Five Will Receive Honorary Degrees At Commencement Exercises June 5

Honorary degree recipients from Indiana Central College will be presented at the 140th commencement exercises June 5. These men are Dr. Wayne E. Babler, Mr. Ralph Babler, Dr. Robert M. Blackburn, Dr. Merrill McFall, and Rev. Virgil J. Hauge.

Wayne E. Babler
Mr. Babler graduated magna cum laude from Indiana Central in 1935 and received a Juris Doctor degree from the University of Michigan Law School in 1938. He has worked in private law practice, served as attorney to the state of Michigan and General Motors Corporation, and taught at the Detroit College of Law.

Dr. R. Nelson To Tour Africa

Dr. Roland T. Nelson, chairman of the history department, has been selected to tour Africa. He will travel to various countries in Africa, including Egypt, Kenya, Tanzania, and South Africa.

C. David Hancox

Rev. Hancox has held positions at the University of Nebraska, the University of California, and the University of Wisconsin. He is currently a professor of philosophy at Indiana Central College.

Dr. Robert M. Blackburn

Dr. Blackburn obtained degrees from the University of Illinois, the University of Wisconsin, and the University of Chicago. He is currently the dean of the school of education and human development at Indiana Central College.

Dr. Merrill McFall

Dr. McFall has held positions at Butler University, the University of Notre Dame, and the University of Chicago. He is currently the president of Indiana Central College.

Rev. Virgil J. Hauge

Rev. Hauge, pastor of Robinson First Church, graduated from Indiana Central in 1933 and from United Theological Seminary in 1938. He is currently the president of the Illinois Conference and the Illinois Conference of Churches.

Dr. Merrill McFall To Speak

At 1966 Baccalaureate Service, the group, consisting of luncheon will be provided. to dates among SPRING OUTING dining room of gram. of chapel and voted on by candidates will be presented in by Lawrence F. Fisher, assistant Illinois, and Dr. C. David Hancox, will be chosen from Dr. Blackburn's recommendations.

Dr. Blackburn has been in Columbus.

This year's commencement will be on May 21, 1966, at 2:00 p.m., with the Baccalaureate Tea on the lawn of the Fine Arts Building. Senior women will be arranging the program. A brief meeting of the Mothers' Association will be held in the gym at 7:30 to 9:15 p.m. Diner will be at 6:15 p.m., in the dining room of the Spencer Center. The May Festival and crowning of the queen will be at 8:15 p.m., in the Ransburg Auditorium. Vivian has announced that the program will involve gymnastic stunts, modern dance, and poetry. The songs are still being planned for the program.

Dennis Stone, junior class president, is lining up queen candidates in Indiana Central's spring outing. The candidates will be presented in chapel and voted on by the student body. Four girls will serve as the queen's court.

SPRING OUTING SET SATURDAY
Shades State Park will be the site of Indiana Central's spring outing this Saturday, May 7. A free bus will carry all interested Centrals to the park, where they will enjoy a day filled with fun and fellowship. A sack lunch will be provided.

Dr. Merrill McFall To Speak

At 1966 Baccalaureate Service, the group, consisting of luncheon will be provided. to dates among SPRING OUTING dining room of gram. of chapel and voted on by candidates will be presented in by Lawrence F. Fisher, assistant Illinois, and Dr. C. David Hancox, will be chosen from Dr. Blackburn's recommendations.

Dr. Blackburn has been in Columbus.
Which Way America?

Which way America? That is the question that I wish to propose to you the students of Indiana Central. You are the future of America and it is up to you to make the kind of country that you want to live in and raise your children in.

For those of you who attended Sing-Out '66 last Friday night, you will know exactly what I am talking about. Seeing 130 college and high school students express in song their quest for a modern America made me and the others who attended the performance really sit back and take a good look at ourselves. What most of us saw didn’t bring about the radiant smile that the members of the Sing-Out cast displayed.

Unbelievable vitality and exuberance are common characteristics of these young adults and it could happen to us. They are no different than we except in one respect. They have a goal; a goal that counts. Following the standards of honesty, purity, unsophistication and love, they are on the line. They are not afraid to work and to win and to work and to win.

As the capital of Indiana, Indianapolis couldn’t be a better place to start a movement such as this. Indianapolis has three good co-ed schools and two prominent extensions. We’ve got the material. We’ve got the need. If you talk to the people who attended the show, we’ve got the spirit.

