OPEN AT LOCAL CHURCH

College; Students; Assists.

The University Heights United Brethren Church. Under the leadership of the Rev. W. R. Montgomery, is holding a revival, lasting from Monday, Jan. 19, to Sunday, Feb. 1. The meeting will be open to all students.

Every lecture is free. All girls in the college, and boys taking the courses, are invited to attend all the lectures, although they are given primarily for the students of the college. The faculty or community may attend. This course is being given in many of the local churches and is closely allied with the work of the college. The azimuths of the state, and is generally valuable to all students.

MUMP—HAVE YOU HAD THEM ON BOTH SIDES?

Have you had the mumps? Better watch out if you haven’t.

Just recently an epidemic of mumps has broken out at Indiana Central College, and each day new "out of order" signals appear among the rescued unsuspecting students. The illness, which is spread by the "aircraft" method, is with a cured severity that is appalling, leaving a trail of blasted hopes and swollen jaws.

Three of the latest victims are Dave Vance, Frank McHatton, and Walter Hulett, all of whom have left their beds in search of a cure. Many students have been so swelled up themselves for a long time.

We sincerely trust that the boys will bear their tribulations with that calm and serene manner which is expected of us. We must remember that each life some rain must fall. That mustard won’t stretch, so keep smiling and think about how bad it might be if your girl had it, too, and couldn’t come to see you.

Committee’s Choice For New Y. M. C. A. Pres.

The President’s Message

GRADES

In looking over the grades at the end of a semester, it would seem that some of the young people on the campus need to reflect on the question as to whether or not they are students, for it is usually the case that those who make 100% percentages are the ones who have a real desire to secure education and are not on "honesty" for other purposes. Unfortunately, it is not possible, in the college, to determine which of the young people will persist in education with reasonable zeal. The college authorities are willing and eager to help all of those who want to make a success of college life, and sometimes "lone students" are tolerated to continue on after year after year for the only reason that they are merely making grades to remain in college if they are intellectually lazy, or if they lack the ability to do the college work.

When the examinations are completed, the college students will have an opportunity to decide what they wish to do. Those who desire to continue in college work will have an opportunity to do so. Those who do not wish to continue in college work will have an opportunity to do so.

The college students, therefore, have an opportunity to decide what they wish to do. Those who desire to continue in college work will have an opportunity to do so. Those who do not wish to continue in college work will have an opportunity to do so.

Committee’s Choice For New Y. W. C. A. Pres.

The President’s Message

The college is designed to be a place for the young people to meet the young people who elect them to the committee for the Y. W. C. A. The college is not designed to be a place for the young people to meet the young people who elect them to the committee for the Y. W. C. A.

EIGHTEEN WEEKS IN MID AIR

Eighteen Weeks In Mid Air

President God and Faculty Members Attend.

President Wyma entertained in honor of Indiana Central College debating teams Saturday evening, January 11. A table was prettily decorated with flowers in the college dining hall, and a three-course dinner was served to the debaters who had just returned from the state tournament.

Members of the teams who were present were: Hope Taylor, Margarette Breckshmidt, Clara Fair, Wiola, Minnie, Katherine Sims, Earl Farley, Laura Johnson, and Clarence Bullen. Other guests were: President and Mrs. God, Dr. and Mrs. Reardon, Mrs. and Mr. Montgomery, Miss Virginia and Miss Martha Crawford, Miss Holladay and Miss Stewart.

After the dinner President God addressed the group, followed by several other speeches by faculty members and debaters.

NEW STUDENTS ENROLL; FORMER STUDENTS RETURN

Immediately after the final examination period of the first semester, the procedure of registration for the second semester was enjoyed by the students.

Permits were given to register at 9 a.m., but the classrooms were all filled by a large hour Friday evening.

Some familiar faces were missed on the campus, and these were missed. In the rush of the new students, no one noticed the faces of those who departed with the semester, nor was there any notice of the faces of those who returned.

Those who recently graduated are: John O’Connor, Indianapolis; Theodore Lavelle, Frankfort; Artile Valls, Hillsboro; Ralph Harrison, Plainfield; Alice McGee, Whitehall; Jasper Good, Columbus; Clarence Brown, Marion, Groveville, Ill.; and Maynard Mylin, Marion, both former students who have returned this semester and expect to complete the four-year course.

GREYHOUND DEBATERS WIN DOUBLE VICTORY OVER EARLHAM CO-EDS

Philippine Independence Subject of Contest.

UNANIMOUS DECISION FOR I. C. C.

The Greyhound debaters, including the affirmative team composed of the Missus Hope Taylor, Alvita Helle and Wenda Dungan, and the negative team, with Margarette Breckshmidt, Vivian Mosher and Clara Proctor, won an unusual victory in the intercollegiate debate over the Earlham debaters of Indiana Central College and at Earlham.

In surveying the records of the debaters in the past twenty years, it was found that, for the first time, the Girls’ team had won two five-minute speeches for Indiana Central on the same evening.

The affirmative Greyhound debaters, composed of Misses Hope Taylor, Alvita Helle and Wenda Dungan, debated the Earlhamites, the Missus Ruth Jedward, Elizabeth Hayes, Ray Zorn, and the Earlham College, January 11. An estimable audience of more than two hundred filled the Earhart Community Room.

The inspiration of those gowns came from islatedahl., and the activities from the search.

Miss Trompeter chooses the fiftieth colored for the wedding gown. This new is suitable for the Miss or Mrs. as modeled by Mother Nature herself, and will stand up to the wear and tear.

The dress itself is in a natural shade of cream. A deep border of white trimmed with blue ribbons adorns the front of the gown. There has been a problem of his college class for the past two years.

Mr. H. D. Gillis was selected as the advisor for the Y. M. C. A. The Y. M. C. committee adjourned after nominating a faculty advisor.

COME ON, WHITE RIVER

The reports from our territory are very gratifying to us. Many of the churches carrying the heaviest loads, are doing the best. Our splendid college is growing in favor with the people. As our constituency comes.

There is every reason for believing that we shall bring the brightest blessings upon our lives by sharing with others, what we have been given. Let us do our best.

What conference has made greater strides this year? The conference of the Indiana Methodist Church, which has been so successful.

QUAKERS TRIP CENTRAL WITH STALLING ATTACK

The Eastern Quakers displayed a brilliant performance and defeated the Greysounds 20 to 12 at Eastern Thursday night.

The Quakers scored three points in the first half and then they stalled for thirteen minutes before Central tied the score. Dememy and Fox sank a couple of long ones, giving Central a 3 to 5 lead at the half.

In the second half the Quakers came back strong. After a fast breaking defense they ran the score up to 22 to 12 and then stalled the last five minutes.

GREYHOUNDS WINS FIRST GAME FROM HILLTOPPERS

The Greysounds were the first game of the season when they defeated the Hilltoppers 21 to 19 on the Central basketball courts, Thursday night.

The game was snow and uninterest- ing. The half ended 18 to 14 Central. In the second half the Greysounds held the Hanover crew scoreless for the first ten minutes. Coach Hames then sent in a new team that pulled up the game, but they were unable to correct the offense of the fast traveling Greysounds.
