"A Call For You"

"A call for loyal soldiers comes for one and all..."

And when a call for loyal, willing reporters for The Reflector came to the Freshman class recently, a small troop of qualified, able writers answered the plea. The Freshmen. Thank you for showing us that you have started college life on the right foot, with scholarly and school spirit both intact. However, all places on The Reflector are not yet filled. Sports writers who know a half-back from a green, and demand and deserve to get all activities on the Campus covered satisfactorily and completely, but best reporters are needed also. The staff is just getting started. Organization is still underway; changes are being made constantly. The next issue of the publication is slated for Oct. 14. The call is still being voiced. If you want to answer it and be a "Reflectorite," attend the staff meeting Tuesday, Sept. 23, at 7:30 p.m. Be a part of the school by working with us!

Ginger Is Back Again

Dear Kids... Freshmen too,

It's good to see you all back and so many new faces on Campus! Hope you had an interesting summer. A word of warning to all Freshmen—if you do anything stupid, report it to the Reflector Office. You can't hide from the Freshmen! Answer the next issue without your consent or even knowledge. We don't like to be partial about this column, in fact, we don't care for the name "Freshman Fiend" if you don't give the information to us, we'll find a way without your help. So...

Father's Day...

During the doubling of the Green Bennies, senior Jackie, Smith and her father each Freshman in his heart. One male Fresh namely Bertram,Birthday, 6%. When asked if he were sure, he answered, "I'm sure! So, you mean my dad hasn't swelled yet!"" Noinations, Jackie! Call the Doctor...

An upperclassman was heard to comment that Prof. Gerald Boyce was getting too absent minded that he'd lose his head if it wasn't fastened on. Immediately another voice chimed in, "Yes, I understand. He's missing this summer for his lungs." - That one was pretty, deep, wasn't it, reader?

Senior Don Pflachler: "I have a sliver in my finger."

I hope you upperclassmen won't mind this column devoting so much time to the Freshmen, but isn't it proper that they should have a vague idea of what's coming off? We try to be nice to them, don't we?

Well, goodbye 'til next month when I'll have another chance to throw some more dandelions... or, I mean bouquets!

BOOK NOOK...

"Wuthering Heights"

Like sister, like sister. In this case, it's true. Both Bronte sisters have written great classics. Charlotte wrote, "Jane Eyre," and Emily, "Wuthering Heights." It seems strange that the latter seems to be the most puzzling and bewildering. "Wuthering Heights" is a story of unbridled passions and violent expressions over which hovers a "horror of great darkness."

The novel, "Wuthering Heights," is bold, wounding, cruel and mysterious, is the most looming one, who dominates the girl he loves, Catherine, with an unfeigned force.

The house, Thornbeck Grange, is the most fascinating to some readers. Under its brooding shadows it assumes almost a human visage from the passions which rage beneath its roof. Some reads feel, "Wuthering Heights" could provide a good reading time to many Centralites.

Success Will Be Up To You—Religion Editor Writes in Feature

by Paul Hunter

Religion Editor

'It doesn't matter what you do, as long as you are successful in your chosen field.

The world is spoken by Socrates or battled. But, instead, they are surrounded by their teacher.

MEDITATION

Any statement about success immediately raises a question —

'What is success? Is it the yardstick for this thing about which we are so greatly con- cerned? Is it a large mansion in a fashionable residential district, a 'shiny' blakie Limousine or an executive position with a leading business establishment? Just what is success, then?'

Definition

Webster says that success is

'shine. 2. Succesful, favor- able conclusion of disposing for or sup- porting.'

We have different ideas. Some of us think that wealth and fame alone do not measure the value of a man's life on earth. Others think that God must have planned

Football Success Hinges On Freshman Players’—Shaw

by Fred Farrell

“The football outlook for the Greyhounds this season depends largely upon the success of the freshmen,” said Coach Dave Shaw. He also said that the freshmen would be a bunch of hard working and hard driving boys with a lot of team spirit.

A lot can be said on the success of this season after this Saturday’s game at Taylor.

This year’s football team is blessed with the talent of a few freshmen, who in high school last year were placed on state and city teams.

Craazy guard Ned Vargo from South Bend Washington, was chosen for the honorary All-State team; Sam Stockhurt, Indianapolis Tech, was chosen center on the North Central Conference honorary team; Dick Nyers, All-City-halfback from Mavall; and Dick Schier, All-City quarterback from Howe.

Poll: Who Impressed You And Why?

Question: Who was the first upperslassman to impress you and why?

Glenn Newton: Alton Hawkins. Cause I go with his sister.

Salty Whitsen: Del Steele. He is my big sis.

Sandra Carson: A1 Officer. He talked to me about coming to Central.

Bill Green Bob Crick. Cause he is a good football player.

Jim Jones: Dave Jones. He is my brother.

Jim Wabert Dave Hilton. He is my dad.

Central Wins Sport Trophy

Indiana Central was awarded the Hoosier Conference All-Sports trophy for the 1951-52 season this week. The Central trophy was awarded by the Conference Policy Committee and approved by the Conference. This makes the second trophy in as many years for I.C.C., this is the way I.C.C. placed last year.

Sixty Grid Men Answer New Coach’s Whistle, Use T-Formalization

by Fred Farrell

Sixty husky athletes answered Coach Dave Shaw’s whistle as it was lowered for opening football practice last year. The 1950 Greyhounds were a second team with a real depth of backs and a size of backs that they can bring into the wing-T to the split T formalization.

Best Bets

Among the best bets to help the ‘Hounds better last year’s my big buddy and is very active at Central. Very consistent too, too.

Beverly Walls: Margaret Parshall. She has such a pleasing smile.

Diane Jenkins Joan Baldwin. She seems to be an energetic for such a small girl.

Allega Youngi Herm Emmert. That voice of hers!

Jean Coller: Tom Jenkins. Cause I go steady with him.

Ronnie Weaver: Minli. Cause he was so willing to help out and he is so friendly.

Hey Girls! Only 139 More Days!

Girls—and women too!—

Casting Hawkins is now four months and nineteen days away. Any self-respecting gal should be ready to roll with at least a good start behind her.

How about the girls’ sports teams in the fall, sportsmanship involved in the game and the shape for The Stand? Then, throughout the long winter months, to have a team in a bug-in-a-rug with the knowledge of safety making a man in February on that all-important day.

Get In Shape! Women’s sports will start again in a week or two. If field hockey, soccer or tennis teams take the girls in shape, running or folk game will. Either way, in the girls’ activities. The Press-Journal is a successful run is almost guaranteed.

Hey Girls! your activities are especially invited to come out and survey the “situation.” Your coach, your coach, your coach. She will have information on what activities will best help them catch a man. The Press-Journal is here. Feb 9, 1953 will be here, you know it—and also time for the Press-Journal is a quiz or rather snatching! Last year a few runners were out just when the fooling was going on. In the game of running, wind and breath is as important. And if two girls are advised to try holding their breath for a few hours each morning when first arising.
