ATTENTION GIRLS:

“Light the Fire” is Theme of Leap Week On May 4th - 10th

“Light the Fire,” is the theme of Leap Week 1969, May 4-10, as announced by the event’s co-chairman, Peggy Clapp and John Williams.

Special things “happening” include electing a typical “Bachelor of the Week,” an open house in the same, as well as a “Turfing Party” in the wooded area behind the dorms where the woods will be open all during Leap Week for your recreation!

The various women’s organizations are planning a “mardi gras” (to submit “typical bachelor” names (no engaged or “married” (fellow). The Bachelors will then be selected by ballot in chapel on May 5, Monday evening in a Saddle Hawtton Dinner — “hillbilly style” dress is IN! Please come to the first formal, 11:30 a.m. Friday night, will light the lighting of the torches (which will remain burning the entire week) will take place to symbolize the theme “Light the Fire.” The “Bachelors” will be announced and crowned on the steps in front of Academic Hall followed by a sidewalk dance in the same area.

Because Dean Peterson has consented to having open house in the dorms, the theme, “be’ open from about 9:30 until the women’s hours each night during Leap Week. There will also be refreshments served.

Tuesday night a movie (to be announced) will be shown on the Osterholm side of the Fine Arts Building. Bring blankets or sit on the grass for the “open-air” showing.

Spring Formal Set For May 10

The Spring Formal, generally known as the Sweetheart Dance, has been re-scheduled for May 10, and will be incorporated with the Junior-Senior Banquet.

Accordingly, the banquet will begin at 7:00 p.m. in Scherrer Center and will include entertainment, following which will be the formal dance at the Columbia Club. Juniors and Seniors interested in attending the Banquet only, without dates, are urged to do so. Underclassmen may attend only the event at the Columbia Club. The dress at the Columbia Club will be white dinner jackets for men and long formal for the women. The Banquet will be formal or semi-formal according to taste.

Tickets will cost $1.00 and will be sold April 25. Seniors will be admitted free to both events; however, Juniors will pay half-price for the dance and full price for the Banquet.

Queen Coronation to Climax May Festival Activities

Crowning ceremonies for the 1969-70 May Queen and her court are scheduled for Saturday, May 3, at 8:15 p.m. This event will climax the entire May Festival.

Y'ALL COME:

“THE MAN WHO CAME TO DINNER” CHOSEN FOR COMEDY ON MAY 15-17

“The Man Who Came To Dinner,” a comedy by Moss Hart and George S. Kaufman will be presented by the Indiana Central Drama Department, May 15, and 17. This hilarious comedy was a Broadway favorite and has been popular on college campuses for twenty years.

In brief, the situation of the comedy is as follows. Sheraton Whiteside, played by Charles Reiser, invites dinner at the home of the Stanleys. An influx of guests, breaking the Slaney’s plans for a quiet evening, including Capt. Stan- ley’s friends and relations, break into the plan to make the house a ‘living party.’

The remainder of the cast includes: Beulah Stanley, portrayed by Joan Lang; Miss Priss, portrayed by Diane Farlow; Richard Stanley, portrayed by Snady Kraft; June Stanley, portrayed by Joyce Johnson; John, portrayed by Dave Miller; and, Sarah, portrayed by Viola Pritt.

The list of characters also includes: Harriet Stanley, portrayed by Rachel Reiner, Miss Stanley, portrayed by Paul Glass; Bob, portrayed by Dale Dobbs; and, Ethel, portrayed by Judy Hill.

There will be a sign-up sheet on the Central Council Door. Please sign up so the proper amount of food can be prepared.

A map in the Festival is included in this issue of the Reflector, and everyone is encouraged to attend. The Festival will be only one part of the week.
Council Key-Hole
As the newly elected president of the Central Council, I would like to express my thanks, as well as the thanks of all the Central Council officers, to those of you who supported us.

As we look forward to the coming year, we are also concerned with making appointments to the various committees of the Council. There are a great variety of positions open and anyone who is interested in these should drop a note to me by campus mail. Also, any suggestions which you may have concerning the operation of the Council or any of its functions will be appreciated.

Now is the time to help plan, and next year is the time to actuate these plans. Both of these functions require the support of the student body. The effectiveness of our student government and the quality of the coming year rest upon the willingness of you, the student body, to involve yourselves in this task.

ART
The Leah Rankagh Art Gallery will be displaying the recent works of James McBride from April 23 through May 9. Mr. McBride is a local artist who shows his watercolors in the gallery from 9:00 to 4:00, Monday through Saturday. The exhibit opens on April 13 through the 27th. As Associate Professor Royce in the judging of Art at St. John's University. The exhibit opens on April 9 through the 26th. The senior art students will be showing their work on April 19 through the 26th.

MUSIC
Professor Frieda Lyda, Regional Director for the Girls' Clubs of America, will be speaking at the Humanities Workshop speaker on April 1. Mrs. Lyda gave an account of her experience in working with clubs throughout a six state area.

SPORTS
Scheffler Wilson, assistant librarian who designed the opera orchestra, conducted a series of classes for minority groups.

Reflections: Selections include field trips to the Boy Scout Fair, Southwestern Community Center, and the Jewish Community Center.