We can no longer sit in our lethargic little world and criticize our country. We must fight to make it what we want. We’ve got a mighty job to fill. The world’s awaiting to be remade by every gal and guy. Don’t stand still! Don’t stand still! Life’s too short for that!"

---

"Patch of Blue" Moves Unmoved

BY BEV GORBET

A beautiful story, simply told and very human. That is how one woman describes the Academy Award-nominated motion picture starring Sidney Poitier, Elizabeth Hartman and Shelley Winters.

Set in a typical American city, "A Patch of Blue" is an insight and glimpse into the life of Selina, a blind white girl about the age of seventeen. Her "home" is in a section of town next to the railroad tracks between her mother, Roseman, a prostitute, and her grandmother, "O Pa," an alcoholic. Selina loves the park and seems to have the chance to be out-of-doors, although at times the unknown terrors of nature frighten her.

Selina sits under her tree in the park, and Gordon Ralph walks by on his way to do his marketing. Gordon sees Selina, begins to talk with her, helps her with her pictures — something she has never known. Gordon and Selina become friends and, as is natural with two people who find great pleasure in being together, they eventually fall in love.

But society has something to say about Selina's new love. Her mother's biggest symbol of how this new friendship is going to make her is that black man I saw with you!" Yes, Gordon is a Negro. Selina’s taunt reply to her mother: "What did you call him?" She hadn’t known the color of his skin, only the purity of his heart.

Gordon realizes the danger. He seeks to get Selina out of her shabby home into a school for the blind, for she has never attended school. "A Patch of Blue" is a simple, beautiful story, but it is tragic and deeply thought-provoking. Selina falls in love with a man who is good to her. "He's" him — the personality, the kindness, the gentleness, the love. She does not ask what color his skin is. Even after learning he is Negro, she does not change.

The story is not a fairy tale, but is a true story. It presents a truth clearly and openly and society must face the question posed in this story:

No conscionable person could go away unmoved.

---

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Editor

As president of Lambda Chi Phalanx, it is my responsibility to attempt to clarify the misunderstanding brought about by our chapel presentation on March 24.

The presentation was never intended to be a source of controversy. It was solely an attempt to foster some semblance of school spirit here on our sometimes lackluster campus. Whether as a result of the program or not, the students supported the team better than perhaps ever before. The University approved the program were pleased with the response, and we were proud that we contributed to the school’s victory.

We erred, also, being caught up in emotion. We were engaged, we passed it off, thinking that the students would appreciate the unity the student body behind the team. We had hoped that everyone present would understand that the program was intended to be offensive to any one or group.

We were wrong. People were offended and had every right to be offended. For what might seem to some of us an insignificant occurrence is to others the first result. It is not to be understood, especially if no attempt at understanding is made. But if we can put ourselves in another's place for one hour — perhaps only one hour — we will understand.

Lee A. Hartman
President, Lambda Chi Phalanx

Dear Editor:

We who work in the cafeteria sometimes are very confused at the points that are handed down to us by that august body, the Dining Hall Committee. Obviously, our requests for more food are ignored and the words of the committee are wasted.

Lee Ann Hasapatos
President, Lambda Chi Phalanx

Dear Editor:

We were asked to cover the cafeteria sometimes are very confused at the points that are handed down to us by that august body, the Dining Hall Committee. Obviously, our requests for more food are ignored and the words of the committee are wasted.

Lee Ann Hasapatos
President, Lambda Chi Phalanx
Spring Activities Blossom
Sunbathing, Golfing, Studying?

Take some sunshine, add a skateboard, subtract a stubby win- ter, multiply by sunbathers, and add a pinch of soft breeze. What do you have? SPRING?

When asked what Spring means to them, Centra- tralites came up with many varied answers. The most common answer seems to be... "Semester is almost over, ya'll...

Oh, that means final exams... sigh!

Presently, sunbathing for the girls and golfing for the guys are the two most popular time-taking events. The lawns behind and between Krannert and Trimble halls and in front of Wilmore prove this statement. Spring water means skiing and mushroom hunting for Ric Mor- phett and Tom Donahue, and Neil Butler. Delegates were sent from 26 states and represented 77 different radio stations. The purpose of this convention was to bet- ter equip radio stations with ideas for program and delivery in areas such as music, news, and public service. The convention was spon- sored by NBC and ABC network officals, by record companies, and other various individuals.

This was the first year that Central has sent any delegates to such a convention. Our delegates re- ceived many new ideas to improve the programming on W.I.C.R. One of these ideas was to have less talking shows and more music. Another idea was to use talks in areas such as music, drama, and discussion groups.

