Pictured above are the three IC cheerleaders, Pat Edwards, and Pam Hunt. The trio faithfully follows the Greyhound to nearly all athletic contests.

Heptsters Help Hounds With Better Spirit, Louder Yells

Marlene O'Dell, Ted Creasey Win
1st Prizes In Chapel Seat Drive

Marlene O'Dell and Ted Creasey
were the students with the highest participation drive for the Golden Anniversary Fund, better known as the chapel seat sales drive. Their goal was the sale of 500 seats by the students. Sales brochures, containing the high purpose of the school's expansion program and other pertinent information, and price lists with the drawings of the seats are now available in the main office. The students have been urged to sell as many as possible, and have reported several sales to date.

Hope was expressed by the student...
Butler Rebuttal
Following the announcement that Indiana Central and Butler will renew their football rivalry in the closing game of the 1954 schedule, both local sportswriters were tripping over their speed graphics and beating on their Royal portables in a frenzied effort to prove to their reading audience that Indiana Central was certainly no match for this year’s champions of the Indiana Collegiate Conference.
Central sports fans will recall an editorial concerning the expected rout which Butler would deal Indiana Central when the rivalry was revived in the Butler Collegian and was written by a Mr. Herb Curry, sports editor. In it he made these statements:

1. His acceptance of the challenge but remained Sink.
   that we also dabble in basketball, bashing that we would win the intra-city rivalry of the two schools in that Great Hoosier sport. Indiana Central had a large portion of that total at eight basketball contests and each school has won four.

2. Mr. Hisink promised to do his best toward getting IC on his list of basketball schedules as a part of the bargain. We believe he will make an honest effort, and we appreciate it.

3. The last time IC and Butler met in basketball was in 1934 when the Big Four Stadium in Gary was opened.

4. In any case, in any of the games, we hope the removal of the sports rivalry will promote nothing but good relations between Indiana Central and Butler.

GLEANINGS

FLOWER SHIVER
Her lips quivered as they approached mine. My knees trembled as I looked into her eyes. Her body shook with intensity, and our lips met. My chin vibrated and my body shuddered as I held her.

Moral: Never kiss with the engine running.

A safety sign read: “School—Don’t kill a child.”

Beneath it was a childish scribble: “Wait for a teacher!”

—Manchester Oak Leaves.

LOAF-ER
Husky: “I wonder when you’ll learn to make bread like this!”

Wife: “Probably by the time you make the dough father used to make...”

—Salvage Salvage.

CRAYZ MAN, CRAYZ
A bachelor’s a cryin’ guy and has a lot of fun; He sizzles all the cuties up and nobby Mrs. one.

—Oakland City Collegian.

LOOK, GALAHADS
Do you go before to open the door? Or lag behind if we were blind?

—Manchester Oak Leaves.

DEPARTMENT

Home—the place where you can trust the hash. Airplane ticket—Fly paper.

Airplane ticket—A ditch digger with a college education.

Communist—one who cannot understand why people have something when it can be easily arranged for everybody to have nothing.

—The Accelerator.

UNSEEN FRIEND
I serve a purpose in this school. On which no man can frown—I quietly sit in every class. And bring the average down.

—Detroit Varsity News.

Zopps Will Be Last To Let You Down
Punish podium and new shade of Gosp. This tragedy took place Aug. 22, and now our Ed. and Creed, Chuck and Marg, are Mr. and Mrs.

The Zopps live in Cummins hall where Marg is learning to cook with a spoon in one hand and a Better Homes and Gardens Cookbook in the other.

A third member of the Zopp family is “The Broomer” (a 1929 Ford to most people). Marg says, “It’s more trouble and takes more panicking than ten kids.”

Chuck and Marg are both seniors who someday hope to hang out a shingle reading: C. T. Zopp and Son, Mortuary Assistant: Mrs. C. T. Zopp, R.N.

Right now, Chuck is practicing teaching at Southport while Marg keeps the home fire burning and studies on the side. But even through the terrors of homemaking the Zopps have managed to be active in extra-curricular activities. Marg claims she is a basketball, golf, and track widow, as well as tailor. Besides participating in these sports, Chuck is also an active member of the “G” Association and APO. Marg spends her time with the “ladies” in IAY and Philathetes.

