MERRY CHRISTMAS!!

THE SHARP MEMORIAL POLIO DRIVE JAN. 9-12

The Sharp Memorial Polio Fund Drive at Indiana Central College will be launched Jan. 9 in a special chapel program.

The drive, sponsored by The Reflecter and Student Council, will comply with the Methodist-Indianapolis Central Indianapolis basketball game with a coin blanket toss between games.

Reflecter committee members include Etta Preston, Al Harding, Paul Hunter, Virginia Hazen and Mary Kay Herr. Student council members include Hunter, Ron Haurwald, Edie Cox, Jackie Smith and Prof. Paul Pielmeier, faculty sponsor.

Staff members who will conduct the blanket toss are Harding, Fred Parrell, Rachel Wilson, Ron Weaver and Dave Mouser.

Hunter and Miss Cox attended the Midwest Associate Blanket Drive banquet last week at the Lincoln Hotel.

Funds will be collected on a class competitive basis and will be displayed each day after chapel, Jan. 9, and all day Monday, Jan. 12.

"It is true that the students at Indiana Central realize how important this drive is." Miss Preston, a former polio victim herself, said. "and will give as much as they can."

This year the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis requested that all colleges and universities have similar drives. This is the first actual Polio Fund drive at Indiana Central College.

NEW ART CLUB FORMED AT ICC

A new organization has been formed on campus, The Art Club, which will meet on the first and third Tuesday of each month. It is a club for those interested in making things. It is open to all art students.

"A room was set up in one corner of the cafeteria for the club," said Mary Schubert, who attends for the club. "We are doing simple things, such as making envelopes and models in clay and plaster of parts."

"Perhaps you don't have to artistic, and it's lots of fun," insist the members. "The club is planned to be a social club for art students, so that they can meet and do social things, such as having potlucks, and field trips to Chicago, St. Louis, or Cincinnati."

Dorothy Steele Elected Business Club Prexy

Dorothy Steele, a junior, was elected president of the Business Club recently, with Tom Yelich chosen as vice-president. Carolyn Jones was elected secretary, and Evelyn Miskel, treasurer.

"The third Thursday of the month, the club is open to anyone interested in business news, and problems."

"Polio Can Strike You Too!"

This year, when science was making its most historic strides toward polio prevention, the disease struck with force unparalleled in American history.

This year has witnessed a "tug-of-war" between epidemiology and control, which only a smashingly successful March of Dimes this January can decide favorably.

At Indiana Central College, The John Sharp Memorial Polio Fund Drive, monogrammed "J.S.," is The Reflecter and Student Council, will open January 9 in chapel.

"Won't you help some other student with polio come back to college? Give to The Polio Fund Drive at Central!

Hilton Wins Contest

Dave Hilton, senior, won an essay contest sponsored by The Student Christian Society. He will receive all of the organization's periodical publications, valued over $100. Hilton will read his essay, "Find the truth of the New Year," on Jan. 16, and was elected to membership in the society.

"Christmas is More Than Sentiment,--President"

by President J. LeRoy Koch

Each year for nearly two thousand years, men have commemorated the birth of Jesus of Nazareth. Around this event of the year, the Divine Child we have built many traditions and beautiful sentiments. In reality, Christmas comes to the world aware of the possibility of the incarnation into human life of the spirit of God: a spirit which challenges man to rise above the level of the beast of his relations with his fellowmen and learn the joy and satisfaction which comes with sharing life.

The late Rein Pulkemeyer of homely, philosophical fame had a cartoon caricature of an hour glass - on which he placed a corruption of the familiar Latin axiom so that it read, "Tempus Fugit." It seems to depict the spirit of our age. At least in a remarkably short time a year has gone by and the hallowed season of Christmas is with us again.

May Christmas this year be meaningful to each one of us, not alone because we journey to, and worship before, the Bethlehem manger. May it be because we take into our hearts this idea and determine that in the year ahead we will more fully share life in the service of our fellowmen. That is the real spirit of Christmas. May it be yours in a full measure to bless and hallow your life and bring you increasing joy and happiness throughout the entire New Year.
Seniors

Ewert, Coed — White, Ed

Margaret Ewert has found the man for her, but J. C. White is still searching for the right Miss (or rather Miss). Margaret has stars (or a soldier) in her eyes and a diamond on her finger. Robinson '32 is the guy making payments on the ring.

But the two seniors are alike in one respect. On Central's Campus J. C. and Margaret may be properly dubbed brother and sister. He occupies the presidential chair of Philadelphia-bar, and Margaret holds the title, president-elect of the Phi Beta Kappa.

J. C. better known as Rev. Joseph Clark White to the students conformed of St. Omoh church, is a ministerial student from Colfax, Ind.

He's a guardian too, but not the kind who hunches on shoulders and guards people in the angelship capacity. He's guardian of the Alpha Phi Omega treasury. History is his major and religion, his minor.

President of the Central Ministerial Association, J. C. qualifies as one of the fastest fellows at E.C.C. Cross Country team members elected him honorary captain of the team.

Margaret is pretty of Wilmore Hall and a member of the Queen's Court, and her name is in the alphabetical Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges.

Each school day morning forty voices greet her saying, "Good morning, teacher." Majoring in elementary education, Margaret is student teaching.

Always Remember

Shepherds watch their flocks at night. And all that's heard is the lamb's sorrowful plight. The shepherds hide their sheep in sight.

Silent, silent is the night. Suddenly a host of angels is heard on high. A beautiful star fills the sky. The Lord is come, the mountains ring with joyous cry. And the angels sing on high.

Many little by a small manger. Gifts are presented to the small stranger. Wise men, poor men fearing no danger. Come and kneel and worship by the manger.

Years and years have passed since that night. But do not put it out of mind or sight.

Be happy, be sad, be bright. But always remember that Holy Night.

The Gibson and Johnson skating vanities will be in Indianapolis Dec. 28-31. There will be a combined company show in the roller skating rink. Something like Arthur "Garbage" Godfrey's ice shows. It's at 8:30 p.m. nightly.

Platter fans, note: "Two to Tango" (tango) and Buddy DeFranco's "Carioco." What's all this talk about someone kising Santa Claus anyhow?

Those interested in appearing on the television show on Christmas eve should prove interesting, and certainly worthwhile. Most of the regular TV shows do plan special Christmas shows.

Record of the Month: "Why Don't You Believe Me" by Don Cornell (shocked by popular demand) and the old favorite "White Christmas."

How about a good book over the holidays? Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year—and I hope you get just what you want for Christmas.

Leave Christ In Christmas

by Paul Hunter, Religious Editor

Merry Christmas Happy New Year! The time of year has come when we might expect to see everyone happy and jolly, no Special articles about the season in every newspaper and magazine, and even the stores are decorated with Christmas lights and ornaments. But despite this, there are many who do not feel the spirit of the season. They may be troubled by personal problems or big events in their lives. It is important for us to remember that the true meaning of Christmas is about love and unity.

New Christmas at Central

by Jim East

Christmas at Central means more to me than Christmas anywhere else. It is a time of joy and love, a time when all things seem to be possible. I am grateful for the opportunity to celebrate Christmas at Central, and I look forward to each year with great anticipation.

Malo Lit. Societies

Initiate Members

New members were recently taken into both of the men's literary societies, Pi Kappa Lambda and Delta Lambda. The initiations were held on the evening of December 15th, and the new members were welcomed with a formal dinner and speeches.

Ralph Makes New Year's Resolutions

Always being one to look beyond the present, I'm making my New Year's resolutions early in the year. This year, I plan to:

1. Continue my boycott of Dr. Brooker's classes.
2. Get my wife cooking with old-fashioned recipes, regardless of how it turns out.
3. Attend chapel when I can't watch football on TV.
4. Graduate, in June, if possible.
5. Stay awake in class, most of the time.
6. Lose fifteen pounds before school is out. in June.
7. Be very patient with Kay's driving this year.
8. Get used to being on the parents' side of the fence.
9. In the coming year I hope to improve in chemistry, so I don't impinge me to do otherwise.

Dear Santa,

I know that you probably have been very busy lately getting ready to hand out all the good little toys and gifts, but I want you to bring me something very special this year.

Several boys are going around asking for a lot of items: the "265" Chevrolet that I own and operate, the best of my novels, and so on. Someone even has the nerve to give me "The Wind"! It reminds me of my dog and some of the things I've done in the past. I'm afraid I can't think of anything for you to bring me.

Getting back to Christmas presents, I'm told there is a good buy on a boy's bicycle this year. I want a bottle of Hidalgo to give my car fluid drive. I also want a new pair of gloves and pants and will have floating power again. Thanks a lot for your troubles.

Leroy Kruppa

P.S. Don't forget to step Christmas Eve.

Mr. Stork Gets Workout At ICC

Old Mr. Stork has been getting quite a workout at Indiana Central. He was the last of the three last months, and he is doing a great job.

Three babies were born last month, and one of them was the birth of a baby boy, Michael C. White ('53). The service was read by Al Hawkins, whose young couple is living at 160th St.

Couples Plan

Sadie Clafl and Mr. Copid are both going to be busy individuals over Christmas. Elizabeth Smirle ('52) and John F. Dickey ('21) will marry Dec. 20. Walt Stoltz ('27) and Mary Glasser ('27) are planning to marry Dec. 31. R. Roy C. and Elizabeth D. '52 will marry Dec. 15. The second date. Bruce Hilton ('27) and Ginn-

Dear Santa,

It's not going to be long until you will have a new car, a new car for Christmas this year, another draft deferment and—uh—uh. B average. I've been looking for that car for six Christmas mornings now, so I'm about due for it this year. You've been pretty good about deferments in the past, but I'll still appreciate another one. This year, of course, is special because you can have a horse and a dog again.

The wedding of Mary Kay Hare ('52) and Ralph Horn ('33) was held Dec. 20, in the United Methodist Church. Many Centralites attended the celebration. Virginia Hawn ('53) was bridesmaid, John Alexander ('33) was best man, Robert included John Reed ('32) and J. C. White ('53). The service was read by Al Hawkins, whose young couple is living at 160th St.