MUSIC
John Miller, a member of the Indianapolis Symphony Orchestra, will be talking about the role of music in the life of a university, and of the Indiana Central College music faculty, presented the second program of the Administration Building on March 15.

NURSING
The Nursing Department participated in the "Health Care: A Community Experience" by holding an open house. Slides depicting the various clinical experience areas of Community Hospital were shown.

The freshmen nursing students portrayed the various areas of nursing experiences by using dolls for demonstrations. Each doll appeared in a hospital setting, a home trination, and another was in an oxygen tent. The display was entitled "A Day in the Life of the Student Nurse at the School of Nursing." The freshmen presented a display of their experience of a nurse in the community experience areas of nursing.

The nursing uniform worn by the first-year students was also displayed with pictures from their coming ceremony, a copy of the Florence Nightingale pledge, and ceramic lamp used in the captioning ceremony. The nurse's uniform was a descriptive picture of the nursing pin presented to students at graduation.

MATH AND PHYSICS
Tom Schroeder and Henry Dra- hoy, both seniors majoring in his- gin graduate work in the Depart- ment of Physics at Purdue University in September. Tom has been awarded a NASA Engineering Scholarship to work at the Jet Propulsion Laboratory, and Henry has been awarded a Teaching Fellowship.

DUTIES DEFINED

M. Cecil Elected Proxy of Council

I see the office of president of the Council as a position that will afford me the opportunity to help lead the students in the forward ing of the college, and in making the goals of the college, it also affords the opportunity for correcting areas where the student body needs improvement.

I am glad to have this opportunity, but I realize that the effectiveness of the Council is directly determined by the backing which the council representatives receive from their constituents.

Therefore, the success of the coming year depends on two important factors: 1) the elected officers and 2) the support of the student body. I trust that we can and will work together to make the coming year profitable for all.

STEVE MILLER . . . Religious V.P.

R.A.V.P. Miller

I have heard many comments on where I stand or sit in the area of religion. To some I am, of at least used to be a prude, a close- minded fundamentalist. To others I am a liberal, communist, even though I eat with my right hand. And still others see me as blowing in the wind, teetering on the fence. But now I attempt to comment on my ideology, or lack of it.

I say it this way. I am concerned. My concern reaches beyond cool tolerance to warm acceptance and cooperation in human relationships. In my more or less serious moments I try to avoid limps, parties, left and right, fencesitting, flag-waving, bible-beating, or any other classification of thought, unless I find no alternative for self-expression. However, if I must be tagged, as I inevitably will be, let it be said that I lean to the left.

Pinkerton Is Named For Patrol of Campus

by Jon Burroughs

One of the few unusual names of our college is the campus policeman. Until recently, the task of patrolling I.C.C. campus was the job of Thomas and Company, a highly respected company. Lately, due to the poor quality of service, officials felt a change should be made. In accordance with the change we now have a new company handling the patrol of our campus, Pinkertons.

A well-known company, Pinkerton has been in service for at least 100 years. It is hoped that the change over will provide a safer campus for students residing in the dormitories and Schiess Center at night.

Although there are six "regulars" which alterate during the week, the company is also training two new members by patrolling the campus now and then. Two shifts of guards patrol the campus each night.

In the early years of our campus, the duties of the campus police were assumed by janitors, janitors and men later off-duty police. As the college grew, so did a need for a group of trained men to take over, and Thompson's was hired. Pinkerton Co. has assumed the role.

If you avoid working students should stare out your dorm window some evening and spot a lone figure on the lawn, fear not. It's not Batman, a burglar, or even a lost freshman. It's your campus police!
Ten Games Rained Out

The Greyhound baseball season is off to a rainy start, as the baseball men have managed to play 5 games without any rain; 10 games thus far. Even though the squad has managed to сырк the rain, they have managed to post a 4-win and 1-loss record.

As a result, the ball players upped their season record to 6 and 3, as they defeated Eastern Illinois 10-3 and San Francisco 1-0. Once again the Hounds got great pitching as they did in their 6-2 win.

Dave Verhock drove in Steve Shook with a single in the first game and drove in Greg Baker for the winning tally in the second game. Winning pitchers for the Hounds were Shook and Hedges.

Below are the summaries of the games played this season.

Women’s Sports

Defeats over Franklin, Earlham, and Marian. The women batting has not been outstanding, but it should improve as the season wears on.

The track season has started for the women under the direction of Mr.讲话. But they have been working very hard for their meets and doing well.

Also during this time Joanne Bledsoe is coaching the women’s softball team.

Dates of the track meets and games will be posted.

ADDRESS:

Custer's Stand

May be your wonder why Indiana Central's record was listed as 20-9 in NAIA statistics when the ball club went to Kansas City. The NAIA does not count games with junior colleges and ICC's except those played in the NAIA.

John Beebe was the ball club's leading receiver, and Bob Smock was the leading field goal percentage shooter hitting 50 per cent of his shots. William led in total points, final shooting, scoring average (23.5) and free throws made.

The next season the Greyhounds will have not only one starter returning, but being Pendleton's Todd Jones. They defeated North Carolina in the first six matches, the golfers were all Kentucky needed, and they were undefeated, with a lone tie to Illinois Central.