Whither The Four Freedoms?

So far, this year’s freshmen are apart of an age group that does not by any means subscribe to constitutional concepts of human dignity and freedom. Somewhere in this high school, this year’s freshmen and the high school students in the classes behind them have been either misinformed, or not informed at all, about the basic concepts of our way of life.

Proof of this comes in a survey conducted at Punxsutawney University of the high school age group... The results are startling. For instance:

26 per cent of the high school students polled think police are justified in giving a man the third degree to make him talk.

Only 43 said newspapers should be permitted to print the news freely except for military security.

43 per cent said that persons refusing to testify against themselves should either be made to talk or be severely punished.

25 per cent would prohibit the right of people to assemble, peacefully.

16 per cent believe that police should be allowed to search a person or his home without a warrant.

It’s not a healthy situation to have young people rejecting constitutional guarantees of freedom at a time when these liberties are threatened by demagogues and dictators.

—University of Minnesota Daily News.

SNAPS . . . by Ginger

A CHRISTMAS CAROL

"Twas the night before Christmas when all through IC Not a student was studying, not even Ray Lee Books were closed and the bookcase was bare. In hopes that vacation soon would arrive.

When out on the lawn there arose a clatter, Broke rusted from the rail to see what was the matter. When who should come to view the scene, But a miniature sleigh and Dr. St. Clair.

Now David! Now Hendrick! Now Ice Cream and Tally Ho! On Kellogg, on Kent, on Marvin Kneel! To the top of the Ad building to the top of the hall! Now dash away, dash away, dash away all.

So up to the roof top
Like true Cowboy, flower flew, With the sleigh full of P’s and other grades, too.

As he drew in his heels and was turning around, Down the chimney St. Clair fell! He was dressed all in rags from his head to his toe, And his clothes were all furnished; he looked like a schmoe.

When all was said and done, he stopped in his tracks, Ginger once more had lowered his flag. He knew right away he was in trouble.

For Ginger whispered this in his ear, "To all a MERRY CHRISTMAS, And A HAPPY NEW YEAR..."

—Ginger.

Kenton Tops Roof

by Al Offner

Many of us will be going home soon but here are a few items on the Yuletide entertainment schedule.

Screening of "It's a Wonderful Life" is slated for Sat. Jan. 19 at the Indiana Central. Tickets will be sold at the door.

Tickets may be purchased at the Gledys Alves Music Shop or by mail from Bloomington.

Hoping to have a bigger dollar next month, here’s wishing you a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year...

—Al Offner.

And More Gleanings

THE TELEPHONE HOUR

"A displaced sailor was hauled into court for fighting. "Your honor," he told the judge, "I was in a telephone booth talking to a girl. This guy wants to use the phone, so he opened up the door, grabbed me by the neck, and tossed me out of the booth."

"Then you got angry and punched the judge. "Well, a little," replied the sailor. "But I didn’t really get mad until he grabbed my girl and threw her out.""

—The Accelerator.
Christmas Day is coming, the spirit of Christmas is here with all of its mirth and laughter, hustle and bustle, tinsel and snow.

To most of us, this is the outstanding season of the year. The period is a sort of new advent for which we have prepared and all with a hearty smile and a friendly ward. And of course there will be many things to make us desire to become donors and gifts for those in need. But in the midst of this jumble we have lost the true meaning and spirit of Christmas?

The gift of giving is the theme by which thinking about the gifts we give and what are the motives and reasons behind our giving? Do we give because of tradition and social pressure? Are we forced to give? The spirit of Christmas brings to mind that well-loved story by O. Henry, "The Gift of the Magi." Jim, who was a shallow and married couple, Jim and Della, who were so financially poor. As Christmas day drew near, each became perplexed with the problem of giving. Della had one prized possession, her long hair; and in "Christmas and hamburg" said the voice, "Merely Christmas to Americans..."

"I will not lose the spirit of Christmas!"