HELP HELP HELP
The cafeteria staff needs help. We all have the idea that our college cafeteria is the best. On a day when you exercise, you might want to know just how many calories you burn at that job, and that's the chance to brownie up to your profs, or maybe, just maybe a chance to brownie up to your profs. We have places for waitresses, waiters, and pitmen. For a job that makes you feel like Steve Per- kins, headwaiter, or Chuck Sheehan, or Jon Beck, or Jane Wilcox-Whiting, Jon Beck, Jane Wilcox-Whiting, or Neil Butcher. Delegates not only in text books to meet the needs of students not only in text books, but also in others which will provide wider ideas, which cultural interest is promo- ted. It can be said that Central's cafeteria represents the students not only in text books, but also in others which will provide wider ideas, which cultural interest is promo- ted. It can be said that Central's cafeteria represents

As the sun peeked out one recent spring day, only one brave Centra- tralite shed his iacket. Others were not so daring.

WICR Delegates Visit Rutgers

The Intercollegiate Broadcast- ing System Convention held at Rutgers University, New Brunswick, New Jersey, was attended by three delegates from W.I.C.R. The dele- gates were Barbara Bean, sta- tion manager; Terry Donahue, and Neil Butler. Delegates were sent from 26 states and represented 77 different radio stations. The purpose of this convention was to bet- ter equip radio stations with ideas for program and delivery in areas such as music, news, and public service. The convention was spon- sored by NBC and ABC network officals, by record companies, and other various individuals.

This was the first year that Central has sent any delegates to such a convention. Our delegates re- ceived many new ideas to improve the programming on W.I.C.R. One of these ideas was to have less talking shows and more music. Another idea was to use talks in areas such as music, drama, and discussion groups.

WICR VIEWS COMMERCIAL OPERATION. WICR staff members were dressed impressively by a show of professionalism at the WFBM studios Tuesday, April 19. They learned of the basic operation of WFBM's television and AM-FM radio facilities.

As the sun peeked out one recent spring day, only one brave Centra- tralite shed his iacket. Others were not so daring.

As the sun peeked out one recent spring day, only one brave Centra- tralite shed his iacket. Others were not so daring.

As the sun peeked out one recent spring day, only one brave Centra- tralite shed his iacket. Others were not so daring.

As the sun peeked out one recent spring day, only one brave Centra- tralite shed his iacket. Others were not so daring.

As the sun peeked out one recent spring day, only one brave Centra- tralite shed his iacket. Others were not so daring.

As the sun peeked out one recent spring day, only one brave Centra- tralite shed his iacket. Others were not so daring.

Mrs. Bright Makes Plans For Bookstore

"Your Changing Customer" was the theme for this year's conven- tion of the College Stores. Mrs. Ar- thur B. Bright, the Indiana Central bookstore manager, attended this convention which was held in Chi- cago, April 18-22.

During the past year, Mrs. Bright has served on the smaller stores committee. While at the convention, she gave a speech and led discussions. Her main area of concern was the employee and em- ployer relations in small stores.

The main speaker for the con- vention was Eric F. Goldman who is the special consultant to the President of the United States.

Mrs. Bright profited greatly from the convention. She became more aware of the changing college student who is the bookstore's customer. She stated also that in the new book store, she will try to provide more books to meet the needs of the stu- dents not only in text books, but in others which will provide wider reading for study and entertain- ment.

WICR Delegates Visit Rutgers

The Intercollegiate Broadcast- ing System Convention held at Rutgers University, New Brunswick, New Jersey, was attended by three delegates from W.I.C.R. The dele- gates were Barbara Bean, sta- tion manager; Terry Donahue, and Neil Butler. Delegates were sent from 26 states and represented 77 different radio stations. The purpose of this convention was to bet- ter equip radio stations with ideas for program and delivery in areas such as music, news, and public service. The convention was spon- sored by NBC and ABC network officals, by record companies, and other various individuals.

This was the first year that Central has sent any delegates to such a convention. Our delegates re- ceived many new ideas to improve the programming on W.I.C.R. One of these ideas was to have less talking shows and more music. Another idea was to use talks in areas such as music, drama, and discussion groups.

