Well, this is it kids... what you and I have both been waiting for all year. Here’s the final issue and with it the identity of this columnist. Yep, I’m the one who’s been sweeping up these ‘crummy’ snags, and I only pray you won’t go too ‘voo-doo crazy’ on my picture. Kinda think it’s been really fun, and I hope I’ve managed it that way for you.

One of the funniest things that happened to me was overhearing ‘Phyllis Hinkle’ and “Soppy” Sopke give Ginger Snaps column a real hammering. Well... maybe it deserved it a few times.

News Views and Reviews

by Paul Hunter

Final copies from the notebook of a sanctified soul.

A dead man made most of the news last month, though, as even the country club kids saw. Now the West wants Cousin Chas to be there, and the East wants him in some West country he’s the big man of.

Good question.

In Washington, the story was making the rounds that no longer have histrionic foreign policy, but now triangulista. One for the Repubs, one for the Dems and another for Senator Kasberg. Maybe it’s funny, but we’re sure grin humor. Remember it when the Republicans start nominating some chubs, 1980.

Our state, even still trying to convince the castus that the A-bomb is hot stuff. They handed our nation’s newsmen over to Yurka and showed them Operation Big Puff couple weeks ago, and everybody oohed and ahhh ed, but nobody did any more about it than talk about it. It can’t happen here, said the little man.

The same can’t be said for the news when a few kids who had the shot got polio anyway. The shots were stopped, and the laboratories were excused. Perhaps everybody else for incompetence, etc. etc. Hoop big smoke, but no fire.

200 Miles track got going again, and young likeable Manny Ayala made this year his last trip. The end comes, but he hit the retching wall on one of the burns.

Still sporting that Sam Jones, who’s been kicking around baseball for all these many years, finally made himself look good in a uniform and toured a no-hitter at Pittsburgh. This big fellow did it in his own inimitable way: walking the first three men up in the ninth, then whiffled the next.

Pressing On Toward The Mark

"For our knowledge is imperfect and our prophecy is imperfect; but when the perfect comes, the imperfect will pass away. When I was a child, I spoke like a child, I thought like a child, I reasoned like a child; when I became a man, I gave up childish ways. For now we see in a mirror dimly, but then face to face. Now I know in part; then I shall understand fully, even as I have been fully understood."

"Who has known heights shall hear forevermore

An incommunicable thing

That hurts his heart, as if a wing

Rose and fell, and noise too small.

Well, with this column I close.

Round up with Art Funk

Well, with this column I close out the Greyhound Round-up for the last time. As you have gotten some items of interest out of the column for those who haven’t, just have patience until next September when you will have a new Sports Editor.

In way of thanks, I would like to thank Hallie Musken for the opportunity of serving as sports editor this past year and for the consideration that she has shown in writing until the last minute for the sports page and then taking all the blame from the printers for being late.

Second, I would like to thank Jim, Knight, Bob Thell, Bill Bright, and Keith Slaughter for providing me with some of the material and statistics for the sports page. Third, and last, I would like to thank you kind readers for your compliments (7) and criticisms of the sports page, and hope that each of you get the opportunity some time to try five columns of sportswriting now that a month and a half is about to sound interesting.

Now on with the Round-up: In the bowling department, the league has ended with Seeborn Hillis’ team still on top in the singles, Bil ten team will be presented with the first place trophy by Director Keith Slaughter. Members of the winning team were: Hillis, Don Ross, Ross Flatt, John Morris, and Ron Flatt. Eddleman is already making plans for a bigger and better league next year.

The HCC track picture has finished with the Hounds racing in third behind Hanover and Anderson. I would like to give a word of recognition to Art Taggart, freshman distance star of the IC track team. Art has an inspiration to the other members of the squad as he has run in these events: mile, two-mile, and half-mile in most of the meets. He was responsible for IC finishing second in the Rose Relays when he ran against fresh opponents in three distance events and helped pick up a first and two seconds in the events.

"Congratulations" are in order for the Ennully Oldham, the 1955 winner of the Walter Brandman Award. Bunny has set an admirable example of good sportsmanship, attitude and team cooperation in his four years of sports here at Central. Previous winners of the Brandman Award since it was first in 1934 are Bill Frederick 1948, Manford Kinsley 1949, Pappy Shultz 1950, Orville Younger 1952, Jack Comstock 1952, J. C. White 1953 and Bill Bright last year.

Well, time to pack my tent and slip away in the drifting desert shadows. Here’s wishing all an enjoyable summer and hope each and every one will be back supporting and encouraging our Hound athletic teams for the 1955-56 season.