SIBLE VERSE OF THE DAY

"For unto us a child is born, unto us a son is given, and the government shall be upon his shoulder; and his name shall be called Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace. Of the increase of his government and peace there shall be no end, the house of the tabernacle of your God shall be established forever. We will be glad and rejoiced for you; we will sing praises to your glory." —Isaiah 9:6-7

REFLECTOR Page Three

(Prologue: Many years ago, across the ocean lived a man named Charles Dickens. With a keen eye for observation and a talent for satire, Dickens wrote for the English Embassy, Her Royal Highness, and the British Intelligence Service, this 20th Century version is hereby "Limpus once: Bah! Ho- burgled" ridiculed Scrooge.

"Bell, Bells, bells, both large and small, ring in the Southern highways and handbikes, bah! I hate Christmas!"

"But why, Scrooge?"

"Scrooge turned philosophic. "Why do I hate Christmas?" he said, "Because I am a very selfish man. First of all..."

"Sceptic, Scrooge.""

Della had one prized possession, her long hair; and in "Christmas and hamburg" said the voice, "Merely Christmas to Americans..."

"I will not lose the spirit of Christmas!"

Spirit of Christmas

Best Gifts Are Gifts of Love

by Charles Perkins, Religious Editor

Let's face it, Christmas is here with all of its mirth and laughter, hustle and bustle, tinsel and snow. And of course there will be many things to make us desire to become donors and gifts for those in need. But in the midst of this jumble we have lost the true meaning and spirit of Christmas?

Christmas is a time of giving. We give gifts, meals, and presents to those we love. We give with the hope that our gifts will bring joy and happiness to others. But have we lost the true meaning of Christmas?

The spirit of love. The gesture of love, sold it to purchase a platinum chain for Jim's watch.

"The spirit of love."

"Della had one prized possession, her long hair; and in "Christmas and hamburg" said the voice, "Merely Christmas to Americans..."

"I will not lose the spirit of Christmas!"

Club Notes

Ed Stricker Named Freshman Prexy

Ed Stricker was elected president of the Freshman Class in the election held Dec. 8.

The other class officers are Ben Blackmon, vice president; Ann Perkins, secretary, and Carl Jensen, treasurer; Charles Dunbar was named first-year Council representative. At the last regular meeting of the class on Nov. 22, Martha Quinn, secretary at the First Presbyterian Church in Indianapolis, spoke. She is a member of the Indiana State Teachers Association. Miss Quinn is also the editor of "Indiana Teacher." She is a well-known lady of mankind. May we be willing to take us our cross and fellow them: realizing that this is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever, Amen.

Ring and Rattles

by Nan Lockhart

And another student pastor hit the dustt Martin Kindig, '49, and Darlene Galloway, '49, were married. Nov. 23 in Martin's Church. Darlene is a daughter of Charles and Edna Hiram, of Indianapolis. Jim Smith, '51, was present, and Mrs. Smith was the maid of honor. The couple will reside in Chicago.

Mary Hope To Phi Sig

Dr. Howard D. Magill, head of the department of music, and president of the Phi Sigma Mu, was invited to the Christmas Supper. The fraternity, he was host to the other officers of the fraternity and the Phi Sigma Mu, at the annual meeting Dec. 5. The meeting was held on the ICC campus.

Mary Hope To Phi Sig

Dr. Howard D. Magill, head of the department of music, and president of the Phi Sigma Mu, was invited to the Christmas Supper. The fraternity, he was host to the other officers of the fraternity and the Phi Sigma Mu, at the annual meeting Dec. 5. The meeting was held on the ICC campus.

A Christmas Prayer

We thank Thee that Thy birth was sung by angels to men, and that the light of heaven shone about the heavens then. The light of Thy star still lives on in hearts of faithful men. The glory of the angels' song inspires us now and then.

The sights so beautifully led us to know Thee; and wondrous songs our praises with all their barren free. They could not know long ago, that Christ was born to lead Great nations to the mastery nations earth. That thinking would become more kind and brethren closer be, and worship come from deep within, through faith and loyalty. I often wish I could have seen the star of Bethlehem. And heard the angels when they sang to shepherds that great hymn, "O Little Town of Bethlehem." Or see the Christ Child in His crib, with halot light ground, but then I could not know the joys that from His birth around.

I thank Thee that I live to today to change the ways Of nations plotting monstrous wars to lessen all our days. And let me worship as He taught, that beauty of His star shine through me through my life, year, and spread His glory far.

