOR, 82-79.

N. A. G. U. again acknowledged the obvious superiority of the central boys, when the local crew of net spunders defeated the Phy Eds on their floor, 23 to 21. The issue was not long in doubt after the start of the game.

Congress scoring ace, Bailey and Bright, took the honors of the evening with six field goals each.

CENTRAL'S TENNIS SCHEDULE

"It won't be long now." This is the slogan of the tennis stars as they patiently await the warm weather in order to loosen up their muscles. Only three men are left from last year's star-studded roster and Robert and Paulson have graduated, while Tom's Cork and Holdsworth have dropped out.

France, Marshall, and Carl Parsons are the only regulars left from last season. The showing made by Ellis, Bearden, Asian, and Bland last fall has increased the fans in believe that they will be strong contenders for spots on the team. Four meets have been scheduled and there are still a few more open dates.

Scheduled meets:
April 15, Terre Haute State Normal.
April 26, Franklin (here).
May, Terre Haute State Normal.
May 15, Franklin (here).

SUMMARY:

By: Say, you know my girl is so dumb that she thinks a door step is a new dance step.

By: Hey, we're in the College. Where are the others?

By: Oh, those were all the new girls.

By: Doesn't seem to have my Ford inspected.

Noting: I am going to inspect mine, too.

BASEBALL SCHEDULE

Coach George is looking for baseball players every week and about this time next week we may field a team. This year Coach George will be the manager of the varsity team. The players are the freshmen material and hope to develop a strong team.

There are a few lettermen out fighting for positions on the varsity. The regular infield is intact and the only problem that Coach George will have to face is the development of an outfield.

Three outfielders are lost to the team, two graduated and one is joining the following regulars have reported for practice: Herrin, Hanson, Bailey, McCray, Harvey, Pavao, Dosa, Bailey, and Brown.

One of the best features of the team is the solid hitting, with the one or two men that have the ability to win games.

WILL HIRE: Two men for the varsity team. Names of those interested will be sent to the head coach.

Across the state the varsity team is shown in the press with the following teams:
