STUDENTS MAKE OHIO VISIT, BROADCAST PROGRAM FROM COLUMBUS

Otterson Home Included in Trip; Barrick Makes Talk; Quartet Sings at Wedding

Five Coeds Are Visitors

Last Friday the Dacon Gospel Team, consisting of Milford Barrick, Kirkhart Staff, John Thompson, and Walter Harris, made a trip to Dayton, Ohio. Friday they gave a program at Franklins church near Columbus, and then continued to Dayton the next morning.

During the day the quartet visited the famous Dacon Theological Seminary, the U. S. building, the Otterson Press, where small Bibles are printed and published, and then the Otterson Home. In the evening they were invited to the home of the "Heiners" of the Home five, and later gave a regular program of gospel singing for the history and program of the Home five.

The contest was conducted under the auspices of the Indiana Council of Interracial Organizations. Miss Evelyn Rice of Lebanon, won first prize of the $100 prize money, which was a surprise to the home. Dick Jones of Portage won second prize of $50, and Justin Silverthorn of Bloomington won third prize of $40.

The three, winners will also receive scholarships at any one of several Indiana colleges and universities, including DePauw, Franklin, Manchester, Indiana Central, Eastern, Hanover and Evansville.

CLASS OF 1927 PRESENTS STAGE CURTAIN TO SCHOOL

The class of 1927 presented a beautiful stage curtain to the school, a week ago next Sunday. The curtain was painted with a style suitable trimmed in gold fringe, with a "1927" in the center of it. The sides of the curtain bore the names of the class of 1927. The curtain has added to the appearance of the auditorium. The curtains are buying material similar to the curtain to be placed around the stage to be placed around the stage.

Lynn Turner was chairman of the committee which decided on the class gift. Miss Rocke, secretary of the National Theatre Company, among others who have been connected with the college by classes are the water fountain, the bells and the light on the front entrance to the administration building.

Orrville Gibson was the guest of Clore Quackenbush at Orleans.

I. THE PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Mother's Complaints About Son

Recently a mother complained that when her son came home after four years of college he seemed to have lost all respect for the church and was apparently ready to accept any questionable philosophy polling into his life. Although he has a good attitude in high school and is interested in the activities in high school, he in failing to act as a good student has lost one of his highest responsibilities.

There is no greater need among college students today than encouragement in right conduct. There is no question that all college students do the church and definite religious convictions. Any individual can afford to regulate his life in such a way as to increase his own spiritual stability and encourage others to accept and continue in the principles for which the church stands.

2. Picture of Moral Waste

Certainly; the teachers and others who go out from Christian colleges are expected to take places of responsible leadership in their local churches. Much depends on the attitude of the church toward the home of the church, the Sunday school, the church committees, and the church. COLUMBUS, O., Feb. 23 - "Sneakers," the play for the Junior Temple Players, under the direction of Marion Ponaroff, is preparing a hilarious plot, to be presented Tuesday, February 23.

Detective REBECCA D. "Susie" WELLS, played by Lila Jane Kaldenberg, is on the case of a missing shoe. With his usual brand of humor, Susie takes over the investigation with such skill that she eventually solves the mystery.

The play opens with a comic scene in which the shoe, which is the key to the mystery, is found in the shoe store where it was stolen. The audience is treated to a series of humorous situations as Susie and her classmates try to unravel the mystery. The play ends with a hilarious conclusion, leaving the audience in stitches.

The Greyhounds lost another heart- breaking game against the Cardinals last Wednesday night and now are in a desperate situation to stay alive in the conference. Due to a series of injuries and illnesses, the team was shorthanded, and the Greyhounds lost the game 81-77.

CHESTERS' DEFENSE TOO MUCH FOR GREYHOUNDS

After playing a hard-fought game with Huntington on Friday night, the Greyhounds invaded the Marshall University campus on Saturday and were handed a 1-13 defeat at the hands of the Thundering Herd. Pete Bailey was the only Greyhound who found the basket.

CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATIONS CLOSE YEAR; INSTALLATION ROOMS

The Y. M. C. A. and the Y. W. C. A. have cooperated in several outstanding projects. The bringing of Rev. A. J. Thomas, and Rev. Dr. S. W. F. Bishop, to our campus were two of the greatest achievements of the year. Both organizations joined in several projects, and the end result was a beautiful and well-kept campus. The money raised from various events will be used to continue the work of the associations.

Friday night the Greyhounds meet West Virginia University at 9, and it is hoped that the Greyhounds will come away with a victory.