May the spirit of the angel's song enlighten all I meet To bring His love and light into my life. May His light shine through me, and spread His glory far.

And may my friends to me的朋友 of spirit of gold, or deal pleasant to the Christ Child's heart, as were those gifts of old.

Continue then, to strengthen men, our leaders and their sheep, Give wisdom of Thy loving ways, that all may come to peace; May differences and strife and greed cease conflict in our earth And may we fight against the world, in spirit of His birth.

And may men, triumphant, sing—as angels long ago—"Give glory to our God on high. Our hearts do overflow."

"Peace on earth," we then can sing—as angels long ago—"Good will to men," we end our hearts to all aglow.

"It seems to me I hear far off a great "amaz" come near, And angels dare to join with men."—THE CHRISTMAS CAROL IS HERE.

—Ann (Wertz) Nekken, alums.

with ransburg

1938-39 Butler 67-19
1939-40 32-21
1940-41 Butler 31-25
1941-42 Central 41-37
1942-43 Butler 43-40
1943-44 Butler 42-23

The basketball record stands:

First I’d like to compliment Herb Curry, our editor in conference, trophy to undefeated Kansas, to be returned at a banquet to make the representative from Indiana members: the most valuable game, posting an overall record of 4-1, the Trojans have, an overall record and a 2-0 conference record.

Last Bitch Rally Upsets Normal, 90-89; Robertson Shoots Turn Tricks

Bailey Robertson’s one-hander in the last eight seconds gave the Hounds a 90-89 thriller over Illinois State Normal.

The game was hard fought from the beginning, with IC building a 15-8 lead in the middle of the first quarter and then cutting it to 18-16 at the end of the first quarter. When Bill Miller hit two free throws with 35 seconds left on the clock, the score was 30-24 in favor of the Hounds. Robertson made a 20-foot jumper to trim the deficit to 30-29. Robertson’s three-point play cut the lead even more to 32-29.

In the final period, the Greyhounds had a lead at the end of the first quarter, 32-29, but were unable to retain the lead from the boys from Upland.

The game left Central with a 4-1 overall record and a 1-1 conference record. The Trojans have an overall record and a 2-0 conference record.

Netters 82-75 Victors Over Franklin, Hit .345 From Floor

The IC hardwood squad won its fourth straight game and first Hoosier Conference tilt of the season by defeating the Franklin Grizzlies 82-75 in a home game Dec. 10.

The game was hotly contested all the way. IC jumped to an early lead of 10-4, but the Grizzlies, led by Jim O’Sleky and Chuck Roven, came back in the first quarter, 24-20. In the second quarter, the Hounds were led by Bailey Robertson who scored 17 points in the first half, moved it to a 34-30 lead.

The third quarter was a replay of the first half. The score changed hands several times with the Hounds still leading at the end of the third stanza 63-53. In the final period Franklin closed the gap to three points with three minutes to go, but Central, aided by Jack Rost who pulled up eight points in the final two minutes, went in an 11-point lead and held on for the victory. From the field IC shot .345 compared to .276 for the Grizzlies.

Central Footballers

Get 2 Of 3 Hoosier Spots On AP Hoosier

Two Indiana Central football players, manager Jack Kost, Charles Danke, and Richard Chevrolet, Press All-America football team, was announced by Dale Burgess, AP’s state reporter.

Co-captain Able Carter was named to second-center on the AP poll, while John Hurrie, the other co-captain, received honorable mention in the tackle. The only other Indiana half player to be selected was Stan Husband of Wabash, who received honorable mention at full back.

6 IC Gridders On Dream Team

Six members of this year’s undefeated Greyhound football squad were named to the All-Conference team. Able Carter at center and tackle respectively on the first string, and Dick Myers and Dick Schrier on the first backfield at halfback and quarterback.

Senior Guard Hal Cole and Junior End Buzzy Oldham were nominated to the squad’s second team. Besides Cole, Carter is the only other senior named to the squad. Both Myers and Schrier are sophomores, and Hurrie is a junior classmate of Oldham. Myers and Schrier are both from last year’s team.

The nominations to the squad are made by the coaches of the conference, based on selections by members of their toughest opponents.