HELP HELP HELP
The cafeteria staff needs help. We all have the idea that our college cafeteria is the best. On a day when you exercise, you might want to know just how many calories you burn at that job, and that's the chance to brownie up to your profs, or maybe, just maybe a chance to brownie up to your profs. We have places for waitresses, waiters, and pitmen. For a job that makes you feel like Steve Per- kins, headwaiter, or Chuck Sheehan, or Jon Beck, or Jane Wilcox-Whiting, Jon Beck, Jane Wilcox-Whiting, or Neil Butcher. Delegates not only in text books to meet the needs of students not only in text books, but also in others which will provide wider ideas, which cultural interest is promo- ted. It can be said that Central's cafeteria represents
The golf team lines up for the cameraman before the Manchester match, April 24. (L. to R.) They are Dan Mollau, Dennis Wise, Cary Hannel, Dave Wise, Phil Cranmer, and Jack Noone.

The picture thus far of Central's golf matches has been often as dim as a Hoosier day. It is often said that if one doesn't like the weather in Indiana he need only wait an hour, it'll change. We think that will be true of the golf team.

Central, as of this writing, has compiled no victories, while they have accumulated five defeats. Their matches thus far have gone: Boller, 0-1; Marian, 2-1; Earlham, 4-1; Manchester, 4-1; and Rose Poly, 1-1. We will complete our dual matches with Taylor, Anderson, and Hanover, then on May 13 in Marion, Indiana, where Central will attempt to improve on last year's fourth position in the Conference.

The mainstay of this year's team is Dave Wise, junior, who was Conference medalist last season and his freshman year was run-up. Dave so far this season has been hitting about four strokes above last year's average, a tremendous

Hounds Top Purdue, Marian

BY LARRY SWIFT

Indiana Central defeated Purdue April 25, on the loser's field for the first victory over Purdue since Ray Howard shut them out 2-0 in 1961. The Hounds captured an 11 inning 4-3 thriller. Freshman pitchers Dennis Fox and Jim Wilson combined talents to defeat the Boilermakers.

Indiana Central scored a run in the top of the first as Jim Brunner walked and eventually scored on a single to right by Frank De Lois. Purdue tied the game in the 5th on a solo homer by shortstop Ganzer. The Hounds went ahead 2-1 in the 7th as second baseman Bill Tutterow singled home Tim Gies with the go-ahead run. Purdue scored 2 in the bottom of the 8th on a home run by Dennis Brady, two singles and a sacrifice fly. Fox, who had pitched a strong game to the point, tired, and Wilson came on in relief to retire the last 11 Purdue batters in a row.

Indiana Central tied the game in the top of the 9th as Steve McGee was hit by a pitched ball. Tutterow sacrificed him to second, and he scored on a double to left by Steve McCarley and scored on a single to right by catcher Dick Elmore. Raby in Ninth Brings Victory

Indiana Central rivalry for 4 big runs in the bottom of the ninth to tie the score 6-6-8 on the winner's field, Tuesday, April 26. The Golden Knights were off to a quick lead with one run in the top of the first, but Central erased that short-lived lead with 3 runs in the bottom half of the inning. Phil Paswater accounted for the runs with a homer and two men on. Marian again scored in the top of the fifth gathering up 4 big runs off starting pitcher Kron and reliever John Swank. They tallied 3 more in the seventh. The Hounds came roaring back as Dick Elmore blasted a homer with one man on to bump the score to 8-6, Marian, and set the stage for the Hounds big rally.

In the big ninth inning pinch hitter Mike Terrell singled, McGee singled, and Leonard grounded out. Jim Brunner walked to load the bases. Freshman Bill Tutterow doubled in two runs, and then pinch hitter Donny Fox drove in the tying run on a ground rule double to second. Phil Paswater then singled in the winning run.

FRESH OVER WABASH 12-1

Wabash 0 0 0 00 0 0 0 0 0

L. C. 6 0 0 0 12 11 2

Batteries:

Wabash: Preston, Shank (5th); and Caplin.

I. C.: Evans, Wilson (6th), and Terrell.

1966 BASEBALL SQUAD

Golfer Anticipate Conference

BY STEVE MAPLE

Dr. R. Nelson

(Continued From Page One)

Dr. R. Nelson, (Continued From Page Two) the yonder. One heard about, knew quite a bit about it, and the sum of 1 is next in line. Hanni is a fresh- man with a promising future, but at present hasn't got off to the type of start that Central in Conference contention.

The final spot has been a tossup between Dennis Stretter and freshman Danny Mollau. These next three matches will give an indication on May 13. If we can play a good complete round, rather than a good degree of fluctuation between the first and the last; if the lineup remains intact, and we hope is a temporary slump—watch out Conference!

1966 TRACK SQUAD

Cloutier

(Continued From Page Two)